Landscapes of Decadence Alex Murray, 2016-12-01 The challenges posed by Decadence to Victorian moral conventions particularly sexual have been well documented but this book makes the case for understanding Decadence as a response to the ways in which place was accorded moral value in the period The book uses landscape as a key trope for exploring Decadent writing's approach to location and identity Drawing on a wide range of fin de siècle literature organised around a series of locations from Naples to New York Murray argues that Decadent writers developed a form of landscape and place based writing using a series of stylistic features to challenge the increasing homogenisation of both place and literary culture Decadence and the literature of the fin de siècle are re framed as a politically engaged form of landscape writing This is an ambitious and richly researched study

Sexual Outsiders David M. Ortmann, Richard A. Sprott, 2012-11-15 Sexual Outsiders Understanding BDSM Sexualities and Communities delves into the unique experiences of individuals in BDSM communities While misunderstandings surrounding these communities prevail BDSM sexuality cuts across race gender nationality and sexual orientation BDSM describes forms of sexuality that incorporate restraint pressure sensation training and elements of both erotic and non erotic power exchange between the engaged parties Some BDSM scenes include role playing spanking blindfolds ropes and erotic costuming Sexual Outsiders is designed as a guide for BDSM community members who must wade through the quagmire of unique problems they face coming out to family friends and partners distinguishing abusive relationships from healthy consensual ones finding and developing community overcoming shame and denial exploring whether BDSM sexuality can be a healing tool gaining access to quality culturally competent psychotherapy and finding strategies to develop a healthy sexual self esteem in the face of current medical and social standards that view them as sick or pathological The book also serves as an educational primer for those whose partners friends and family members are involved in BDSM In terms of challenges faced by BDSM communities the most significant is living with a stigmatized sexuality shame prejudice discrimination isolation depression and a lack of adequate competent mental health care Issues such as coming out as a sexual minority finding community and partners and dealing with scenes and relationships that go wrong are some the common experiences shared by members of BDSM communities Sexual Outsiders employs common sense good humor and vivid anecdotes while incorporating basic ideas about human behavior psychology philosophy interviews history and clinical case studies to illustrate the real lives and experiences of men and women in BDSM communities Anyone wanting to learn more about this unique and more common than you think expression of sexuality will find in these pages insight into the various challenges BDSM practitioners face and the many strengths that people in the BDSM communities have developed in the face of social stigma and prejudice

Sacred Gardens and Landscapes Michel Conan, 2007 Studies of rituals in sacred gardens and landscapes offer tantalizing insights into the significance of gardens and landscapes in the societies of India ancient Greece Pre Columbian Mexico medieval Japan post Renaissance Europe and America Sacred gardens and landscapes engaged their visitors into three specific modes of agency as anterooms spurring encounters with the netherworld as journeys through mystical lands and as a means of establishing a sense of locality metaphorically rooting the dweller's own identity in a well defined part of the material world Each section of this book is devoted to one of these forms of agency Together the essays reveal a profound cultural significance of gardens previously overlooked by studies of garden styles South Asian Pornographies Darshana Sreedhar Mini, Anirban K.

Baishya, 2024-06-21 South Asian Pornographies is the first consolidated volume that explores the relationships between pornography obscenity law and desire in South Asia Focusing on case studies from India Sri Lanka and Bangladesh while gesturing towards other countries in South Asia the authors of this volume come from fields as varied as history literature media and communication and the visual arts The book proposes that as a geo political location South Asia has a unique relationship to pornography given the multiplicity of cultural and legal censorial regimes that define the obscene and the permissible South Asian case studies can demonstrate how pornography in the region is often defined in oblique terms finding reflection in various modes of popular and sometimes underground culture bypassing legal and censorial constraints Like questions of identity that can only be answered in the plural identities rather than identity this book demonstrates how a range of pornographies constitutes the force field of sexualized media in South Asia It will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of Communication Studies Cultural Studies Film Studies History Sociology and Social and Cultural Anthropology The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Porn Studies

