Adult Minority Language Learning Colin J. Flynn, 2020-03-20 This book examines the role of affective variables in the process of learning a minority language It presents a comprehensive account of how adult learners attitude motivation and identity are related to their awareness of and commitment to different dialects and varieties as target speech models These issues are examined in the context of Irish a minority language which does not have a standard spoken variety and where the vast majority of learners have no regular contact with native speakers Using a mixed methods research approach this study explores the relationships that exist between on the one hand learners attitudes towards the three main traditional dialects of Irish and non traditional second language varieties and on the other their motivation and self concept as second language Minority Language Learning for Adult Migrants in Europe James Simpson, Sari Pöyhönen, 2024-09-27 This collection examines the learning and teaching of minority languages for adult migrants in Europe with studies featuring perspectives from adult migrants themselves as well as local authorities teachers education planners and representatives from working life The volume provides context on the attitudes and ideologies which inform adult migrant language education in different minority languages in Europe Adult migrant language learners are understood here as newcomers settling and living in regions where the minority language is politically acknowledged and societally significant The studies presented in the chapters are all original and most are based on qualitative data such as interviews ethnographic observations and policy documents Some authors draw upon census and register data and surveys The book is designed to be relatable to policy formation and implementation in other national contexts in Europe and beyond This book will be of interest to postgraduate students and researchers in language education language and migration language and mobility minority language studies language policy and linguistic ethnography as well as language policy professionals Conduct William Simon, 2017-07-05 The first edition of Sexual Conduct published in 1973 swiftly became a landmark text in the sociology of sexuality It went on to profoundly shape the ideas of several generations of scholars and has become the foundation text of what is now known as the social constructionist approach to sexuality The present edition revised updated and containing new introductory and concluding materials introduces a classic text to a new generation of students and professionals Traditional views of human sexuality posit models of man and woman in which biological arrangements are translated into sociocultural imperatives This is best summarized in the phrase anatomy is destiny Consequently the almost exclusive concern has been with the power of biology and nature in sexual conduct as opposed to understanding the significance and impact of social life In Sexual Conduct Gagnon and Simon lucidly argue that sexual activities of all kinds may be understood as the outcome of a complex psychosocial process of development Using the social script theory the authors trace the ways in which sexuality is learned and fitted into particular moments in the lifecycle and in different modes of behavior Sexual Conduct is a major attempt to consider sexuality within a non biological social psychological framework It is a valuable addition to the study of human sexuality and will be of interest to students of sociology psychology psychiatry Seductions of Place Carolyn L. Cartier, Alan A. Lew, 2005 The seductiveness of touristed social work and medicine landscapes is simultaneously local and global as travelled places are formed and reworked by the activities of diverse mobile people in their desires to experience situated sensuous qualities of difference Cartier and Lew's interesting and informative book explores contemporary issues in travel and tourism and human geography and the complex cultural political and economic activities at stake in touristed landscapes as a result of globalization This book assesses travel and tourism as simultaneously cultural and economic processes through ideas about place seduction and the formation of landscapes Throughout examples are given from urban and environmental touristed landscapes from major world cities to tropical islands and chapter contributions include an analysis of the representational character of landscape and the built environment historic constructions of place seduction the importance of class racial and gender dimensions of place how mobility and the seduction of place orient identity formation the environmental impacts of tourism economies Broad in scope this book is ideal for social scientists and humanists who are interested in contemporary debates about place studies mobility and the located realities of globalization Queer Virgins and Virgin Queans on the Early Modern Stage Mary Bly,2000 Queer Virgins and Virgin Queans looks at the early modern theater through the lens of obscure and obscene puns especially queer puns those that carry homoerotic resonances and speak to homoerotic desires In particular it resurrects the operations of a small boys company known as the first Whitefriars which performed for about nine months in 1607 8 As a group the plays performed by this company exhibit an unusually dense array of bawdy puns whose eroticism is extremely interesting given that the focus of eros is the male body The laughter recoverable from Whitefriars plays harnesses the pun s inherent doubleness to homoerotic pleasure in these plays the bawdy hand of the dial is always on the pricke of noone Mary Bly s analysis depends on the nature of punning itself and the inflections of language and the creativity that marked Whitefriars