Ships Robert McNab, 2004-01-01 A moving and spectacular tale of love jealousy and exotic travel centering on three significant figures in the surrealist movement This book describes the secret journey made by an extraordinary man and his wife the painter Max Ernst Paul Eluard cofounder of surrealism with Andr Breton and Eluard's wife Gala The author unravels the story of Ernst's love affair with Gala Eluard's disappearance Ernst and Gala's pursuit of him their meeting in Saigon where the love triangle came apart and the resulting departure of the Eluards who left Ernst to explore the jungles of French Indochina alone The impact on the work of both men was profound As for Gala she eventually dropped both her lovers for Salvador Dali

The American Hebrew, 1926 In Montparnasse Sue Roe, 2019-08-20 Describes with plenty of colour how surrealism from Rene Magritte's bowler hats to Salvador Dali's watches was born and developed The Times UK As she did for the Modernists In Montmartre noted art historian and biographer Sue Roe now tells the story of the Surrealists in Montparnasse In Montparnasse begins on the eve of the First World War and ends with the 1936 unveiling of Dal's Lobster Telephone As those extraordinary years unfolded the Surrealists found ever more innovative ways of exploring the interior life and asking new questions about how to define art In Montparnasse recounts how this artistic revolution came to be amidst the salons and caf's of that vibrant neighborhood Sue Roe is both an incisive art critic of these pieces and a beguiling biographer with a fingertip feel for this compelling world Beginning with Duchamp Roe then takes us through the rise of the Dada movement the birth of Surrealist photography with Man Ray the creation of key works by Ernst Cocteau and others through the arrival of Dal On canvas and in their readymades and other works these artists juxtaposed objects never before seen together to make the viewer marvel at the ordinary and at the workings of the subconscious We see both how this art came to be and how the artists of Montparnasse lived Roe puts us with Gertrude Stein in her box seat at the opening of The Rite of Spring with Duchamp as he installs his famous urinal at a Cocteau theatrical with Picasso and Coco Chanel with Breton at a session with Freud and with Man Ray as he romances Kiki de Montparnasse Stein said it best when she noted that the Surrealists still saw in the common ways of the 19th century but they complicated things with the bold new vision of the 20th Their words mark an enormously important watershed in the history of art and they forever changed the way we all see the world

Visual Culture in Freud's Vienna Mary Bergstein, 2024-02-22 Visual Culture in Freud's Vienna shows how photography and film in turn of the century Vienna the birthplace of psychoanalysis not only reflected modernist ideas already in force but helped to bring into being what might be referred to as a psychoanalytic imagination Mary Bergstein demonstrates that visual images not only illustrated but also engendered ways of seeing social psychological and scientific ideas during a formative time in the creation and development of psychoanalysis and the modern age Indeed she argues that visual culture initiated significant aspects of psychoanalytic thought Visual Culture in Freud's Vienna examines a variety of visual materials and texts ranging from scientific illustrations to popular low culture and even forms of erotica including film Attention is also given to women's dresses and shoes in a social context and as they are represented in photography and circulated as fetish objects Bergstein maintains a commitment to women s history and feminist inquiry throughout particularly in her final chapter which is devoted to the representations of women in the erotic photography and film Visual Culture in Freud s Vienna is well illustrated with images drawn from the sources discussed and makes a significant contribution to our understanding of modernism and psychoanalysis

Cameos from English History: Reformation times. 1879 Charlotte Mary Yonge,1879 Cameos from English History ... Charlotte Mary Yonge,1902 Cameos from English History: The wars of the Roses Charlotte Mary Yonge,1886 The Art of the Jeweller British Museum,Charlotte Gere,1984 Childhood in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance Albrecht Classen,2011-12-22

Earlier theses on the history of childhood can now be laid to rest and a fundamental paradigm shift initiated as there is an overwhelming body of evidence to show that in medieval and early modern times too there were close emotional relations between parents and children The contributors to this volume demonstrate conclusively on the one hand how intensively parents concerned themselves with their children in the pre modern era and on the other which social political and religious conditions shaped these relationships These studies in emotional history demonstrate how easy it is for a subjective choice of sources coupled with faulty interpretations caused mainly by modern prejudices toward the Middle Ages in particular to lead to the view that in the past children were regarded as small adults The contributors demonstrate convincingly that intense feelings admittedly often different in nature shaped the relationship between adults and children
