 painter in 20th century art After decades of patient work Hopper enjoyed a success and popularity that since the 1950s has continually grown In canvas after canvas he painted the loneliness of big city people Many of Hopper's pictures represent views of streets and roads rooftops and abandoned houses depicted in a brilliant light that strangely belies the melancholy mood of the scenes Hopper's paintings are marked by striking juxtapositions of colour and by the clear contours with which the figures are demarcated from their surroundings His extremely precise focus on the theme of modern men and women in the natural and man-made environment sometimes lends his pictures a mood of eerie disquiet On the other hand Hopper's renderings of rocky landscapes in warm brown hues or his depictions of the seacoast exude an unusual tranquillity that reveals another more optimistic side of his character Edward Hopper, 1882-1967 Rolf Günter Renner, 2000 Edward