punsters with special emphasis on the effect of puns on an audience What happens to audience members who sit shoulder to shoulder and laugh at homoerotic quibbles What is the effect of catching a queer pun's double meaning in a group rather than while alone How can we characterize those auditors within the convoluted if fascinating theories of erotic identity offered by queer theorists Spirituality, Community, and Race Consciousness in Adult Higher Education Timothy Westbrook, 2016-12-08 Drawing on the lived experiences of Black students in adult degree completion programs at predominantly White Christian institutions in the southern United States this book presents a model for reimagining adult higher education Westbrook explores the reasons students enrolled in degree programs how they experience their predominantly white institutions and how their experiences affect their lives Employing Critical Race Theory and Christian theology as frameworks for evaluating the students experiences the author sheds light on the ways African American experiences to inform critique and shape Christian adult learning in higher education Migration, Adult Language

Learning and Multilingualism Anna-Elisabeth Holm, 2023-11-23 This book extends lines of inquiry at the nexus of migration adult language learning and multilingualism illuminating the lived experiences of migrants in the Faroe Islands and critical new insights into sociolinguistics from the periphery Building on recent epistemological shifts in research on minoritised languages this volume integrates threads from scholarship on migration studies new speakers and critical sociolinguistics in examining blue collar workplaces in the Faroe Islands In bringing greater attention to these contexts Holm showcases how these sites when analysed via an ethnographic lens reflect both the changing sociolinguistic landscape at the periphery in light of globalisation and adult language learners commitment to language learning as a form of personal and social investment In shedding light on the specific case of Faroese the volume critically reflects on the specific challenges involved in acquiring a small language in a bilingual context and on those impacting the sustainability of minoritised languages including the increasing use of English and the opportunities for stakeholders in language policy and planning to promote greater social inclusion for adult migrants This volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars in critical sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology language education migration studies and applied linguistics Business Development Agency United States. Hui students identity construction and have caused Hui students to know little about their own culture and language and to explore what should be done to help teachers administrators and policy makers appreciate minority culture and include minority culture and knowledge in school curriculum in order to meet the needs of Hui students The book provides historical policy and curricular contexts for readers to understand Hui students experiences in central China and discusses the cultural differences between Han and Hui from a philosophical level The book uses postcolonial theory to critique the assimilative nature of school education the construction of Hui students identity from Han ideology and the cultural hegemony of the mainstream Han group It also discusses curriculum reconceptualization both in China and globally and the possibility of multicultural education in China Ethnicity and Inequality in China Björn A. Gustafsson, Reza Hasmath, Sai Ding.2020-12-29 This book analyses the behaviour of ethnic minority groups in China using the first comprehensive national dataset dedicated to capturing the socio economic profile of ethnic minorities the China Household Ethnicity Survey CHES Managing ethnic diversity in China has become an increasingly important subject especially against the backdrop of the nation's rampant economic growth and changing institutional behaviour. The book has an analytical interest in looking at the benefactors of China's growth from an ethnic group dimension and notably how the economic life of the 55 ethnic minority groups compares to the Han majority It's one of the first publications to capture the heterogeneity of ethnic minority groups socio economic experience through intersectional analysis and multi disciplinary approaches Contributing factors in explaining ethnic minorities experiences in the urban labour market are also considered from how linguistic capital and migration patterns vary for ethnic minorities to the effects of pro rural policies Underpinning these are questions about the extent to which happiness and discrimination impact the economic life of ethnic minorities Ethnicity and Inequality in China will prove an invaluable resource for students and scholars of economics sociology and contemporary Chinese Studies more The Sexuality of Migration Lionel Cantu, 2009-02 Winner of the 2010 Distinguished Book Award from the broadly American Sociological Association Sociology of Sexualities Section Winner of the 2010 Distinguished Book Award in Latino Studies Honorable Mention from the Latin American Studies Association The Sexuality of Migration provides an innovative study of the experiences of Mexican men who have same sex with men and who have migrated to the United States Until recently immigration scholars have left out the experiences of gays and lesbians In fact the topic of sexuality has only recently been addressed in the literature on immigration The Sexuality of Migration makes significant connections among sexuality state institutions and global economic relations Cant situates his analysis within the history of Mexican immigration and offers a broad understanding of diverse migratory experiences ranging from recent gay asylum seekers to an assessment of gay tourism in Mexico Cant uses a variety of methods including archival research interviews and ethnographic research to explore the range of experiences of Mexican men who have sex with men and the political economy of sexuality and immigration His primary research site is the greater Los Angeles area where he interviewed many immigrant men and participated in organizations and community activities alongside his informants Sure to fill gaps in the field The Sexuality of Migration simultaneously complicates a fixed notion of sexual identity and explores the complex factors that influence immigration and migration experiences

