Equality And Inequality In Eastern Europe:

Equality and Inequality in Eastern Europe Pierre Kende, Zdenek Strmiska, Jean Charles Asselain, 1987      Gender Inequality in the Eastern European Labour Market Giovanni Razzu, 2016-10-26 Under communism there was in the countries of Eastern Europe a high level of gender equality in the labour market particularly in terms of high participation rates by women. The transition from communism has upset this situation with different impacts in the different countries. This book presents a comprehensive overview of gender and the labour market since the fall of communism in a wide range of Eastern European countries. Each country chapter describes the nature of inequality in the particular country and goes on to examine the factors responsible for this including government policies changing social attitudes levels of educational attainment and the impact of motherhood. Overall the book provides an interesting comparison to the situation in Western developed countries outlining differences and similarities. No one single Eastern European model emerges while as in Western developed countries a range of experiences and trends is the norm      Gender Inequality in the Eastern European Labour Market Giovanni Razzu, 2016-10-26 Under communism there was in the countries of Eastern Europe a high level of gender equality in the labour market particularly in terms of high participation rates by women. Overall the book provides an interesting comparison to the situation in Western developed countries outlining differences and similarities. No one single Eastern European model emerges while as in Western developed countries a range of experiences and trends is the norm      The Challenges of European Governance in the Age of Economic Stagnation, Immigration, and Refugees Henry F. Carey, 2016-12-20 This book examines the political and legal challenges of regional governance of the 28 countries of the European Union and the 48 in the Council of Europe. The contributions, dilemmas and moral hazards from this record of nearly seven decades of regional inter governmental institutions has kept the peace but produced episodes of crisis from overstretching jurisdictions thematically and geographically. Polarization between nationalist and integrative forces has displaced the idealistic aspirations of prior decades to build the rule of law and deter violence. Academics and policy makers will learn from the various legal and political efforts to integrate supranational and inter governmental agencies with national political systems      Ethnic Stratification and Economic Inequality around the World Max Haller in collaboration, Anja Eder, 2016-03-03 The modern world is characterised by pervasive economic inequalities. Strong economic growth in some developing countries has contributed to a degree to a reduction in the levels of inequality between nations yet inequality within nations remains high and in some cases continues to increase Ethnic Stratification and Economic Inequality around the World investigates the reasons for these striking differences exploring the coincidence and interaction between economic stratification and ethnic differentiation Drawing on extensive international survey and statistical data the author develops a new theory and concrete hypotheses concerning the conditions which lead toward extreme inequality and those which tend toward greater equality A systematic examination of the interaction between class structures social stratification and ethnic differentiation this book sheds light on the manner in which the resulting social structures produce different levels of economic inequality offering a fivefold typology of patterns of ethnic stratification which can be applied to present day world regions Drawing on the work of Max Weber to provide a rigorous investigation of inequality around the world it demonstrates what sociology as a science of social reality can significantly contribute to our understanding of global economic stratification The book is relevant for a wide social scientific audience particularly for sociologists economists and political scientists working in a comparative perspective Security

Implications Of Nationalism In Eastern Europe Jeffrey Simon, Trond Gilberg, 2019-06-26 Suggesting that events in Poland during 1980-1981 represent the tip of an iceberg the contributors examine the rise of nationalism in Eastern Europe and its potential consequences for European security They analyze developing problems and trends in the region including the cooling of relations between the USSR and individual countries in Eastern Europe the continuing economic crisis changing social structures the influence of the intelligentsia and the eroding importance of ideology as a key part of Eastern Europe's political culture The second half of the book focuses on the impact of these shifts on political and military relations between the USSR and Eastern European countries and on the efficient functioning of the Warsaw Pact Gender and Power in Eastern Europe Katharina Bluhm, Gertrud Pickhan, Justyna Stypinska, Agnieszka Wierzholska, 2020-10-31 This book explores the contradictory development of gender roles in Central and Eastern Europe including Russia In light of the social changes that followed the collapse of communism and the rise of new conservatism in Eastern Europe it studies new forms of gender relationships and reassesses the status quo of female empowerment Moreover leading scholars in gender studies discuss how right wing populism and conservative movements have affected sociopolitical discourses and concepts related to gender roles rights and attitudes and how Western feminism in the 1990s may have contributed to this conservative turn Mainly focusing on power constellations and gender the book is divided into four parts the first explores the history of and recent trends in feminist movements in Eastern Europe while the second highlights the dynamics and conflicts that gained momentum after neoconservative parties gained political power in post socialist countries In turn the third part discusses new empowerment strategies and changes in gender relationships The final part illustrates the identities roles and concepts of masculinity created in the sociocultural and political context of Eastern Europe Eastern Europe, 1986-1993 Robert H. Burger, Helen F. Sullivan, 1995-12-15 Describing approximately 1 000 books published between 1986 and late 1993 this work provides readers with a selective guide to English language publications on the subject of Eastern Europe It covers general studies of the area as well as works on the individual countries of Albania Bulgaria the former Czechoslovakia the former German Democratic Republic East Germany Hungary Poland Romania and the former Yugoslavia In addition to bibliographic and descriptive information the authors also include citations to book reviews A companion to their Russia and the Former Soviet Union Libraries Unlimited 1994 this volume also focuses on the social sciences and the humanities As interest about this part of the world continues to build and English language publications about it proliferate Burger and Sullivan s guide is a pertinent addition to academic and public library collections

Transnationalizing Inequalities in Europe Anna Amelina, 2016-09-13 Unequal life chances became a key feature of cross border migration to and within the enlarged Europe Combining transnational intersectional and cultural sociological perspectives this book develops a conceptual tool to analyse patterns contexts and mechanisms of these cross border inequalities This book synthesizes the theories of social boundaries and of intersectionality approaching cross border relations as socially generated and as an inherent element of contemporary social inequalities It analyses the mechanisms of cross border inequalities as regimes of intersection relating spatialized cross border inequalities to other types of unequal social relations in terms of gender ethnicity race class etc The conceptual arguments are supported by empirical research on cross border migration in Europe migration of scientists and care workers between Ukraine and Germany This book integrates the analysis of space including cross border categories of global and transnational into intersectionally informed studies of social inequalities Broadly it will appeal to scholars and students in the areas of sociology political sciences social anthropology and social geography In particular it will interest researchers concerned with transnational and global social inequalities the interplay of the categories gender ethnicity and class on the one hand and global and transnational relations on the other theories of space and society and migration and mobility in Europe