shaped by wind stone grooved by rain poems with the small relentless power of nature Fantasy Constructs Dorian Ashwood, 2025-05-05 Fantasy Constructs explores the intriguing world of erotic fantasies revealing how they're shaped by both cultural narratives and individual experiences It delves into the interplay between cultural scripting the shared societal beliefs about sexuality and personal schema our unique collection of memories and emotions that influence our perceptions The book argues that our fantasies aren't purely innate but rather constructed through a dynamic negotiation between external influences and internal interpretations The book examines how societal norms media representations and personal experiences converge to create our unique desires For example shifts in societal attitudes toward sexuality such as the sexual revolution have significantly impacted the landscape of erotic imagination Fantasy Constructs progresses by first establishing a theoretical framework then explores specific cultural narratives related to gender roles and power dynamics and finally delves into the psychological processes through which individuals internalize and adapt these narratives This social science and psychology analysis provides a unique perspective by integrating cultural analysis with psychological insights offering a nuanced understanding of sexual desire The insights found within Fantasy Constructs can be applied to various real world contexts such as promoting healthier media representations of sexuality and helping individuals challenge harmful stereotypes

The Fragrance of Sweet-Grass Elizabeth Rollins Epperly, 2014-01-01 When it originally appeared Elizabeth Rollins Epperly's The Fragrance of Sweet Grass was one of the first challenges to the idea that L M Montgomery's books were unworthy of serious study Examining all of Montgomery's fiction Epperly argues that Montgomery was much more than a master of the romance genre and that through her use of literary allusions repetitions irony and comic inversions she deftly manipulated the normal conventions of romance novels Focusing on Montgomery's memorable heroines from Anne Shirley to Emily Byrd Starr Valancy Stirling and Pat Gardiner Epperly demonstrates that Montgomery deserves a place in the literary canon not just as the creator of Anne of Green Gables but as an artist in her chosen profession Since its publication more than twenty years ago The Fragrance of Sweet Grass has become a favourite of scholars writers and Montgomery fans This new edition adds a preface in which Epperly discusses the book's contribution to the ongoing research on the life and writing of L M Montgomery reflects on how Montgomery studies have flourished over the past two decades and suggests new ways to approach and explore the Canadian writer's work

Landscape Is...! Gareth Doherty, Charles Waldheim, 2025-02-24 Landscape Is examines the implicit biases and received meanings of landscape Following on from the previous publication Is Landscape which examined the plural and promiscuous identities of the landscape idea this companion volume reflects upon the diverse and multiple meanings of landscape as a discipline profession and medium This book is intended for academics researchers and students in landscape architecture and cognate disciplines Chapters address various overlooked aspects of landscape that develop disturb and diversify received understandings of the field Framed as an inquiry into the relationship of landscape to the forms of human subjectivity the book features contributions from leading voices who challenge the contemporary understandings of the field in relation to capital and class race and gender power and politics and more

Queer Books of Late Victorian Print Culture Frederick D. King, 2024-05-31 Queer books like LGBTQ people adapt heteronormative structures and institutions to introduce space for discourses of queer desire Queer Books of Late Victorian Print Culture explores print culture adaptations of the material book examining the works of Aubrey Beardsley Michael Field John Gray Charles Ricketts Charles Shannon and Oscar Wilde It closely analyses the material book including the elements of binding typography paper ink and illustration and brings textual studies and queer theory into conversation with literary experiments in free verse fairy tales and symbolist drama King argues that queer authors and artists revised the Revival of Printing's ideals for their own diverse and unique desires adapting new technological innovations in print culture Their books created a community of like minded aesthetes who challenged legal and representational discourses of same sex desire with one of aesthetic sensuality

