Words, Books, Images, and the Long Eighteenth Century Antoinina Bevan Zlatar, Mark Ippensohn, Enit Karafili Steiner, Olga Timofeeva, 2021-12-15 The essays collected in this volume engage in a conversation among lexicography the culture of the book and the canonization and commemoration of English literary figures and their works in the long eighteenth century The source of inspiration for each piece is Allen Reddick's scholarship on Samuel Johnson 1709-1784 the great English lexicographer whose Dictionary 1755 included thousands upon thousands of illustrative quotations from the best authors and more recently on Thomas Hollis 1720-1774 the much less well known bibliophile who sent gifts of books by a pantheon of Whig authors to individuals and libraries in Britain Protestant bastions in continental Europe and America Between the covers of Words Books Images readers will encounter canonical English authors of prose and poetry Bacon Milton Defoe Dryden Pope Richardson Swift Byron Mary Shelley and Edward Lear But they will also become acquainted with the agents of their canonization and commemoration the printers and publishers of Grub Street the biographer John Aubrey the lexicographer and biographer Johnson the bibliophile Hollis and the portrait painter Reynolds No less crucially they will meet fellow readers of then and now women and men who peruse poach snip and savour a book's every word and image Elizabeth Bishop in Context Angus Cleghorn, Jonathan Ellis, 2021-08-26

Mary Addyman, Laura Wood, Christopher Yiannitsaros, 2017-04-21 This volume explores the intersection between culinary history and literature across a period of profound social and cultural change Split into four parts essays focus on the relationships between eating and childhood reading in the Victorian era the role of hunger in depicting social instability and reform the cultivation of taste through advertising and the formation of cultural legacies through imaginative and emotional experiences of food and drink Contributors show that studying consumption is necessary for a full understanding of class gender national identity and the body The works of writers such as Elizabeth Gaskell Edward Lear Isabella Beeton and Bram Stoker are considered alongside advice manuals Home Front narratives and advertising to provide an innovative work that will be of interest to scholars of social cultural and medical history as well as literary studies Imperial Beast Fables

Kaori Nagai, 2020-07-28 This book coins the term imperial beast fable to explore modern forms of human animal relationships and their origins in the British Empire Taking as a starting point the long nineteenth century fascination with non European beast fables it examines literary reworkings of these fables such as Rudyard Kipling's Jungle Books in relation to the global politics of race language and species The imperial beast fable figures variably as a key site where the nature and origins of mankind are hotly debated an emerging space of conservation in which humans enclose animals to manage and control them a cage in which an animal narrator talks to change its human jailors and a vision of animal cosmopolitanism in which a close kinship between humans and other animals is dreamt of Written at the intersection of animal studies and postcolonial studies this book proposes that the beast fable embodies the ideologies and values of the British Empire while also covertly critiquing them It therefore finds in the beast fable the possibility that the multitudinous animals it gives voice to might challenge the imperial networks which threaten their existence both in the nineteenth century and today Letter Writing
