NON FICTION BOOK OF THE YEAR A cultural and social history of the rat examining how one creature achieved total world domination and has inspired such love and loathing Rats are creatures which inspire fear and fascination in equal measure Their lives are more closely entwined with humans than any other animal but they remain the most misunderstood of all species No animal has sacrificed more in the pursuit of human health but also been so resolutely blamed for spreading plague and pestilence No animal has been so determinedly targeted by humans and still managed to survive and thrive in our midst No animal is so often derided as being vicious and cunning but possesses such a rich inner life In Stowaway Joe Shute explores our complex and often contradictory relationship with the rat He travels the world from sub Saharan Africa to the Rocky Mountains and visits some of the most rodent infested cities on earth to unpick the myths we tell ourselves about rats and investigate the unexplored secrets of their own extraordinary lives He examines the way in which rats have shaped human history and meets cutting edge researchers harnessing the power of rat intelligence to achieve incredible results He explores the hidden world they inhabit beneath our feet as well as their role in natural ecosystems And through his own pet rats he discovers the close emotional bonds they form with humans when given the chance Ultimately this is a book which questions what the lives of rats reveal to us about our own and whether there might be a better way to live alongside our ancient enemies in the modern age Out of Step Maggie Makepeace, 2011-12-01 Nell is content with her life until she falls in love From the moment she sees Bottom Cottage deep in a west country valley she knows she has to have it But things become more complicated when she meets its owner Rob and falls for him as well All her dreams seem to have come true but there are disturbing undercurrents beneath the surface Rob has two young children and an almost ex wife and as Nell struggles with her new role as stepmother she finds herself trapped by conflicting interests and undermined by uncertainty Does Rob really want her or are all his feelings for his children and the cottage Did she fall in love with Rob because of his house or do they have a genuine future together The True Philosopher and Other Cat Tales Peggy Bacon, 1919 A Short Holiday Angela R. Herbert, 2006 Nelson Tremaine arrived in Georgetown exactly two weeks after he had asked Mrs Fountain whether he could visit her sometime in the future for a short holiday At the time of the request Nelson and Mrs Fountain had been attending a church convention in Rose Hall St Vincent Mrs Fountain's response that it was all right for him to visit for a short while provided that he gave her a reasonable amount of notice had been uttered quite absent mindedly and innocently After all she was in church at the time where all things muttered offhand or in jest or without real seriousness are forgiven or should be in any event she had assumed that sometime in the future was at least six months away You could therefore imagine her consternation when two weeks later as she was taking some dirty clothing downstairs to wash she found Nelson Tremaine puffing and panting his way up the moss blackened steps with a huge cardboard box on his head and a tiny suitcase in one hand
