Dunbar, Tony Blair, 2013-04-02 It seems that nearly everyone is talking about missional change for congregations As a result many church leaders are attempting to drive that kind of change for the ministries they lead Some succeed But many others hit a wall of considerable frustration as they find that congregations resist the very change that is so needed The reasons for this resistance are many and they are explored in this volume What is required to move a church from resistance to readiness Some resistance is deeply rooted in spiritual patterns But there are other reasons as well and they center on trust personal trust in the leaders who offer missional change For this work the authors have done extensive primary and secondary research to identify patterns and behaviors that invite missional leadership More than that they've lived this out in their own ministries as pastors of traditional congregations This book thus offers compelling first person stories and congregational case studies alongside more generalized findings Leading Missional Change was written to support pastors and other church leaders who experience resistance to share wisdom and experience that may lead to readiness and to give hope and encouragement toward a re-energizing of your own congregation The Music of the Moravian Church in America Nola Reed Knouse, 2008 The Moravians or Bohemian Brethren early Protestants who settled in Pennsylvania and North Carolina in the eighteenth century brought a musical repertoire that included hymns sacred vocal works accompanied by chamber orchestra and instrumental music by the best known European composers of the day Moravian composers mostly pastors and teachers trained in the styles and genres of the Haydn Mozart era crafted thousands of compositions for worship and copied and collected thousands of instrumental works for recreation and instruction The book's chapters examine sacred and secular works both for instruments including piano solo and for voices The Music of the Moravian Church demonstrates the varied roles that music played in one of America's most distinctive ethno-cultural populations and presents many distinctive pieces that performers and audiences continue to find rewarding Contributors Alice M Caldwell C Daniel Crews Lou Carol Fix Pauline M Fox Albert H Frank Nola Reed Knouse Laurence Libin Paul M Peucker and Jewel A Smith Nola Reed Knouse director of the Moravian Music Foundation since 1994 is active as a flautist composer and arranger She is the editor of The Collected Wind Music of David Moritz Michael Statistical Register for ...