Gladney, 2004-04 Until guite recently Western scholars have tended to accept the Chinese representation of non Han groups as marginalized minorities Dru C Gladney challenges this simplistic view arguing instead that the very oppositions of majority and minority primitive and modern are historically constructed and are belied by examination of such disenfranchised groups as Muslims minorities or gendered others Gladney locates China and Chinese culture not in some unchanging essential Chinese ness but in the context of historical and contemporary multicultural complexity. He investigates how this complexity plays out among a variety of places and groups examining representations of minorities and majorities in art movies and theme parks the invention of folklore and creation myths the role of pilgrimages in constructing local identities and the impact of globalization and economic reforms on non Han groups such as the Muslim Hui In the end Gladney argues that just as peoples in the West have defined themselves against ethnic others so too have the Chinese defined themselves against marginalized groups in their own society Counseling Sexual and Gender Minorities Lynne Carroll, 2010 COUNSELING SEXUAL AND GENDER MINORITIES Lynne Carroll This text is a practical accessible and comprehensive resource on counseling sexual and gender minorities It offers readers broad and inclusive coverage of current theory research and counseling applications for use with sexual and gender minority clients With an emphasis on applying theory to practice the book contains experimental learning activities practical resources current strategies and interdisciplinary insights making this text a vital resource for students seeking complete training in gay lesbian bisexual and transgendered counseling issues UNIQUE FEATURES Coverage of sexual as well as gender minorities helps students learn to counsel clients who are not only gay lesbian or bisexual but also transgendered or transsexual Coverage of advocacy and social justice empowers readers with specific strategies to participate in social advocacy for marginalized minorities Case studies located throughout the book allow students to understand practical applications of theory through real life examples An array of creative learning activities including film assignments with corresponding discussion questions self reflection exercises and role playing activities promote self reflection and critical thinking about issues that are the source of continued debate and controversy in the helping professions WHAT REVIEWERS HAVE TO SAY This text will transform the education of students who work with GLBT issues by prioritizing the T as well as the GLB This is a volume rich with the latest research and clearly articulated approaches to working with LGBT clients In addition this text is inclusive of all types of helping professions including counseling social work and psychology It presents current controversies in an unbiased fashion opening up the way for students to reflect discuss and determine for themselves where they fall with debates Sharon Horne University of Memphis

The inclusion of both sexual and gender minorities makes this text really stand out as well as its attention to diverse subpopulations including youth couples and families Julie Ancis Georgia State University The activities are excellent the self reflection activities case studies and the library media and Internet resources These are used in an excellent manner to allow the reader to apply the material Individuals using this text would be able to incorporate these activities into their classroom lessons workshop presentations and group individual counseling situations Tony Cawton Clemson University Minority Cinema in China's Nation-State Building Kwai-Cheung Lo, 2025-02-03 Ethnic Minority Cinema in China's Nation State Building investigates the relationship between cinematic productions about non Han ethnic minorities and China's nation state building project from the early Republican era of the 1920s to the current authoritarian regime in the twenty first century Kwai Cheung Lo argues that the glossy but superficial cinematic depictions of non Han ethnic minorities manufactured and manipulated by state authorities have deeply penetrated the Chinese public s conception of what an ideal multiethnic nation should be like as well as what it means to be Chinese under political unification Lo understands these representations of ethnic minorities as part of a larger ecosystem and the cultures values and life practices of non Han ethnic minorities as closely entwined with environmental issues and politics. This intertwining Lo argues suggests a crisis in objectification and identification of both people and the environment that plays out in cinema featuring ethnic minorities Lo traces these depictions of Chinese ethnic minority groups in films created by both Han majority and non Han filmmakers examining how these representations became a site in which state authorities Han and non Han communities and foreign agencies compete and interact under the larger context of building and imagining the Chinese nation state
