Overt and Covert Treasures Clara Wing-chung Ho, 2012-08-20 This is the first published volume on a variety of sources for Chinese women s history It is an attempt to explore overt and covert information on Chinese women in a vast quantity of textual and nontextual conventional and unconventional source materials Some chapters reread wellknown texts or previously marginalized texts and brainstorm new ways to use and interpret these sources others explore new sources or previously overlooked or underused materials This book is a valuable product witnessing the concerted effort of twenty some scholars located in different parts of the world All in the Family Gaia Gianni, 2025-08-18 Gaia Gianni s All in the Family explores how children shaped the development of pseudo familial bonds or fictive kinship in Roman society during the early imperial period Previous scholarship on the Roman family has primarily emphasized the patriarchal and nuclear structure of the Roman family with children often represented as passive actors in a vacuum Believing this to be an oversimplification of how the Roman family functioned Gianni in her study focuses on the ways in which Roman families raised children and formed long term relationships with individuals outside of the nuclear family such as friends neighbors nurses and caretakers who gradually became full fledged members of the family unit Through a wide variety of literary works legal documents and funerary epitaphs for children set up by their families and caregivers Gianni borrows from modern sociological and anthropological theories to argue that children acted as catalysts or connecting nodes in the creation of fictive kinship with individuals who were not part of the biologically determined family In addition to illuminating the roles and experiences of these figures All in the Family reveals how this social network was integrated into the family both in practice and in ideology presenting a more complex view of the Roman family than the traditional nuclear structure
