already knew She travels around the city meeting the very people who have created a truly unique metropolis and shows how London's incredible development is directly attributable to the many different groups of immigrants who arrived after the Second World War in part due to the Nationality Act of 1948 Her book reveals the historical cultural and political changes within those communities which have fundamentally transformed the city and which have rarely been considered alongside each other Nazneen Khan strem has a cosmopolitan background herself being a British Muslim Asian woman born in Nairobi and raised in the UK and Norway which has helped her in unravelling the city's rich immigrant history and its constant ongoing evolution Drawing on London's rich literature and its musical heritage she has created an intricate portrait of a strikingly multi faceted metropolis Based on extensive research particularly into aspects not generally covered in the wide array of existing books on the city London manages to capture the city's enticing complexity and its ruthless vitality This celebration of London's diverse immigrant communities is timely in the light of the societal fault lines exposed by the Covid 19 pandemic and Brexit It is a sensitive and insightful book that has a great deal to say to Londoners as well as to Britain as a whole
