Eritrean Family:

The Eritrean National Service Gaim Kibreab, 2017 Gives voice to the conscripts who are forced to serve indefinitely without remuneration under the ENS in a powerful critical survey of its effect from the Liberation Struggle to today The Eritrean National Service ENS lies at the core of the post independence state not only supplying its military but affecting every aspect of the country's economy its social services its public sector and its politics Over half the workforce are forcibly enrolled into it by the government driving the country's youth to escape national service by seeking employment and asylum elsewhere Yet how did the ENS which began during the 1961-91 liberation struggle as part of the idea of the common good in which individual interests were sacrificed in pursuit of the grand scheme of independence and the country's development degenerate into forced labour and a modern form of slavery And why when Eritrea no longer faces existential threat does the government continue to demand such service from its citizens This book provides for the first time an in depth and critical scrutiny of the ENS achievements and failures and its overarching impact on the social fabric of Eritrea The author discusses the historical backdrop to the ENS and the rationales underlying it its goals and objectives its transformative effects as well as its impact on the country's defence capability national unity national identity construction and nation building He also analyses the extent to which the national service functions as an effective mechanism of transmitting the core values of the liberation struggle to the conscripts and through them to the rest of country's population Finally the book assesses whether the core aims and objectives of the ENS proclaimed by various governments have been or are in the process of being accomplished and drawing on the testimony of the hitherto voiceless conscripts themselves its impact on their lives and livelihoods GAIM KIBREAB is Professor of Research and Director of Refugee Studies School of Law and Social Science London South Bank University He is the author of Eritrea A Dream Deferred James Currey 2009 and People on the Edge in the Horn James Currey 1996 Counseling in an Eritrean Context Belainesh Araya, 2001 The Making of the Eritrean Constitution Bereket Habte Selassie, 2003 For the first time in their history Eritreans were engaged in the making of a document by which they would be governed Seen as the culmination of their struggle for self determination the Constitution was written over a three year period informed by intensive public debate held in villages and towns throughout the newly liberated country Written by a scholar who led the process of constitution drafting this book analyses the process from beginning to end arguing that the value of a constitution lies in the degree of public participation that goes into its making Africana Theory, Policy, and Leadership Jr. Conyers, 2017-07-12 Africana Theory Policy and Leadership is an eclectic work that examines Africana issues from multiple angles including literature ethnography gender aesthetics and diversity The contributors to this volume add unique and insightful works to the collection of research and writing documenting the pan African experience Conyers offers the reader an interdisciplinary approach to the study of people of African descent with special emphasis on the black population of the United States This collection addresses a wide range of topics Africana

Campbell,2013-07-18 In 1998 a bloody war erupted in The Horn of Africa between Ethiopia and Eritrea During the war Ethiopia arrested and expelled 70 000 of its citizens and stripped another 50 000 plus of their citizenship on the basis of their presumed ethnicity Nationalism Law and Statelessness Grand Illusions in the Horn of Africa examines the events which led up to the war documents the expulsions and denationalisations that took place and follows the flight of these stateless Ethiopians out of the Horn into Europe The core issue examined is the link between sovereignty and statelessness as this plays out in The Horn of Africa and in the West The book provides a valuable insight into how nations create and perpetuate statelessness the failure of law both national and international to protect and address the plight of stateless persons and the illusory nature of nationalism citizenship and human rights in the modern age The study is one of a very few which examines the problem of statelessness through the accounts of stateless persons themselves This book will be of great interest to students and researchers in anthropology law politics African studies and refugee studies as well as professionals and all

