Eros Denied Wayland Young,1964 Eros Denied Wayland Kennet,1964 Witty and interesting but hardly mentions homosexuality Misha Schutt Eros Denied Wayland Kennet,Wayland Young,1967 The Shadow of Dante in French Renaissance Lyric Alison Baird Lovell,2020-11-09 This book presents an interpretation of Maurice Scève's lyric sequence Dieu objet de plus haute vertu Lyon 1544 in literary relation to the Vita nuova Commedia and other works of Dante Alighieri Dante's subtle influence on Scève is elucidated in depth for the first time augmenting the allusions in Dieu to the Canzoniere of Petrarch Francesco Petrarca Scève's sequence of dense epigrammatic dizains is considered to be an early example prior to the Pléiade poets of French Renaissance imitation of Petrarch's vernacular poetry in a time when imitatio was an established literary practice signifying the poet's participation in a tradition While the Canzoniere is an important source for Scève's Dieu both works are part of a poetic lineage that includes Occitan troubadours Guinizzelli Cavalcanti and Dante The book situates Dante as a relevant predecessor and source for Scève and examines anew the Petrarchan label for Dieu Compelling poetic affinities emerge between Dante and Scève that do not correlate with Petrarch Melancholy László F. Földényi (Foldenyi),2016-04-26 Alberto Manguel praises the Hungarian writer László Földényi as one of the most brilliant essayists of our time Földényi's extraordinary Melancholy with its profusion of literary ecclesiastical artistic and historical insights gives proof to such praise His book part history of the term melancholy and part analysis of the melancholic disposition explores many centuries to explore melancholy's ambiguities Along the way Földényi discovers the unrecognized role melancholy may play as a source of energy and creativity in a well examined life Földényi begins with a tour of the history of the word melancholy from ancient Greece to the medieval era the Renaissance and modern times He finds the meaning of melancholy has always been ambiguous even paradoxical In our own times it may be regarded either as a psychic illness or a mood familiar to everyone The author analyzes the complexities of melancholy and concludes that its dual nature reflects the inherent tension of birth and mortality To understand the melancholic disposition is to find entry to some of the deepest questions one's life This distinguished translation brings Földényi's work directly to English language readers for the first time Organized Crime C. K. Gandhirajan,2004 Study with reference to Madras India The Response to Prostitution in the Progressive Era Mark Thomas Connelly,2018-06-15 During the opening decades of the twentieth century highly visible red light districts occupied entire sections of many American cities Prostitution still euphemistically referred to as the social evil became one of the dominant social issues of the progressive era Mark Thomas Connelly places the response to prostitution during those years within its complete social and cultural context He shows how the antiprostitution movement became a focus for many of the anxieties and social tensions of the period For many prostitution seemed ominously linked to the changing status of women the emergence of permissive sexual morals uncontrolled immigration the rampant spread of venereal disease the decline of rural and small town values and urban political and moral corruption Indeed prostitution became a symbol and

code word for a host of unsettling issues and social changes Connelly probes the complex relationship between prostitution and the other major social issues of the time He shows that the response to prostitution was ambiguous It was forward looking in that it violated a traditional taboo by openly discussing an important aspect of sexual behavior but it was also one of the last efforts to rebut traditional Victorian beliefs about the proper role and position of women in American society Combining the techniques of social cultural and intellectual history Connelly interprets every major aspect of his subject the relationship between prostitution and the issue of independent mobile women in the cities the obsession with clandestine prostitution the belief in a direct relationship between prostitution and immigration the problem of venereal disease the urban Vice Commission reports on the extent of commercialized sex in the cities the white slavery issue and the belief that a conspiracy was afoot to debauch native American womanhood and the concern about prostitution in connection with the last great issue of the progressive years the mobilization for World War I The Response to Prostitution in the Progressive Era shows that great tension anxiety and doubt were important aspects of the profound reorientation in American society that gives the progressive era its distinctiveness as a historical period Connelly reasserts their historical importance in this study of a major social and cultural episode in American history Originally published in 1980 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

Bodies and Biases David William Foster, Roberto Reis, 1996

Hermaphroditus Antonio Beccadelli, 2001-01-01 Eugene O Connor's superb translation of Antonio Panormita's Hermaphroditus brings to life this little known Renaissance writer's bawdy masterpiece Modeled on the writings of the Roman poet Martial Panormita's work was initially greeted with enthusiasm by humanist scholars upon publication in 1425 only to be reviled and censured as obscene by Christian apologists O Connor's excellent introduction offers a wealth of historical and literary information on Panormita's often profane poetry presented here in both English and the Latin original This new translation will be a delight to classical neo Latin and Renaissance scholars interested in tracing the development of the epigram from Latin to the vernacular and to scholars of gender and gay studies seeking to understand the popular portrayal of women and sexual themes in the early Renaissance

Man Made God Barbara G. Walker, 2010-04

Extraordinary independent scholar of comparative religion and mythology Walker examines a time when the Goddess and her consort son ruled supreme and forward into the era when the patriarchy usurped Her worship

