Learning at the Crossroads of Theory and Practice

Piet Van den Bossche,Wim H. Gijssels, Richard G. Miltner,2012-03-19 Core concepts in education are changing For example professional performance or expertise is not uniquely the fruit of specialist knowledge acquired at professional schools but the sum of influences exerted by a complex web of continuous learning opportunities for which an individual is well or ill prepared by their schools and their workplace The key contributory factors to professional expertise are how professional schools connect to professional practice how schools prepare graduates for continuous learning and how the workplace endorses continuous development Thus the question this volume addresses how to design learning and working environments that facilitate the integration of these three elements is at the heart of contemporary pedagogical theory The authors also ask a second vital question how do we educate learners that go on to maximize their life s learning opportunities by regulating their own ongoing learning Learning at the Crossroads of Theory and Practice argues that with the theory of learning at a crossroads this is an unprecedented opportunity for learning about learning The book sheds light on different elements of this challenge integrating theory and practice in business education generating and fully exploiting workplace learning opportunities and enriching our classrooms by coupling theoretical knowledge with the richness of real life experience

Medical Education: Theory and Practice E-Book Tim Dornan,Karen V. Mann,Albert J J A Scherpbier,John A. Spencer,2011-12-02 Medical Education Theory and Practice is a new text linking the theory and the practice for graduate students and educators who want to go beyond the basics The scholarship of medical education is above all a practice but one that has a strong theoretical foundation Neither theory nor practice stand still and both are grounded in research The novelty of this book lies in its interweaving of practice theory innovation and research The book starts with a theorised contemporary overview of the field Next it explores the theoretical foundations of medical education in depth The remainder of the book reviews a whole a range of educational contexts processes and outcomes This work has been edited by a distinguished international team of medical educationalists and written by equally accomplished authors from across the globe representing a spectrum of disciplines This will be an invaluable text for all Masters Students in health professions education as well as PhD students and education researchers wanting a background to the discipline Educators and medical students will also find it a very useful resource Written by key figures in medical educational research combined with a strong editorial influence from the international editorial team The text has a strong evidence based approach that is fully cognisant of research methodology issues The book provides a scholarly explanation on the topic rather than aiming to say the last word Written throughout in a clear and comprehensible style The content is extensively referenced with additional suggestions for further reading

Resources in Education ,2001-10 The Journal of Educational Method James Fleming Hosic,1923 Journal of Educational Method ,1923 How to Enhance Learning Efficiency When Online Learning is Popular and Indispensable: Theory, Research and Practice Rong Lian,Chang Liu ,Juzhe Xi,2024-07-17 Online learning has become more and more common globally whether for comfort adapting to work hours or just having the freedom to study from anywhere And now under the coronavirus pandemic as people are having to stay at home it has become more important than ever Although the popularity of wireless network and portable smart device makes it possible for people to acquire and learn knowledge anytime and anywhere it does not necessarily mean an increased learning performance Relevant research in cognitive science has revealed possible limitations in online learning For example the knowledge acquired through online learning tends to be fragmented and lacks guidance for integrated thinking among different subjects which makes it difficult for learners to form a systematic knowledge structure Learners may experience cognitive overload metacognitive illusion and low learning efficiency in self regulated learning It follows that in the post COVID 19 era online learning puts forward new requirements and challenges to the contemporary students not only to their learning strategies but positive character traits in learning Most of the current learning theories were developed in the early 20th century and may not fit in well with the current situation then possibly leading to inefficient learning and increased learning burden Therefore it is necessary and important to reexplore the influencing factors and mechanisms that affect the learning efficiency of students at all levels nowadays based on which we could construct a theoretical model of efficient learning model The Adult Learner Malcolm S. Knowles,Elwood F. Holton III,Richard A. Swanson,Petra A. Robinson,2020-12-21 How do you tailor education to the learning needs of adults Do they learn differently from children How does their life experience inform their learning processes These were the questions at the heart of Malcolm Knowles pioneering theory of andragogy which transformed education theory in the 1970s The resulting principles of a self directed experiential problem centred approach to learning have been hugely influential and are still the basis of the learning practices we use today Understanding these principles is the cornerstone of increasing motivation and enabling adult learners to achieve The 9th edition of The Adult Learner has been revised to include Updates to the book to reflect the very latest advancements in the field The addition of two new chapters on diversity and inclusion in adult learning and andragogy and the online adult learner An updated supporting website This website for the 9th edition of The Adult Learner will provide basic instructor aids For each chapter there will be a PowerPoint presentation learning exercises and added study questions Revisions throughout to make it more readable and relevant to your practices If you are a researcher practitioner or student in education an adult learning practitioner training manager or involved in human resource development this is the definitive book in adult learning you should not be without

Theory and Empirical Practice in Research on Social and Emotional Skills Miloš Kankaraš,Filip De Fruyt,Ricardo Primi,2022-09-22 The Relation of Theory to Practice in the Education of Teachers ... ,1927 Ego Development for Effective Coaching and Consulting Thomas Binder,2023-06-12 Both in research and in practice a number of basic competencies are considered necessary for successful process oriented coaching and consulting activities In the present research work the extent to which these necessary competencies are related to vertical personality development was investigated Loevinger s model of ego development a stage theory of development provides the frame of reference for this study This paper fully summarizes the current state of research on the model in order to comprehensively analyze possible relationships with coaching and consulting competencies As a first step the competency requirements of selected coaching and consulting associations were analyzed to determine whether they are related to ego development and whether they express minimum requirements for ego development The analysis revealed that the competency requirements of all associations show clear parallels to aspects of ego development The majority of these requirements point to a fully developed self governed stage E6 of ego development as a prerequisite for process oriented coaching and consulting services In a second step empirical studies were examined to systematically analyze the relationship between ego development and aspects relevant to coaching and consulting The results of the current empirical studies show a clear correlation between these competencies and ego development This means that as ego development increases higher coaching and consulting competencies become more likely Many studies also indicate that a fully developed self governed stage of ego development can be expected as the basis for consistent work at an intermediate level of competence Engineering News-record ,1916 Office of Education Research Reports Educational Resources Information Center (U.S.),1967 Office of Education Research Reports, 1956-1965 United States.