Kulu-Glasgow, Monika Smit, Ibrahim Sirkeci, 2019-04-19 Unaccompanied Children From Migration to Integration Edited by I k Kulu Glasgow Monika Smit and Ibrahim Sirkeci Published 19 April 2019 Paperback ISBN 978 1 912997 14 5 The statistics show that children move in great numbers and many do so alone While some of the reasons which motivate them to undertake such journeys alone are similar to those of adults e g wars pursuing aspirations for better social and economic opportunities ethnic violence cultural differences examples of others migrating others are more specific to children such as forced child marriages lack of educational opportunities forced conscription or being sent ahead to realize family reunification in another country Similar to adult companions they suffer and react to democratic deficit and developmental economic deficit and yet they may become more vulnerable in their flight Reaching their destination often does not mean they are then less vulnerable either They are faced with specific challenges of integration on economic social and cultural dimensions and in many cases also face burdens of the reunification of their family Yet there is little attention paid to unaccompanied minors in the literature on forced migration This was an important reason to initiate this book This book largely focuses on unaccompanied minors who arrived in a European country in 2015 with special attention paid to the top three nationalities of unaccompanied minors namely Syrian Afghan and Eritrean minors Content INTRODUCTION I k Kulu Glasgow Monika Smit Ibrahim Sirkeci CHAPTER 1 Syrian Unaccompanied Minors Journeys to Germany and initial experiences upon arrival Raphael Kamp and Katie Kuschminder CHAPTER 2 I just wanted to be safe Agency and decision making among unaccompanied minor asylum seekers I k Kulu Glasgow Sanne Noyon Monika Smit CHAPTER 3 Ways into and out of exploitation Unaccompanied minors and human trafficking Hilde Lid n and Cathrine Holst Salvesen CHAPTER 4 Best Interests of the Child assessments to facilitate decision making in asylum procedures Carla van Os and Elianne Zijlstra CHAPTER 5 Navigating the Immigration Process Alone Unaccompanied Minors Experiences in the United States Jennica Larrison and Mariglynn Edlins CHAPTER 6 Dropping out of Education Refugee Youth Who Arrived as Unaccompanied Minors and Separated Children Ayca elikaksoy and Eskil Wadensj CHAPTER 7 Eritrean Unaccompanied Refugee Minors in The Netherlands Wellbeing and Health Anna de Haan Yodit Jacob Trudy Mooren and Winta Ghebreab CHAPTER 8 Social Inclusion Processes for unaccompanied minors in the city of Palermo Fostering Autonomy through a New Social Inclusion Model Roberta Lo Bianco and Georgia Chondrou

Multicultural Matters Karen Pearce, 2002 Inhabiting Borders, Routes Home Ala Sirriyeh, 2016-05-23 In recent years there has been growing interest in the experiences of young people seeking asylum in Europe While the significance of the role of age is recognized both youth transitions and trajectories beyond the age of eighteen are still largely unexplored the role and impact of mobility predominantly centering on experiences of movement from country of origin to country of settlement Inhabiting Borders Routes Home contends that in considering migration and settlement experiences of young refugees it is also important to consider the role of their mobility through age and transitions in the country of settlement Based on narrative research with young refugees this book explores how migration journeys are intertwined with life course journeys and transitions into adulthood shedding light on the manner in which gender intersects with age in experiences of migration and settlement with close attention to the processes by which home is understood and constructed Through the concept of home the book draws together and reflects on interconnections between integration in areas such as education or housing and experiences of social networks Examining experiences of the asylum process and the manner in which they are interwoven within a wider narrative of home both within and beyond Inhabiting Borders Routes Home will be of interest to social scientists working in the areas of migration asylum intersectionality and the life course

Gebremedhin, 2002 It describes how to uncover hidden values and cultures in order to stimulate new gender equitable ways of thinking This book provides technical information on gender issues that can form the basis for policy actions and development programs It also can provide hypothesis for more in depth research concerning gender issues It is evident that very little information about the lives and work of Eritrean women exists

Contesting Race and Citizenship Camilla Hawthorne, 2022-07-15 Contesting Race and Citizenship is an original study of Black politics and varieties of political mobilization in Italy Although there is extensive research on first generation immigrants and refugees who traveled from Africa to Italy there is little scholarship about the experiences of Black people who were born and raised in Italy Camilla Hawthorne focuses on the ways Italians of African descent have become entangled with processes of redefining the legal racial cultural and economic boundaries of Italy and by extension of Europe itself Contesting Race and Citizenship opens discussions of the so called migrant crisis by focusing on a generation of Black people who although born or raised in Italy have been thrust into the same racist xenophobic political climate as the immigrants and refugees who are arriving in Europe from the African continent Hawthorne traces not only mobilizations for national citizenship but also the more capacious transnational Black diasporic
