

EPITAPHS FOR THE LIVING

Words and Images
in the Time of AIDS

Photographs by Billy Howard
With an Introduction by Lonnie D. Kliever

Looking at myself, and realizing how depressed
I look, brings a well known poem into my mind

"The world is such a nice place to live in and it is such a pity to leave it"

Jeff Nichols
FRANKFURT (West Germany)

Epitaphs for the Living Billy Howard, 1989-01-01 A photograph and their words for living or dying of persons with AIDS

Facing Death: Images, Insights, and Interventions Sandra L. Bertman, 2016-01-08 Facing Death is a unique handbook for educators healthcare professionals and counselors It uses materials from the visual arts excerpts from poetry fiction drama and examples from popular culture to sensitize the reader to important universal issues confronting the dying and those responsible for their care

The ^AQueer Biopic in the AIDS Era Laura Stamm, 2021-12-07 The Queer Biopic in the AIDS Era examines the use that New Queer Cinema filmmakers Derek Jarman Barbara Hammer Todd Haynes etc made of the biopic genre during the AIDS era and how this in turn influenced contemporary queer film Confronting AIDS Through Literature Judith Laurence Pastore, 1993 This anthology offers an array of viewpoints on the use of literature to confront AIDS In Part 1 the authors a o Michael Denny Paul Reed James W Jones chronicle the increasing significance of AIDS in fiction journalism drama and contemporary spirituality Part 2 offers a sampling of creative writing on AIDS with fragments by a o Paul Monette Melvin Dixon Joel Redon David Feinberg Part 3 shows how AIDS literature can enlighten and energize humanities composition and medical students

AIDS Narratives Steven F. Kruger, 2013-10-28 This is the first book length study of the rich fiction that has emerged from the AIDS crisis Examining first the ways in which scientific discourse on AIDS has reflected ideologies of gender and sexuality such as the construction of AIDS as a disease of gay men part of a battle over masculinity and thus largely excluding women with AIDS from public attention the book considers how such discourses have shaped narrative understandings of AIDS On the one hand AIDS is seen as an invariably fatal weakening of an individual s bodily defenses a depiction often used to reconfirm an identification between disease and a weak and vulnerable gayness On the other hand AIDS is understood in terms of an epidemic attributable to gay immorality or unnaturalness The fiction of AIDS depends upon these two narratives with one major subgenre of AIDS novel presenting narratives of personal illness decline and death and a second focusing on epidemic spread These novels also question the narrative structures upon which they depend intervening particularly against the homophobia of those structures though also sometimes reinforcing it

Lost Bodies Laura E. Tanner, 2018-07-05 If the dying body makes us flinch and look away struggling not to see what we have seen the lost body disappears from cultural view buried along with the sensory traces of its corporeal presence from the Introduction American popular culture conducts a passionate love affair with the healthy fit preferably beautiful body and in recent years theories of embodiment have assumed importance in various scholarly disciplines But what of the dying or dead body Why do we avert our gaze speak of it only as absence This thoughtful and beautifully written book illustrated with photographs by Shellburne Thurber and other remarkable images finds a place for the dying and lost body in the material intellectual and imaginary spaces of contemporary American culture Laura E Tanner focuses her keen attention on photographs of AIDS patients and abandoned living spaces newspaper accounts of September 11 literary works by Don DeLillo Donald Hall Sharon Olds Marilynne Robinson and others and material objects including the AIDS Quilt She analyzes the way in which these representations of the body reflect current cultural assumptions revealing how Americans read imagine and view the dynamics of illness and loss The disavowal of bodily dimensions of death and grief she asserts deepens rather than mitigates the isolation of the dying and the bereaved Lost Bodies will speak to anyone imperiled by the threat of loss     Facing Death Sandra L. Bertman,1991 This work draws upon material from the visual arts poetry fiction drama and pop culture to help lead the reader to a heightened awareness of the universal nature of the issues that face the dying and those who care for them The author argues     AIDS Bibliography ,1991     Not in This Family Heather Murray,2012-02-10 Many Americans hold fast to the notion that gay men and women more often than not have been ostracized from disapproving families Not in This Family challenges this myth and shows how kinship ties were an animating force in gay culture politics and consciousness throughout the latter half of the twentieth century Historian Heather Murray gives voice to gays and their parents through an extensive use of introspective writings particularly personal correspondence and diaries as well as through published memoirs fiction poetry song lyrics movies and visual and print media Starting in the late 1940s and 1950s Not in This Family covers the entire postwar period including the gay liberation and lesbian feminist movements of the 1960s and 1970s the establishment of PFLAG Parents Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays and the AIDS crisis of the 1980s and 1990s Ending her story with an examination of contemporary coming out rituals Murray shows how the personal that was once private became political and finally public In exploring the intimate reciprocal relationship of gay children and their parents Not in This Family also chronicles larger cultural shifts in privacy discretion and public revelation and the very purpose of family relations Murray shows that private bedrooms and consumer culture social movements and psychological fashions all had a part to play in transforming the modern family     Jungian Dimensions of the Mourning Process, Burial Rituals and Access to the Land of the Dead Elizabeth Brodersen,2023-08-22 This innovative volume on the mourning process burial rites and intimations of immortality offers diverse Jungian cross cultural interdisciplinary depth psychological perspectives written predominantly by graduates and candidates of the CG Jung Institute Zurich The themes of this book are particularly relevant as they relate to the COVID 19 pandemic and other environmental disasters when so many people die without a proper burial and are thus not properly commemorated with their status value The contributors cover a wide range of subjects from their clinical observations attached to grief and loss in the prolonged mourning process the meaning behind burial rites in cyclical and linear temporalities and an analysis of why certain dead are excluded from becoming ancestors Unconscious processes such as dreams archetypes and cultural complexes from the personal and collective unconscious are also presented and explored This collection will be of great interest to interdisciplinary academic researchers Jungian analysts and students psychoanalysts psychotherapists anthropologists cultural theorists and students interested in the mourning process rites of passage past and present burial practices and the imaginative symbolic significance of the land of the dead      The James White Review ,1983      Ethics in an Epidemic Timothy F.