Body Parts Clara Elizabeth Orban, 2008 Explores the link between Herve Guibert one of France's most provocative contemporary writers who died of AIDS in 1991 and the Marquis de Sade the most notorious Enlightenment libertine underestimated roles of touch sound and smell in shaping our erotic perception and imagination Challenging the dominance of sight in contemporary understandings of eroticism the book delves into how these non visual senses profoundly influence human sexuality desire and pleasure It reveals how understanding these sensory pathways is crucial for a complete picture of erotic experience Did you know that subtle changes in sound like a whispered word can significantly impact arousal Or that smell is potently linked to memory and desire The book begins by establishing a scientific groundwork drawing from biology and psychology to clarify the neural pathways of touch sound and smell and their interactions within the brain s pleasure centers It individually examines each sense providing empirical data from scientific studies clinical research and cross cultural analyses showing how these senses contribute significantly to erotic perception The book highlights the interconnectedness of the senses arguing that they collectively create a rich erotic landscape This unique approach makes Sensory Mapping valuable to psychologists sex therapists neuroscientists biologists and anyone interested in a deeper understanding of human sexuality and the science of pleasure The book s accessible style ensures a broad readership can benefit from its insights into eroticism intimacy and sensory experience

Sanchez, 2019-01-24 Shakespeare and Queer Theory is an indispensable guide on the ongoing critical debates about queer method both within and beyond Shakespeare and early modern studies Clearly elucidating the central ideas of the theory the field's historical emergence from feminist and gay and lesbian studies within the academy and political activism related to the AIDS crisis beyond it it also illuminates current debates about historicism and embodiment Through a series of original readings of texts including Othello The Merchant of Venice and Venus and Adonis as well as film adaptations of early modern drama including Derek Jarman's The Tempest and Edward II Gus Van Sant's My Own Private Idaho Baz Luhrmann's Romeo Juliet and Julie Taymor's Titus it illustrates the value of queer theory to Shakespeare scholarship and the value of Shakespearean texts to queer theory Periodicals in Latin America Maria Chiara D'Argenio, Claire Lindsay, 2025-02-04 Assembling research on a diverse range of serialized publications from the late nineteenth century to the present day this volume explores how Latin American print culture has influenced local movements and informed global exchange Ethical Encounters Elora Halim Chowdhury, 2022-05-06 Reading national cinema made by and centrally about women in Bangladesh this book is an exploration of the intersection of feminism human rights and memory Medieval Futurity Will Rogers, Christopher Michael Roman, 2020-11-09 This collection of essays asks contributors to take the capaciousness of the word queer to heart in order to think about what medieval queers would have looked like and how they may have existed on the margins and borders of dominant normative sexuality and desire The contributors work with recent trends in queer medieval studies blending together modern concepts of sexuality and desire with the queer configurations of eroticism desire and materiality as they might have existed for medieval audiences Fixing Landscape Corey Byrnes, 2019-01-15 In 1994 workers broke ground on China's Three Gorges Dam By its completion in 2012 the dam had transformed the ecology of the Yangzi River displaced over a million people and forever altered a landscape immortalized in centuries of literature and art The controversial history of the dam is well known what this book uncovers are its unexpected connections to the cultural traditions it seems to sever By reconsidering the dam in relation to the aesthetic history of the Three Gorges region over more than two millennia Fixing Landscape offers radically new ways of thinking about cultural and spatial production in contemporary China Corey Byrnes argues that this monumental feat of engineering can only be understood by confronting its status as a techno poetic act a form of landscaping indebted to both the technical knowledge of engineers and to the poetic legacies of the Gorges as cultural site Synthesizing methods drawn from premodern modern and contemporary Chinese studies as well as from critical geography art history and the environmental humanities Byrnes offers innovative readings of eighth century poetry paintings from the twelfth through twenty first centuries contemporary film nineteenth century British travelogues and Chinese and Western maps among other sources Fixing Landscape shows that premodern poetry and visual art have something urgent to tell us about a contemporary experiment in spatial production Poems and paintings may not build dams but Byrnes argues that the Three Gorges Dam would not exist as we know it without them
