Boyer, 2002-08-01 The first edition of Purity in Print documented book censorship in America from the 1870s to the 1930s embedding it within the larger social and cultural history of the time In this second edition Boyer adds two new chapters carrying his history forward to the beginning of the twenty first century Eye, 1997

Radical Eroticism Rachel Middleman, 2018-01-16 In the 1960s the fascination with erotic art generated a wave of exhibitions and critical discussion on sexual freedom visual pleasure and the nude in contemporary art Radical Eroticism examines the importance of women's contributions in fundamentally reconfiguring representations of sexuality across several areas of advanced art performance pop postminimalism and beyond This study shows that erotic art made by women was integral to the profound changes that took place in American art during the sixties from the crumbling of modernist aesthetics and the expanding field of art practice to the emergence of the feminist art movement Artists Carolee Schneemann Martha Edelheit Marjorie Strider Hannah Wilke and Anita Steckel created works that exemplify these innovative approaches to the erotic exploring female sexual subjectivities and destabilizing assumptions about gender Rachel Middleman reveals these artists radical interventions in both aesthetic conventions and social norms

The Empire of Mind Michael Strangelove, 2005-12-15 Where many critics see the Internet as an instrument of corporate hegemony Michael Strangelove sees something else an alternative space inhabited by communities dedicated to anarchic freedom culture jamming alternative journalism and resistance to authoritarian forms of consumer capitalism and globalization In The Empire of Mind Dr Strangelove the scholar Canadian Business referred to as the acknowledged dean of Internet entrepreneurs and Wired called the Canadian guru of Internet advertising presents the compelling argument that the Internet and new digital communication technology actually undermine the power of capital producing an alternative symbolic economy Strangelove contends that the Internet breaks with the capitalist logic of commodification and that while television produces a passive consumer audience Internet audiences are more active creative and subversive Writers activists and artists on the Internet undermine commercial media and its management of consumer behaviour a behaviour that is challenged by the Web's tendency toward the disintegration of intellectual property rights Case studies describe the invention of new meaning given to cultural and consumer icons like Barbie and McDonald's and explore how novel modes of online news production alter the representation of the world as it is produced by the mainstream corporate press In the course of exploring new media The Empire of Mind also makes apparent that digital piracy will not be eliminated The Internet community effectively converts private property into public thereby presenting serious obstacles for the management of consumer behaviour and significantly eroding brand value Much to the dismay of the corporate sector online communities are disinterested in the ethics of private property In fact the entire philosophical framework on which capitalism is based is threatened by these alternative means of cultural production

Plato and Plotinus on Mysticism, Epistemology, and Ethics David J. Yount, 2017-02-23 This book argues against the common view that there are no essential differences between Plato and the Neoplatonist philosopher Plotinus on the issues of mysticism epistemology and ethics Beginning by examining the ways in which Plato and Plotinus claim that it is possible to have an ultimate experience that answers the most significant philosophical questions David J Yount provides an extended analysis of why we should interpret both philosophers as mystics The book then moves on to demonstrate that both philosophers share a belief in non discursive knowledge and the methods to attain it including dialectic and recollection and shows that they do not essentially differ on any significant views on ethics Making extensive use of primary and secondary sources Plato and Plotinus on Mysticism Epistemology and Ethics shows the similarities between the thought of these two philosophers on a variety of philosophical questions such as meditation and Contributions to Periodicals January June Robert Rauschenberg and Surrealism Gavin Parkinson, 2023-03-23 The art of Robert Rauschenberg 1925 2008 is usually viewed as quite distinct from Surrealism a movement which the artist himself displayed some hostility towards However Rauschenberg had a very positive reception among Surrealists particularly across the period 1959 69 In the face of Rauschenberg's avowals of his own literalism and insistence on his art as facts this book gathers generous evidence of the poetic metaphorical allusive associative and connotative dimensions of the artist's oeuvre as identified by Surrealists and thus extrapolates new readings from Rauschenberg's key works on that basis By viewing Rauschenberg's art against the expansion of the cultural influence of the United States in Europe in the period after the Second World War and the increasingly politicized activities of the Surrealists in the era of the Algerian War of Independence 1954 62 Robert Rauschenberg and Surrealism shows how poetic inference of the artist's work was turned towards political interpretation By analysing Rauschenberg's art in the context of Surrealism and drawing from it new interpretations and perspectives this volume simultaneously situates the Surrealist movement in 1960s American art
