Max Ernst, Ian Turpin, 1994 This series acts as an introduction to key artists and movements in art history Each title contains 48 full page colour plates accompanied by extensive notes and numerous comparative illustrations in colour or black and white a concise introduction select bibliography and detailed source information for the images Monographs on individual artists also feature a brief chronology Ernst Max Ernst, Ian Turpin, Julian Stallabrass, 1993 An introduction to the work of Max Ernst Color and Meaning John Gage, 1999 John Gage's Color and Meaning is full of ideas He is one of the best writers on art now alive A S Byatt Booker Prize winner Bulletin of the New York Public Library New York Public Library, 1924 Includes its Report 1896 19 Color Photography New York Public Library, 1924 Feeling Colour Brett Lameris, 2025-03-06 The shift back from quasi monochrome to coloured motion picture during the 1950s and 1960s famously provided moviegoers the dazzling opportunity to more fully engage their senses all the while opening new modes of affective possibilities for filmmakers Set against the intersection of media studies emotion theory biology and digital humanities Feeling Colour Chromatic Embodiment in Film Culture 1950s 1960s delves into the role colour played in the oft fraught relationship between cinema and its audiences This transnational analysis of an extensive range of midcentury cinematography examines the multilayered effects which extend beyond the silver screen offering a high level theoretical elaboration and in depth historical exploration of both experimental and mainstream movies Lameris takes an interdisciplinary perspective examining the different ways colour creates or was believed to create embodied reactions From perception theory and putting the nerves in motion to colour psychology and how to steer the spectator to cross modal perception or synaesthesia Lameris asks how how colours and feelings in film are entangled in the colour cultures discourses and beliefs of a particular historical context With its influential cultural scholarly contribution and accessible writing style this book will delight both students and specialists in film and media studies In addition those interested in the history and use of color in advertising neuroscience gender studies and emotion will find the book engaging and useful Constable John Sunderland, 1994 This series acts as an introduction to key artists and movements in art history Each title contains 48 full page colour plates accompanied by extensive notes and numerous comparative illustrations in colour or black and white a concise introduction select bibliography and detailed source information for the images Monographs on individual artists also feature a brief chronology Impressionism Mark Powell-Jones, 1994 The Impressionists were scorned by the establishment during their lifetime yet they are now among the most popular artists of all time This volume includes the work of some of the best known including Monet Pissarro Manet Degas Sisley Cezanne Renoir and Van Gogh The text touches on painting techniques light subject matter and photography The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints, 1968 The Inner Nature of Color Jack Leonard Benson, 2004 I conceived the task of creating an up to date history of Greek color theory and practice which is inextricably intertwined with the philosophy of the Four Elements using all the scholarly resources of the twentieth century On the other hand I realized the necessity of preparing a separate treatise which is The Inner Nature of Color to relate the results of my research to the inexhaustibly fruitful spiritual research of Rudolf Steiner so as to try to contribute to a new understanding of the background out of which it arose The fact that any intimate knowledge about the spirituality of the ancient world and above all its relation to the present has not only dropped out of the intellectual life of today but in some quarters is actually impugned seems reason enough to offer this study for whatever use anthroposophists or anyone else can make of it J Leonard Benson In this fascinating work J Leonard Benson describes the spiritual and esoteric nature of color in relation to the four elements fire earth air and water Based on insights provided by Rudolf Steiner and a deep knowledge of classical cosmology and color theory this book shows how an understanding of the inner nature of color leads to a completely different view of the world and evolution than is current in our present civilization one completely at odds with the ruling neo Darwinian paradigm The Inner Nature of Color will be of interest to artists art historians spiritual seekers and anyone who has ever been struck by the remarkable beauty of our colored world and wondered what it means
