Michelle Wang, Cheryl Julia Lee, 2024-03-11 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Art explores the links between literature and visual art from classical ekphrasis through to contemporary experimental forms The collection's engagement with diverse literary and cultural artifacts offers a comprehensive survey of the vibrant interrelationships that currently inform literary studies and the arts. Featuring four sections, the first part provides an overview of theoretical approaches to art and literature from philosophy and aesthetics through to cognitive neuroscience. Part two examines one of the most important intersections between text and image: the workings of ekphrasis across poetry, fiction, drama, comics, life and travel writing, and architectural treatises. Parts three and four consider intermedial crossings from antiquity to the present. The contributors examine the rich intermedial experiments that range from manuscript studies to infographics in graphic narratives, illuminating the vibrant ways in which texts have intersected with illustration, music, dance, architecture, painting, photography, media installations, and television. Throughout this dynamic collection of 37 chapters, the contributors evolve existing critical debates in innovative new directions. The volume will be a critical resource for advanced undergraduate and graduate students as well as specialist scholars working in literary studies, philosophy of art, text and image studies, and visual culture. The Introduction and Chapters 10, 14, and 37 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license.

Memoirs of a Moth. Tosun Bekir Bayraktaroğlu, 2013-12-31. Shaykh Tosun Bayrak's life is so full that it is hard to state it in a few words. When he was young, he was a socialist in the West; he was a bohemian and anarchist in Morocco; a rich man and an aristocrat in Istanbul; a dervish; and in New York, he becomes a shaykh. In his long and passionate life, Shaykh Tosun has been in a spiritual quest. Through this memoir, we witness not only the life of Tosun Baba but also the republican epoch of Turkey. An incredible journey of transformation from having everything of the World into becoming nothing.

Journey into Islam. Akbar Ahmed, 2007-08-30. Globalization, the war on terror, and Islamic fundamentalism, followed closely by a rise in Islamophobia, have escalated tensions between Western nations and the Muslim world. Yet internationally renowned Islamic scholar Akbar Ahmed believes that through dialogue and understanding, these cultures can coexist peacefully and respectfully. That hope and belief result in an extraordinary journey. To learn what Muslims think and how they really view America, Ahmed traveled to the three major regions of the Muslim world: the Middle East, South Asia, and East Asia. Journey into Islam. The Crisis of Globalization is the riveting story of his search for common ground. His absorbing narrative and personal photos bring the reader on a tour of Islam and its peoples. Ahmed sought to understand the experiences and perceptions of ordinary Muslims. Visiting mosques, madrassahs, and universities, he met with people ranging from Pakistan's President Pervez Musharraf to prime ministers, princes, sheikhs, professors, and students. He observed, listened, and asked them questions. For example, who inspires them? What are they reading? How do the Internet and international media impact their lives? How do they view America, the West, and changes in society? Ahmed's anthropological expedition enjoyed extensive access to women and youths revealing unique information on large yet often misunderstood populations Lamentably he found high levels of anti Americanism and anti Semitism and a widespread perception that Islam is under attack from the West But he also brought back reason for hope He returned from his groundbreaking travels both impressed with the concerned kind nature of the individuals he encountered and invigorated with the vitality and passion they displayed Journey into Islam makes a powerful plea for forming friendships across religion race and tradition to create lasting peace between Islam and the West

Cosmopolitan Canvases Olav Velthuis, Stefano Baia Curioni, 2015 Since the late 1990s contemporary art markets have emerged rapidly outside of Europe and the United States China is now the world's second largest art market In countries as diverse as Brazil Turkey and India modern and contemporary art has been recognized as a source of status or a potential investment tool among the new middle classes At art auctions in the US London and Hong Kong new buyers from emerging economies have driven up prices to record levels The result of these changes has been an increase in complexity interconnectedness stratification and differentiation of contemporary art markets Our understanding of them is still in its early stages and empirical research in the field of globalization of high arts is still scarce This book brings together recent multidisciplinary cutting edge research on the globalization of art markets Focusing on different regions including China Russia India and Japan as well as different institutions and organizations the chapters in this volume study the extent to which art markets indeed become global They show the various barriers to and the effects of globalization on the art market's organizational dynamics and the everyday narratives of people working within the art industry In doing so they recognize the coexistence of various ecologies of contemporary art exchange and sketch the presence of resilient local networks of actors and organizations Some chapters show Europe and the US continue to dominate especially when taking art market rankings and the most powerful events such as Art Basel into account However other chapters argue that things such as art fairs are truly global events and that the architecture of the art market which has originally been developed in Europe and the US from the 19th century onwards is increasingly adopted across the world
