

EQUITY VS EQUALITY

EQUITY

Equity refers to fairness and justice in the distribution of resources, opportunities, and privileges, taking into account the unique circumstances and needs of individuals or groups. It recognizes that different individuals or groups may require different levels of support or accommodations to achieve a level playing field. Equity aims to address historical and systemic disadvantages and achieve 'equality of opportunity'.

EQUALITY

Equality refers to the principle of treating everyone the same or providing the exact same opportunities and resources to all individuals or groups regardless of need. It focuses on uniformity and equal treatment without necessarily considering the specific needs, circumstances, or historical disadvantages that certain individuals or groups may face.

International Studies in Educational Inequality, Theory and Policy Richard Teese,Stephen Lamb,Marie Duru-Bellat,2007-06-03 Inequality is a marked and persistent feature of education systems both in the developed and the developing worlds Major gaps in opportunity and in outcomes have become more critical than in the past thanks to the knowledge economy and globalization More and more populations both rich and poor depend on successful use of school and on gaining post school qualifications But access to high quality schooling success at school and chances of higher education all remain socially divided with implications for economic opportunities personal growth and civic and community development What causes these divisions in how education systems work Have decades of public investment brought about at least some improvements even if major gaps remain If not what are the barriers the social processes which have frustrated the efforts of government The pursuit of equity as a goal of public policy is examined in this book through a series of national case studies covering many different global contexts from the wealthiest to some of the poorest nations on earth What have we learnt from the policy experience globally Do we know more today than yesterday about the origins of social inequality Are our policies better framed better designed to tackle inequality And which way forward What does the evidence suggest in terms of future approaches and emphasis This work is published in three volumes which together form a 3 volume set

Hallinan, 2006-11-24 The aim of the Handbook of Sociology of Education is to present the most theoretically grounded and empirically rigorous sociological analyses of schools to date The authors are distinguished researchers in the field Their contributions to the Handbook offer major theoretical perspectives on the schooling process and describe significant empirical studies of schools and their effects on individuals and society The research presented in the Handbook is built on three fundamental tenets of sociology First the authors adopt the perspective that schools are a central institution in society An understanding of the function of schooling in social life is enhanced by viewing schools as interrelated with other societal institutions The study of how the context of schooling influences education processes is critical to an understanding of school outcomes Rather than being determined solely by ascribed and achieved characteristics an individual's cognitive and social development are influenced heavily by the structures and networks in which the individual is embedded Communities families schools and social groups are critical elements in the educative process By viewing the school as a societal institution and highlighting the interaction between context and individual behavior the Handbook chapters provide a broader and deeper understanding of the determinants of learning in contemporary society The second sociological insight that guides the research in the Handbook is that the school is a social system

The Role of Education In Fighting Inequality Counsel Mayabi, 2015-02-17 Seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject Sociology Knowledge and Information University of Nairobi Law course Social Foundations of Law language English abstract The presence of unequal opportunities and incentives for varied social statuses in a community or a state sums up my definition which is open to debate of inequality These include the unequal distribution of resources and the distribution that is based on already established patterns that have been socially defined In this context there are categories of people in a given society and resources are distributed based on the category into which the people fall Because of the inequalities in the society the people at the upper classes would be always ahead of those in the lower class Those at the lower class will therefore find it hard to abridge the wide gap between the classes Some have said that education is the only way up the social ladder A few however refute the claim that no one needs to be educated to avoid poverty That is education is no guaranteed solution for the inequalities They say we cannot run to education as the only solution to poverty Going to institutions of higher learning to find a way out of poverty or social problems should be out of anyone's mind Marsh p12 However such mentality is not in its entirety justifiable as the power of education cannot be underestimated Education may not be the only way out but at least it has a bearing on the overall call for equality Having said this my paper finds out and its main purpose is to provide a justification that education may be in one way or another a way out of inequality and poverty as would be argued in the rest part of this paper

Educational Inequalities Kalwant Bhopal, Uvanney Maylor, 2013-11-07 While there is considerable

Illusions of Equality (International Library of the Philosophy of Education Volume 7) David Cooper, 2010-02-25 Educational policy and discussion in Britain and the USA are increasingly dominated by the confused ideology of egalitarianism David E Cooper begins by identifying the principles hidden among the confusions and argues that these necessarily conflict with the ideal of educational excellence in which conflict it is this ideal that must be preserved He goes on to criticize the use of education as a tool for promoting wider social equality focussing especially on the muddles surrounding equal opportunities social mix and reverse discrimination Further chapters criticize the new egalitarianism favoured on epistemological grounds by various sociologists of knowledge in recent years and cultural egalitarianism according to which standard criteria of educational value merely reflect parochial and economic interests
