Coverage centers on the outstanding generals, sergeants, fighter aces, militiamen, theorists, doctors, and nurses who make up America's military history. This volume presents their backgrounds, contributions, and significance to America's fortunes in war. The Frontier of Leisure Lawrence Culver, 2012-06-07 Tracing the history of Southern California from the late 19th century through the late 20th century, this book reveals how this region did much more than just create lavish resorts like Santa Catalina Island and Palm Springs; it literally remade American attitudes towards leisure. Kayenta and Monument Valley Carolyn O'Bagy Davis, Harvey Leake, 2010 In December 1910 Indian traders John and Louisa Wetherill opened their trading post with a tent for supplies and sleeping and a store counter of boards laid across two barrels. From that modest beginning, Kayenta became the center of Navajo gatherings and exploring expeditions to Rainbow Bridge, Monument Valley, and the grand cliff dwellings in Tsegi Canyon. Soon came a parade of visitors including authors, painters, and archaeologists, as well as cowboys, miners, traders, and tourists. The Kayenta Township today is home to descendants of the early inhabitants and the hub for thousands of annual visitors from around the world who come to see the magnificent region known as Monument Valley. Killing the Messenger Herbert N. Foerstel,2006-03-30 Killing the Messenger reveals the dangerous new face of war and journalism Covering armed conflicts has always been dangerous business but in the past press heroes like Ernie Pyle and Edward R Murrow faced only the danger of random bullets or bombs Today s war correspondent is actually in the cross hairs a target of combatants on all sides of conflicts In their own words correspondents describe the new dangers they face and attempt to explain why they are targeted Killing the Messenger reveals the dangerous new face of war and journalism Covering armed conflicts has always been dangerous business but in the past press heroes like Ernie Pyle and Edward R Murrow faced only the danger of random bullets or bombs Today s war correspondent is actually in the cross hairs a target of combatants on all sides of conflicts In this book correspondents describe the new dangers they face and attempt to explain why they are targeted Is it simply that modern combatants are more brutal than in the past or has journalism changed making correspondents players rather than observers in modern warfare Extended interviews with correspondents who have been abducted and tortured during Middle East conflicts shed chilling light on this new face of war These journalists who have paid dearly to bring first hand images of war to the public offer some surprising insights into the nature and motivation of their kidnappers and the reasons why reporters are targeted They display no self pity and little inclination to blame anyone other than themselves At the same time they are candid in describing the violence within Iraq and without Ways to reduce the risks for reporters are discussed but these editors and correspondents suggest that short of withdrawing into isolated and protected enclaves they may be facing an indefinite escalation of violence against journalists

The 250th Field Artillery Men Remember World War I Ruby Gwin,2012 The war memories for each were not easy to tell or write for some had repressed them long ago We have been able to live the American Dream through dedicated soldiers as the 250th Field Artillerymen They spent many nights together away from home with ties that would bind them together that has never loosened over the years Their stories are inspiring ones of faith courage patriotism and some told with humor which helped to put their experience into perspective somewhat During this time our people here at home were doing their part in every way they could Everyone listened to the radio for further news The good news finally came from Day of Infamy to VE VJ Day As a light weight 105mm howitzer battalion they would become known for their firing power They made history and are leaving a legacy to be most proud They proved they still can answer to the call of duty I am proud to say never once did I not enjoy my work with each of these men Let s just say we have a deeper friendship than when we began this project together I became their ears and wrote the word for many of them I scribbled making notes as they talked and then when hunched over my keyboard to translate from them working into the early morning hours I pray I conveyed each story as each of them would have As I wrote I got the sense what the American flag meant to each it symbolized a Tradition of Caring I wrote with a lump in my throat and a tear in my eyes and yes a little snicker     Exploring Indiana Highways Michael Heim,2007     Southwestern Historical Quarterly ,1997     Soldiers ,1971
