Edward Poitras Gerald McMaster, Edward Poitras, 1995 The Canadian Museum of Civilization is proud to have been chosen as the sponsoring institution for the XLVI Venice Biennale and is excited by the selection of Gerald McMaster Curator of Contemporary Art to represent Canada at this prestigious event We are further honored to be able to work with an exciting and challenging artist such as Edward Poitras The Canadian Museum of Civilization established exhibition space dedicated to the work of contemporary aboriginal artist at the same time ensuring that an aboriginal curator well versed in at and museological practices interpreted these developments and brought them to the public eye This book is an important aspect of this articulation Edward Poitras has steadily won new audiences with his compelling installations Poitras comes from the great Canadian Prairies where history is at once romantic discordant and unusual characteristics reflected in many of his works particularly in this project His expression is deceptively minimal inviting the viewer to pay close attention to the subtleties of the work In seeking to articulate the reality of aboriginal experience and the complexity of the work of aboriginal artists Gerald McMaster has co curated large retrospective exhibitions controversial thought provoking exhibitions and numerous smaller shows In this book Gerald McMaster as curator and Edward Poitras as artist have worked together to create an installation that explores the themes of identity and the interplay of self and Other in the context of a constantly evolving experience These important issues concern aboriginal and non aboriginal people everywhere Beyond

Wilderness John O'Brian, 2007-09-30 The great purpose of landscape art is to make us at home in our own country was the nationalist maxim motivating the Group of Seven's artistic project The empty landscape paintings of the Group played a significant role in the nationalization of nature in Canada particularly in the development of ideas about northernness wilderness and identity In this book John O Brian and Peter White pick up where the Group of Seven left off They demonstrate that since the 1960s a growing body of both art and critical writing has looked beyond wilderness to re imagine landscape in a world of vastly altered political technological and environmental circumstances By emphasizing social relationships changing identity politics and issues of colonial power and dispossession contemporary artists have produced landscape art that explores what was absent in the work of their predecessors Beyond Wilderness expands the public understanding of Canadian landscape representation tracing debates about the place of landscape in Canadian art and the national imagination through the twentieth century to the present Critical writings from both contemporary and historically significant curators historians feminists media theorists and cultural critics and exactly reproduced artworks by contemporary and historical artists are brought together in productive dialogue Beyond Wilderness explains why landscape art in Canada had to be reinvented and what forms the reinvention took Contributors include Benedict Anderson Cornell Grant Arnold Vancouver Art Gallery Rebecca Belmore Jody Berland York Eleanor Bond Concordia Jonathan Bordo Trent Douglas Cole Marlene Creates Marcia Crosby Malaspina Greg Curnoe Ann Davis Nickle Arts Museum Leslie Dawn

Shifting Grounds Kate Morris, 2019-03-22 Foregrounds the importance of landscape within twenty first century Indigenous art A distinctly Indigenous form of landscape representation is emerging among contemporary Indigenous artists from North America For centuries landscape painting in European art typically used representational strategies such as single point perspective to lure viewers and settlers into the territories of the old and new worlds In the twentieth century abstract expressionism transformed painting to encompass something beyond the visual world and later minimalism and the Land Art movement broadened the genre of landscape art to include sculptural forms and site specific installations In Shifting Grounds art historian Kate Morris argues that Indigenous artists are expanding and reconceptualizing the forms of the genre expressing Indigenous attitudes toward land and belonging even as they draw upon mainstream art practices The resulting works evoke all five senses from the overt sensuality of Kay WalkingStick's tactile paintings to the eerie soundscapes of Alan Michelson's videos to the immersive environments of Kent Monkman's dioramas this art resonates with a fully embodied and embedded subjectivity Shifting Grounds explores themes of presence and absence survival and vulnerability memory and commemoration and power and resistance illuminating the artists' engagement not only with land and landscape but also with the history of representation itself
