Fictions of Dementia Susanne Katharina Christ,2022-09-20 Taking its cues from both classical and post classical narratologies this study explores both forms and functions of the representation of dementia in Anglophone fictions Initially dementia is conceptualised as a narrative epistemological paradox The more those affected know what it is like to have dementia the less they can tell about it Narrative fiction is the only discourse that provides an imaginative glimpse at the subjective experience of dementia in language The narratological modelling of four narrative modes elaborates how the paradox becomes productive in fiction Depending on the narrative perspective taken but also on the type of narration the technique for representing consciousness and the epistemic strategy of narrating dementia the respective narrative modes come with different prerequisites and possibilities for narrating dementia The analysis of four contemporary Anglophone dementia fictions based on the developed model reveals their potential functions Fiction allows readers to learn about the challenges of dementia grants them perspective taking it trains cognitive flexibility and explores the meaning of memory knowledge narrative and imagination and thus also offers trajectories of a cultural coping with dementia Memory and Latency in Contemporary Anglophone Literature Yvonne Liebermann,2023-06-06 Up until fairly recently memory used to be mainly considered within the frames of the nation and related mechanisms of group identity Building on mechanisms of inclusion and exclusion this form of memory focused on the event as a central category of meaning making Taking its cue from a number of Anglophone novels this book examines the indeterminate traces of memories in literary texts that are not overtly concerned with memory but still latently informed by the past More concretely it analyzes novels that do not directly address memories and do not focus on the event as a central meaning making category Relegating memory to the realm of the latent that is the not directly graspable dimensions of a text the novels that this book analyses withdraw from overt memory discourses and create new ways of re membering that refigure the temporal tripartite of past present and future and negotiate what is memorable in the first place Combining the analysis of the novels overall structure with close readings of selected passages this book links latency as a mode of memory with the productive agency of formal literary devices that work both on the micro and macro level activating readers to challenge their learned ways of reading for memory

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf,2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory

Mathilde Köstler,2022-12-19 How does Cajun literature emerging in the 1980s represent the dynamic processes of remembering in Cajun culture Known for its hybrid constitution and deeply ingrained oral traditions Cajun culture provides an ideal testing ground for investigating the collective memory of a group In particular francophone and anglophone Cajun texts by such writers as Jean Arceneaux Tim Gautreaux Jeanne Castille Zachary Richard Ron Thibodeaux Darrell Bourque and Kirby Jambon reveal not only a shift from an oral to a written tradition They also show hybrid perspectives on the Cajun collective memory Based on recurring references to place the texts also reflect on the Acadian past and reveal the innate ability of the Cajuns to adapt through repeated intertextual references The Cajun collective memory is thus defined by a transnational outlook a transversality cutting across various ethnic heritages to establish and legitimize a collective identity both amid the linguistic and cultural diversity in Louisiana and in the face of American mainstream culture Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory represents the first analysis of the mnemonic strategies Cajun writers use to explore and sustain the Cajun identity and collective memory Fictionality and Multimodal Narratives

Torsa Ghosal,Alison Gibbons,2023-08 Fictionality and Multimodal Narratives interrogates the relationship of fictionality and the multimodal use of fact in modern narrative construction Stories and Portraits of the Self

Helena Carvalhão Buescu,João Ferreira Duarte,2007 In contemporary societies privatization has long ceased to be just an economic concept rather it must increasingly be made to refer to the ongoing shrinking of the public space under the impact of the representation of individual lives and images which cuts across all discourses genres and media to become one of the primary means of production of culture This volume is intended to cover such an historical social and intellectual ground where self representation comes to the fore Targeting mostly an academic readership but certainly also of interest to the general educated public it collects a wide range of essays dealing with diverse modes of life writing and portraying from a variety of perspectives and focusing on different historical periods and media It thus offers itself as a major contribution to a better understanding of the world we live in its past legacy and present configuration ContentsIntroduction Signposts of the Self in Modernity Part I The Representational Dilemma Christopher PRENDERGAST The Self as a Work of Art Proust s ScepticismPaulo DE MEDEIROS Re Constructing Re Membering Postcolonial Selves Aleksandra PODSIADLIK Doing Identity in Fiction Identity Construction as a Dialogue between Individuals and Cultural Narratives Clara ROWLAND Self Representation and Temporality Parabasis in Guimar es Rosa s Grande Sert o Veredas Daniel ROVERS New Man Marie Kessels Inner Portrait of a Writing Self Gaston FRANSSEN Good Intentions Ethical Commitment and Impersonal Poetry The Young, 2008 This handbook represents the interdisciplinary and international field of cultural memory studies for the first time in one volume. Articles by renowned international scholars offer readers a unique overview of the key concepts of cultural memory studies. The handbook not only documents current research in an unprecedented way, it also serves as a forum for bringing together approaches from areas as varied as sociology, political sciences, history, theology, literary studies, media studies, philosophy, psychology and neurosciences. Cultural memory studies as defined in this handbook came into being at the beginning of the 20th century with the works of Maurice Halbwachs on mmoire collective. In the course of the last two decades this area of research has witnessed a veritable boom in various countries and disciplines. As a consequence, the study of the relation of culture and memory has diversified into a wide range of approaches. This handbook is based on a broad understanding of cultural memory as the interplay of present and past in sociocultural contexts. It presents concepts for the study of individual remembering in a social context, group and family memory, national memory, the various media of memory and finally the host of emerging transnational lieux de mmoire such as 9/11. Erinnerungen einer ungewünschten Generation Sophie Hubbe, 2025-08-11 Nach dem Zweiten Weltkrieg wurden in Deutschland Hunderttausende Kinder von alliierten Soldaten und einheimischen Frauen geboren aus Liebesbeziehungen, kurzen Affären, Versorgungspartnerschaften oder Vergewaltigungen. Diese Besatzungskinder wurden oft stigmatisiert, unehelich geboren als Nachwuchs des Feindes betrachtet und meist ohne leiblichen Vater aufwachsend erlebten sie familiäre Konflikte, Schuldzuweisungen und Ausgrenzung. Viele suchen bis heute nach ihren Vätern und familialen Wurzeln, oft unterstützt von Vereinen und Selbsthilfegruppen. Auch ihre Kinder, die Besatzungsenkelkinder, sind in diese Suche einbezogen. Sophie Hubbe untersucht, wie Erinnerungen und Narrative in den Familien weitergegeben werden und welche Bedeutung der alliierte Vater und Großvater für die Familien im Heute noch spielen. After World War II, hundred thousands of children were born to Allied soldiers and German women resulting from romantic relationships, brief affairs or acts of sexual violence. These occupation children faced stigmatization due to their birth outside the wedlock, their perception as the offspring of the enemy and their absent biological fathers. These circumstances frequently resulted in experiences of familial conflict, blame and social exclusion. Until today many of them search for their fathers and familial roots, often supported by associations and self-help groups. The occupation grandchildren are also involved in this search. Sophie Hubbe examines the manner in which memories and narratives are transmitted within the families and the significance of the Allied grandfather.
