Saywell,2008-09-18 Written to honour the life and work of the late Peter N Oliver the distinguished historian and editor in chief of the Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History from 1979 2006 this collection assembles the finest legal scholars to reflect on the issues in and development of the field of legal history in Canada Covering a broad range of topics this volume examines developments over the last two hundred years in the legal profession and the judiciary nineteenth century prison history as well as the impact of the 1815 Treaty of Paris The introduction also provides insight into the history of the Osgoode Society and of Oliver's essential role in it along with an illuminating analysis of the Society's publications program which produced sixty six books during his tenure A fitting tribute to one of the foremost legal historians this tenth volume of Essays in the History of Canadian Law is a significant contribution to the discipline to which Oliver devoted so much Unbuilt

Toronto Mark Osbaldeston,2008-10-27 Unbuilt Toronto explores never realized building projects in and around Toronto from the city's founding to the twenty first century Delving into unfulfilled and largely forgotten visions for grand public buildings landmark skyscrapers highways subways and arts and recreation venues it outlines such ambitious schemes as St Alban's Cathedral the Queen subway line and early city plans that would have resulted in a Paris by the Lake Readers may lament the loss of some projects such as the Eaton's College Street tower be thankful for the disappearance of others a highway through the Annex and marvel at the downtown that could have been with underground roads and walkways in the sky Featuring 147 photographs and illustrations many never before published Unbuilt Toronto casts a different light on a city you thought you knew The Dundurn Group The Dundurn Group, Legal & Financial Aspects of Architectural

Conservation Marc Denhez,Stephen Dennis,1997-07-01 How do governments design their strategy for heritage property What do they try to accomplish in their laws and their tax systems to favour the re use of older buildings districts and cities

What institutional framework can assist the restoration of tourist designations and the conservation of neighbourhoods In this international study eighteen experts from ten countries describe the legal challenges and solutions relating to such property Beyond a carefully described theoretical framework actual case studies demonstrate how communities and countries can make adjustments to their legislation so that older buildings can be better protected This book stems from an international conference at Smolenice Castle in Slovakia in November 1994 The Heritage Strategy Planning

Handbook Marc Denhez,1997-10-10 Strategies for the conservation and revitalization of buildings and districts have preoccupied the international community for decades This book summarizes the five major legislative approaches the treaties and international declarations including The Habitat Agenda 1996 outlining how to deal with these properties e g in light of sustainable development Positive and negative examples from some twenty jurisdictions are cited but they are seldom place specific Indeed most of the problems and their solutions could occur in almost any country on earth Most European literature on monument conservation deals exclusively with the powers of public authorities Marc Denhez s book gives equal space to existing political and legal frameworks but always with an eye on the potential end user the citizen This conspicuously practical approach is the book s first advantage the second for a European reader is that it opens new horizons beyond the old Euro centric view of the subject Peter Rupp Minister of Culture France Advisor to the Council of Europe