Revolt Against Chivalry Jacquelyn Dowd Hall, 1993 Revolt Against Chivalry winner of the Frances B Simkins and Lillian Smith Awards is the classic account of how Jessie Daniel Ames and the antilynching campaign she led fused the causes of feminism and racial justice in the South during the 1920s and 1930s

The Tender Hour of Twilight Richard Seaver, 2012-01-03 From Beckett to Burroughs The Story of O to The Autobiography of Malcolm X an iconic literary troublemaker tells the colorful stories behind the stories Richard Seaver came to Paris in 1950 seeking Hemingway's moveable feast Paris had become a different city traumatized by World War II yet the red wine still flowed the cafés bustled and the Parisian women found American men exotic and heroic There was an Irishman in Paris writing plays and novels unlike anything anyone had ever read but hardly anyone was reading them There were others too doing equivalently groundbreaking work for equivalently small audiences So when his friends launched a literary magazine Merlin Seaver knew this was his calling to bring the work of the likes of Samuel Beckett Eugene Ionesco and Jean Genet to the world The Korean War ended all that the navy had paid for college and it was time to pay them back After two years at sea Seaver washed ashore in New York City with a beautiful French wife and a wider sense of the world than his compatriots The only young literary man with the audacity to match Seaver's own was Barney Rosset of Grove Press A remarkable partnership was born one that would demolish U.S. censorship laws with inimitable joie de vivre as Seaver and Rosset introduced American readers to Lady Chatterley's Lover Henry Miller's Story of O William Burroughs' The Autobiography of Malcolm X and more As publishing hurtles into its uncertain future The Tender Hour of Twilight is a stirring reminder of the passion the vitality and even the glamour of a true life in literature

Science, (Anti-)Communism and Diplomacy, 2019-10-01 From 1957 onwards the Pugwash Conferences brought together elite scientists from across ideological and political divides to work towards disarmament Through a series of national case studies Austria China Czechoslovakia East and West Germany the US and USSR this volume offers a critical reassessment of the development and work of Pugwash nationally internationally and as a transnational forum for Track II diplomacy This major new collection reveals the difficulties that Pugwash scientists encountered as they sought to reach across the blocs create a channel for East-West dialogue and realize the project's founding aim of influencing state actors Uniquely the book affords a sense of the contingent and contested process by which the network-like organization took shape around the conferences Contributors are Gordon Barrett Matthew Evangelista Silke Fengler Alison Kraft Fabian L. reflex provides a revealing model for examining the ways in which evolved neurophysiology shapes personal experience and patterns of recurrent social interaction In the most diverse cultural contexts in societies widely separated by time and space the inescapable physiology of the reflex both shapes the experience of startle and biases the social usages to which the reflex is put This book describes ways in which the startle reflex is experienced culturally elaborated and socially used in a wide variety of times and places It offers explanations both for the patterned commonalities found across cultural settings and for the differences engendered by diverse social environments Boo will intrigue readers in fields such as psychological anthropology medical anthropology general cultural anthropology social psychology cross cultural psychiatry evolutionary psychology and human ethology

The African American Experience Arvarh E. Strickland, Robert E. Weems Jr., 2000-11-30 Compared to the early decades of the 20th century when scholarly writing on African Americans was limited to a few titles on slavery Reconstruction and African American migration the last thirty years have witnessed an explosion of works on the African American experience With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements of the 1960s came an increasing demand for the study and teaching of African American history followed by the publication of increasing numbers of titles on African American life and history This volume provides a comprehensive bibliographical and analytical guide to this growing body of literature as well as an analysis of how the study of African Americans has changed

She Who Spins the Coils of Creation Leslene della-Madre, 2023-06-28 Leslene della Madre's book She Who Spins Creation Sacred Female Cosmology in the Electric PlasMA Universe is essential medicine and a much needed balm for the spirit in these perilous times of toxic masculinity toxic capitalism toxic patriarchy and the perpetuation of the annihilation of women's wisdom and power also known as the Inquisition in which female embodied existence and wisdom continue to be silenced and every attempt to eradicate us deny our culture belittle and erase our knowledge continues to unfold It is also a master class in how to excavate and reclaim female embodied experience wisdom empowerment and sovereignty Della Madre exposes the misogyny inherent in patriarchal myth and science from physics to molecular biology delving into the mysteries of matter the mammalian egg mythologies of female origins the Electric Universe plasMA cosmology and much much more She invites us to awaken to the reality of a truly female cosmology that has always reflected as above so below and always will but that has been denied and subjected to nearly complete erasure in numerous ways by male dominated realities In doing so she invokes us to challenge the amnesia of the ages question all we have been told about who we are where we come from and who we can become She implores us to feel our horns and wings again and reclaim a world in which we understand that we are all electric plasMA beings intertwined and interconnected in tune with the cosmos the greater organism This is the way to heal the violence that has been done to the Earth Nature and women by thousands of years of patriarchal colonization This book is also a clarion call for action for women to remember our magic and to seek guidance from the ancestral realms to help restore us to whole holiness This profound book should be made into a documentary series Mary Saracino author LAMBDA
