Equity And Fairneb In Islam Islamic Law And Jurisprudence Series:

Equity and Fairness in Islam Mohammad Hashim Kamali, 2005 This is the first work in the English language to deal specifically with the subjects of equity and fairness in Islamic law Prof M H Kamali takes these concepts back to their origin in the Qur'an the sayings of the Prophet Muhammad and the era of the Companions of the Prophet in the first two centuries of Islam This is followed by discussions of equity as a basis for the formulation of Islamic law and a comparison between it and other concepts essential for law making such as general consensus analogical reasoning and considerations of public interest Part Two of Equity and Fairness in Islam is an attempt to apply the concepts of equity and fairness to certain issues of contemporary concern and especially to commercial transactions The issues raised here are related to Islamic banking sale transactions charitable endowments pensions funds and other long term saving accounts Equity and Fairness in Islam can be read in conjunction with M H Kamali's titles especially Islamic Commercial Law The Right to Development in International Law Khurshid Iqbal, 2009-09-10 This book explores the right to development in international law The volume draws on a range of relevant sources to analyze the legal status of international cooperation in contemporary international law before going on to explore the domestic application of the right to development looking at the example of Pakistan

International Law and Muslim States Dawood Hamzah, 2021-08-12 This book analyses the general interaction between international law and Islamic law in the Muslim world today It interrogates factors that often form the root of the tension between the two legal regimes Literalist interpretations of Islamic law and the modern international law's disposition that does not give due consideration to differences among cultures and civilizations are some of these factors This work examines the Saudi Arabia textualist approach to the two primary sources of law in Islam the Qur'an and Sunnah and argues that a liberal approach of interpretation has become sine qua non especially now that myriad issues are confronting the Muslim world generally and Saudi Arabia in particular Similarly globalization has generated an unprecedented multi culturalism legal pluralism and trans border interactions in socio economic and political relations Therefore Saudi Arabia as the bastion of Islam and Islamic nations is faced with the imperative of adopting a liberal approach to interpretation of Islamic law with a view to accommodating a wide spectrum of other laws and cultures The book provides a timely examination of the issue of modern Saudi Arabia Islamic legal order vis vis the contemporary concept of international law and international relations in specific areas such as international human rights law and trans national economic matters As such it will be of interest to academics and researchers working in Islamic law international and comparative law human rights law and law and religion Tawhid and Shari'ah Masudul Alam Choudhury, 2020-11-30 This book invokes the Tawhidi ontological foundation of the Qur'anic law and worldview and is also a study of ta'wil the esoteric meaning of Qur'anic verses It presents a comparative analysis between the Tawhidi methodology and the contemporary subject of Shari'ah Masudul Alam Choudhury brings about a serious criticism of the traditional understanding of Shari'ah as Islamic law contrary to the holistic socio scientific worldview of the unity of knowledge arising from Tawhid as the law A bold repudiation of the Islamic traditional understanding and the school of theocracy Choudhury s critique is in full consonance with the Qur an and Sunnah It is critical of the sectarian madhab conception of relational independence of facts Thus the non creative outlook of Shari ah contrasts with universality and uniqueness of Tawhid as the analytically established law explaining the monotheistic organic unity of being and becoming in everything This wide and strict methodological development of the Tawhidi worldview is articulated in this work The only way that Tawhid and Shari ah can converge as law is in terms of developing the Tawhidi methodology purpose and objective of the universal and unique law in consonance with the ontology of Tawhid Such a convergence in the primal ontological sense of Tawhid is termed as maqasid as shari ah al Tawhid

God-Conscious Organization and the Islamic Social Economy Masudul Alam Choudhury,2016-08-05 Can there be God conscious organizational behaviour in the real world of today s capitalist corporations and the alternatives In this overview of God consciousness as a moral awareness model of preference formation functions structures and programs of organization within the purview of institutions and society the authors explain and compare the major ethical issues of organizational behaviour and structure in Islamic economic theory and application By analysing the nature of inclusive organizations and institutions and the ethical preferences in Islamic choice framework the authors from Saudi Arabia Australia Malaysia Bangladesh Canada Indonesia and the UK can highlight individual aspects to show whether capitalist organizational behaviour is sustainable They describe how The Tawhidi epistemological framework governing conscious moral decision making by institutions and organization are used to establish the meaning and potential application of the concept of sustainability and whether organizational moral objectives achieve their goals of life fulfilment development Poverty alleviation and the equitable distribution of wealth and resources

Land, Law and Islam Hilary Lim,2013-07-18 In this pioneering work Siraj Sait and Hilary Lim address Islamic property and land rights drawing on a range of socio historical classical and contemporary resources They address the significance of Islamic theories of property and Islamic land tenure regimes on the webs of tenure prevalent in the Muslim societies They consider the possibility of using Islamic legal and human rights systems for the development of inclusive pro poor approaches to land rights They also focus on Muslim women s rights to property and inheritance systems Engaging with institutions such as the Islamic endowment waqf and principles of Islamic microfinance they test the workability of authentic Islamic proposals Located in human rights as well as Islamic debates this study offers a well researched and constructive appraisal of property and land rights in the Muslim world

Islam, Sharia and Alternative Dispute Resolution Mohamed M. Keshavjee, 2013-06-30 The meanings and contexts of Shari a are the subject of both curiosity and misunderstanding by non Muslims Shari a is sometimes crudely characterised by outsiders as a punitive legal system operating broadly outside and separate from national laws and customs This groundbreaking book shows that Shari a and its fiqh laws set forward by various Islamic legal schools comprise a far more nuanced matrix of interpretations than is often assumed to be the case Far from being monolithic or impervious to change from without Muslim legal tradition has since its beginnings in the early Islamic period placed an emphasis on equity and non adversarial conflict resolution

Mohamed Keshavjee examines both Sunni and Shi a applications of Islamic law demonstrating how political cultural and other factors have influenced the practice of fiqh and Shari a in the West Exploring in particular the modern development of Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR the author shows that this process can revitalise some of the essential principles that underlie Muslim teachings and jurisprudence delivering not only formal remedies but also perceived justice even to non Muslims

Global Justice and Sustainable Development Duncan French, 2010-09-24 In recognising the significant role international law can play in supporting the objectives of justice and sustainable development Global Justice and Sustainable Development provides a wide ranging analysis of some of the most fundamental challenges facing global society In particular the volume seeks to consider the synergies between sustainable development and global justice two notions that are simultaneously hugely important and in equal measure enormously contentious within both international law and international relations Organized in a three part structure Global Justice and Sustainable Development revisits some of the basic assumptions on which the general principles are built considers the implications for differing aspects of international law and focuses on national and regional approaches
