Schiavone,2000 THIS SEARCHING INTERPRETATION of past and present addresses fundamental questions about the fall of the Roman Empire Why did ancient culture once so strong and rich come to an end Was it destroyed by weaknesses inherent in its nature Or were mistakes made that could have been avoided was there a point at which Greco Roman society took a wrong turn And in what ways is modern society different Western history is split into two discontinuous eras Aldo Schiavone tells us the ancient world was fundamentally different from the modern one He locates the essential difference in a series of economic factors a slave based economy relative lack of mechanization and technology the dominance of agriculture over urban industry Also crucial are aspects of the ancient mentality disdain for manual work a preference for transcending rather than transforming nature a basic belief in the permanence of limits Schiavone s lively and provocative examination of the ancient world the eternal theater of history and power offers a stimulating opportunity to view modern society in light of the experience of our forebears      History of the Art of Antiquity Johann Joachim Winckelmann,2006-01-15 Translation of a foundational text for the disciplines of art history and archaeology Offers a systematic history of art in ancient Egypt Persia Etruria Rome and above all Greece that synthesizes the visual and written evidence then available Provided by publisher

Hellenized Christians, Volume 2 Ben Witherington III,Ben Witherington,2008-01-09 In the first of three volumes Witherington extends his innovative socio rhetorical analysis of New Testament books to the later Pauline and non Pauline corpora placing each text within its socioreligious milieu and illuminating the particular issues that confronted each congregation as well as the rhetorical strategies employed by each author in addressing those issues Throughout Witherington shows his thorough knowledge of recent literature on these texts and focuses his attention on the unique insights brought about through socio rhetorical analysis that either reinforce or correct those gleaned from other approaches Strikingly based on his rhetorical analysis that either reinforce or correct those gleaned from other approaches Strikingly based on his rhetorical analysis of the Pastorals he makes the case for Luke as Paul's amanuensis for these letters. He also makes a strenuous argument against New Testament pseudepigrapha from back cover. American Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular, 1870. The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress, American Library Association. Ancient Letters and the New Testament Hans-Josef Klauck, Daniel P. Bailey, 2006. This volume places the New Testament letters squarely in the middle of all the important letter corpora of antiquity. Chapters cover the basic letter formula, papyrus and postal delivery, non-literary and diplomatic correspondence, Greek and Latin literary letters, epistolary theory, letters in early Judaism, and all the letters of the New Testament. Part I of each chapter surveys each corpus followed by detailed exegetical examples. Part II Comprehensive bibliographies and 54 exercises with answers suit this guide to student and scholar alike. The Sorrows of the Ancient Romans Carlin A. Barton, 2020-10-06. This inquiry into the collective psychology of the ancient Romans speaks not about military conquest, sober law and practical politics but about extremes of despair, desire and envy. Carlin Barton makes us uncomfortably familiar with a society struggling at or beyond the limits of human endurance. To probe the tensions of the Roman world in the period from the first century B.C. through the first two centuries C.E., Barton picks two images: the gladiator and the monster. Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29. Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time. General questions of the literary as well as the relation between literature and reality, truth and fiction, the dependency of author, narrator and figure, or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre. Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms. Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles, autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance. By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs, diaries, self-portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre, this three-volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches, systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective. While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition, special emphasis is placed on the modes of self-representation in non-Western cultures and on inter- and transcultural perspectives of the genre. The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross-references. The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies, students as well as non-academic readers.
