Monroe, 2017-04-03 The first part of this work includes all the known

They have been edited in a Romanized transliteration and are accompanied by a facing page English prose translation along with notes and commentaries intended to elucidate matters relevant to each poem. In the second part of the work sixteen chapters are devoted to analyzing specific poems from a literary perspective in order to delve into their meaning and thereby explain the poet's literary goals.

The Arabic Role in Medieval Literary History María Rosa Menocal, María Rosa Menocal, 2010-08-03 Arabic culture was a central and shaping phenomenon in medieval Europe yet its influence on medieval literature has been ignored or marginalized for the last two centuries. In this ground breaking book now returned to print with a new afterword by the author María Rosa Menocal argues that major modifications of the medieval canon and its literary history are necessary. Menocal reviews the Arabic cultural presence in a variety of key settings including the courts of William of Aquitaine and Frederick II the universities in London Paris and Bologna and Cluny under Peter the Venerable and she examines how our perception of specific texts including the courtly love lyric and the works of Dante and Boccaccio would be altered by an acknowledgment of the Arabic cultural component.

The Arabian Epic: Volume 1, Introduction M. C. Lyons, 2005-06-17 The heroic cycles of Arabic belong to the literary tradition of The Arabian Nights and can be seen as the popular epics of their civilisation. Published in three volumes the first introduces the background to the cycles while the second analyses their contents and literary formulae. The epitomes surveyed in the final volume provide further insight into their literary nuances.

La mujer en la épica francesa María Luisa Donaire Fernández, 1982 No es la primera vez que alguien se pregunta si en un género literario llamado a exaltar las proezas del hombre la virilidad del guerrero la dignidad del vasallo leal a su señor cabe un protagonismo de la mujer. La literatura francesa de todas las épocas ha elegido con frecuencia una mujer como centro de todas sus obras. Y la pica no podía olvidarla. Solamente tres cantares de gesta de los 72 analizados carecen totalmente de personajes femeninos.

Traditions of Heroic and Epic Poetry: The traditions Robert Auty, 1980

The Legacy of Muslim Spain Salma Khadra Jayyusi, Manuela Marín, 1992 The civilisation of medieval Muslim Spain is perhaps the most brilliant and prosperous of its age and has been essential to the direction which civilisation in medieval Europe took. This volume is the first ever in any language to deal in a really comprehensive manner with all major aspects of Islamic civilisation in medieval Spain.

Memories of Colonisation in Medieval and Modern Castile Rebecca De Souza, 2024-10-31 Memories of Colonisation in Medieval and Modern Castile Rereading and Refashioning al Andalus traces the evolving memory of a dominant al Andalus in medieval Castilian and later modern Spanish literature and its overlap with contemporary formations of collective identity race and nation. It presents a series of close readings of neomedievalist literary works that look back to the socioeconomic apogee of al Andalus the tenth century Umayyad Caliphate of Cordoba from the thirteenth to the nineteenth century. These works rewrite what has become known as the story of the siete infantes de Lara although it is their Andalusí half brother

Mudarra who takes centre stage from the early modern period on In its earliest form it is a story of a weak conflictual county of Castile dependent socioeconomically and morally upon Andalusi intervention This book therefore traces how a story of Castilian weakness is repeatedly rewritten once the reverse colonial dynamic had taken hold and Castile had begun conquering al Andalus Memories of Colonisation asks why Mudarra and the infantes continue to reappear in medieval chronicles from the Estoria de Espa a to lesser known regional historiography early modern ballads comedias and nineteenth century Romantic poetry and prose By examining how each of these texts remember tenth century Iberia s fluid geographical and interracial boundaries it explores how they support or challenge dominant contemporary discourses of collective identity race and nation from the neogothic aspirations of thirteenth century Castile to the antisemitism of fifteenth century Toledo expansion in the Mediterranean the Islamophobia of the morisco expulsion and the partisan manipulation of al Andalus under nineteenth century liberalism As the first study of the development of Spanish neomedievalism it explores how this serves as a productive prescient discourse of cultural memory through which chroniclers poets playwrights and authors can look forward It questions the inevitability of Christian Castilian colonial hegemony by invoking a narrative of Christian Iberia s own subjugation by a superior Umayyad Caliphate It also explores how each text exposes the task of reconstructing historical memory in the present and thereby challenges the notion of a stable incontestable past for Castile and Spain

Medieval Iberian Crusade Fiction and the Mediterranean World David A. Wacks, 2019-09-06 Reading crusader fiction against the backdrop of Mediterranean history this book explains how Iberian authors reimagined the idea of crusade through the lens of Iberian geopolitics and social history The crusades transformed Mediterranean history and inaugurated complex engagements between Western Europe the Balkans North Africa and the Middle East in ways that endure to this day Narratives of crusades powerfully shaped European thinking about the East and continue to influence the representation of interactions between Christian and Muslim states in the region The crusade a French idea that gave rise to Iberian North African and Levantine campaigns was very much a Mediterranean phenomenon French and English authors wrote itineraries in the Holy Land chronicles of the crusades and fanciful accounts of Christian knights who championed the Latin Church in the East This study aims to explore the ways in which Iberian authors imagined their role in the culture of crusade both as participants and interpreters of narrative traditions of the crusading world from north of the Pyrenees

The Art of Badī' Az-Zamān Al-Hamadhānī as Picaresque Narrative James T. Monroe, 1983 Aljamia Universidad de Oviedo. Departamento de Filología Clásica y Románica,

National Archetypes and Labour Subordination Antonio Ojeda-Avilés, 2023-10-30 Among the plethora of heroes of different significance religious artistic political etc national archetypes stand out because they represent the outstanding traits of their fellow citizens and at the same time serve as role models for them How these archetypes are formed in some countries and what their specific features are constitutes the starting point for this study The book then enters a second phase with the narration of their jobs as literary heroes culminating in a reflection on the possible effects that the archetype may have on the behaviour of workers and employers in the respective country After the analysis of the five main European countries the book undertakes a comparative study of other non European archetypes where the profiles are quite different
