Igniting Wonder Children's Theatre Company, 2013-08-01 Young children love to explore their world through drama characters dialogue story arcs and props are all standard elements of a child s play It is no surprise then that professional theatre has long been regarded as a way to support children s social emotional cognitive and creative development Increasingly there is an international interest in theatre for very young audiences and the Wall Street Journal reported on a baby boom in American theatre with a marked upswing in the number of stage plays being written and produced for toddlers and preschoolers Fueled by ongoing research into developmental psychology and theatre arts the Children's Theatre Company CTC of Minneapolis presents in this book four of its newly commissioned plays for preschoolers. CTC is widely recognized as the leading theatre for young people and families in North America; it received the 2003 Tony award for regional theatre, and Time magazine rated it the number one children's theatre in the United States. These four plays encompass a broad range of styles and subjects. Bert and Ernie Goodnight is a musical about Bert and Ernie's unlikely but true friendship, written by Barry Kornhauser and based on the original songs and scripts from Sesame Street. The Biggest Little House in the Forest is a toy theatre play about a group of diverse animals trying to share a very tiny home, adapted by Rosanna Staffa from the book by Djemma Bider. The Cat's Journey is a dazzling shadow puppet play with a little girl who rides on a friendly cat, written by Fabrizio Montecchi. And Victoria Stewart's Mercy Watson to the Rescue, adapted from the Kate DiCamillo Mercy Watson series, is a comic romp featuring the inadvertent heroics of everyone's favorite porcine wonder. While these plays are as different as they could be, they all help young children to develop a moral compass and critical thinking skills while also showing them the power of the theatre to amaze, delight, and inspire.

G Is for Growing Shalom M. Fisch, Rosemarie T. Truglio, 2014-04-08

This volume, a collection and synthesis of key research studies since the program's inception over three decades ago, serves as a marker of the significant role that Sesame Street plays in the education and socialization of young children. Editors Shalom M. Fisch and Rosemarie T. Truglio have included contributions from both academics and researchers directly associated with Sesame Street, creating a resource that describes the processes by which educational content and research are integrated into production reviews, major studies on the impact of Sesame Street on children, and examines the extension of Sesame Street into other cultures and media. In the course of this discussion, the volume also explores broader topics, including methodological issues in conducting media-based research with young children, the longitudinal impact of preschoolers' viewing of educational versus non-educational television, and crosscultural differences in the treatment of educational content. As the first substantive book on Sesame Street research in more than two decades, G Is for Growing provides insight into the research process that has informed the development of the program and offers valuable guidelines for the integration of research into future educational endeavors. Intended for readers in media studies, children and the media, developmental studies, and education, this work is an exceptional chronicle of the growth and processes behind what is arguably the most influential program in children's educational television.

Ernie Tennyson, a southern Georgia farm boy, is on the verge of becoming a man, a dangerous time for a teenager in 1967. His time in the camp is so traumatic that he returns home to the

Maritime Mobilities in Anglophone Literature and Culture Alexandra Ganser, Charne Lavery, 2023-03-25 This open access edited collection explores various aspects of how oceanic mobilities have been framed and articulated in the literary and cultural imagination It covers the entanglements of maritime mobility and immobility as they are articulated and problematized in selected literature and cultural forms from the early modern period to the present In particular it brings cultural mobility studies into conversation with the maritime and oceanic humanities The contributors examine the interface between the traditional Eurocentric imagination of the sea as romantic and metaphorical and the materiality of the sea as a deathbed for racialized and illegalized humans as well as non human populations

The Zondon Robby Charters, 2010-02-21 Ernie didn't mind the weird fantastic dreams at first but he finds it disturbing when they suddenly begin to encroach on real life and then real life begins to take a disturbing turn But the ultimate twist he discovers a glowing crystal in an archaeological site From that crystal he realises he's been on a mission since before birth Seven people born in every corner of the world each has been plagued with doubts dreams and obsessions since childhood that don't make sense. They each had a twin who didn't share their obsession and made their lives miserable. Ernie Magawan is one of them and is the first to make the self-discovery. He is an alien born in a human body. Though born on earth, they are in fact Zondon from a planet clear across the galaxy, here on a mission that they must complete. The future of the human race and of the galaxy depend on it. Those memories are awakened through contact with a mysterious green crystal. On awakening, Ernie Magawan realises that he must find and awaken the other six. The action adventure takes him on a roller coaster ride from the archaeological site in Egypt where he found the crystal to the streets of Bangkok to the mountains of Afghanistan to Jerusalem to a nuclear silo in North Korea and finally the Golden Triangle. On the way, he and his growing team rub shoulders with international terrorists, Neo Nazis, migrant farm workers and a mystic rabbi, as well as their ultimate enemy, a formidable creature also from across the galaxy in the guise of a powerful international financier and terrorist boss who has been waiting for them all their lives. Armed with extrasensory powers of mind control as well as access to vast political resources, terrorist organisations and WMDs, their enemy is the hidden hand behind all diabolical conspiracies. Some enemies are so powerful and strategically placed that the only way one can fight them is through Wisdom. And there are times while fighting those enemies one is faced with a choice, a test of one's character. One moves forward by listening to the heart all the while the brain is screaming for the alternative. Should the initial result appear a disaster, the brain says, "I told you so," but later one realises that that was exactly the right choice; the test passed with flying colours.

An International Suspense Thriller. Robby Charters has spent time in about half of the places mentioned in the narrative and did research on the other half. But apart from having been there and done it, his biography wouldn't make very interesting reading, which is just probably as well. He was born and raised in Thailand and presently lives in Northern Ireland with his Thai-Chinese wife Bless and their son Abie.
