Educational Leadership and the Community Tony Gelsthorpe, John West-Burnham, 2003 Educational Leadership and the Community has been written in conjunction with the Community Education Department Centre CEDC and offers you different approaches to educational leadership which are focused on community engagement and social regeneration

Community Engagement in Higher Education W. James Jacob, Stewart E. Sutin, John C. Weidman, John L.

Yeager, 2015-06-17 There seems to be renewed interest in having universities and other higher education institutions engage with their communities at the local national and international levels But what is community engagement Even if this interest is genuine and widespread there are many different concepts of community service outreach and engagement The wide range of activity encompassed by community engagement suggests that a precise definition of the community mission is difficult and organizing and coordinating such activities is a complex task This edited volume includes 18 chapters that explore conceptual understandings of community engagement and higher education reforms and initiatives intended to foster it Contributors provide empirical research findings including several case study examples that respond to the following higher education community engagement issues What is the community and what does it need and expect from higher education institutions Is community engagement a mission of all types of higher education institutions or should it be the mission of specific institutions such as regional or metropolitan universities technical universities community colleges or indigenous institutions while other institutions such as major research universities should concentrate on national and global research agendas and on educating internationally competent researchers and professionals How can a university be global and at the same time locally relevant Is it or should it be left to the institutions to determine the scope and mode of their community engagement or is a state mandate preferable and feasible If community engagement or community service are mandatory what are the consequences of not complying with the mandate How effective are policy mandates and university engagement for regional and local economic development What are the principal features and relationships of regionally engaged universities Is community engagement to be left to faculty members and students who are particularly socially engaged and locally embedded or is it or should it be made mandatory for both faculty and students How can community engagement be better integrated with the other two traditional missions of the university research and teaching Cover image The Towering Four fold Mission of Higher Education by Natalie Jacob Urban School Leadership Tom Payzant, 2010-11-04 This important book written by educational expert and urban school leader Tom Payzant offers a realistic understanding of what urban school leadership looks like from the inside Payzant shares his first hand knowledge of the unique managerial instructional and political tasks of this role Effectively combining practical lessons and research Urban School Leadership includes in depth analysis of various leadership concerns The book covers topics such as improving student achievement working with unions building community and maintaining and developing resources Most importantly it offers stories of real school leaders whose successes and missteps reveal the inherent messiness of this difficult job Urban School Leadership is part of the Jossey Bass Leadership Library in Education series This important book provides compelling examples of how effective leaders can have hope see progress and achieve success for all children in the schools and districts they lead Richard Riley former United States Secretary of Education Tom Payzant is one of the few people who could provide such a comprehensive useful book for educational leaders at all levels This very practical book is grounded in the important experiences and impressive judgment of one of our nation s most successful school superintendents Jon Schnur co founder and CEO New Leaders for New Schools Tom Payzant is one of the finest urban educators of our generation Urban School Leadership is compelling crisp and wise providing a clear path for those dedicated to improving the trajectory of children s lives Timothy F C Knowles executive director Center for Urban School Improvement University of Chicago Urban School Leadership is a must read for anyone interested in the landscape of urban public education in America Beverly Hall superintendent Atlanta Public Schools

Managing School Intellectual Capital for Strategic Development Eric C. K. Cheng,2022-07-29 Cheng articulates the extent to which knowledge management approaches can create Intellectual Capital IC and contribute to improvements in education quality He argues that public schools have long contended with the requirements of quality assurance in a competitive environment of decreasing student numbers increasing parental choice and rising standards of accountability As public organisations schools have to demonstrate appropriate resource management and show evidence that they are meeting defined development plans and goals Cheng proposes a strategic approach IC management to help schools respond to and cope with the increasingly competitive environment while enhancing school capacity for improving student learning First the book guides readers to understand the development of IC theory in the context of education to address the requirements of quality assurance and accountability It then introduces Lesson Study e Learning and

Information and Communication Technology ICT as key resources and drivers for building school IC and examines the organisational factors that enable knowledge management approaches for developing IC in schools from both Asia and Europe It concludes by offering strategies and implementation methods to manage school IC for sustainable development Combining research from Asia and Europe this edited volume will be useful for school leaders and policy makers as well as those researching school leadership and IC Understanding Primary Education Penelope Harnett,2007-12-17

Understanding Primary Education will help trainees and newly qualified teachers reflect on the professional decisions they need to make within their planning and classroom practice The authors analyse key issues and policies within contemporary education through reference to research and pedagogical practice They encourage readers to reflect on policy and practice and support them in articulating their own beliefs and values A broad perspective of the curriculum is outlined with a focus on what curriculum breadth and balance looks like in practice Readers are encouraged to consider questions such as What are the purposes of education What values are important in a pluralist society and what values might we share In what ways can children be encouraged to be active participants within their communities Improving Schools through

Community Engagement Kathy Gardner Chadwick,2014-10-21 Engage your community and help students achieve their full potential Americans see public schools as a critical community resource and rank education as a priority second only to the economy How can educators harness this public interest in education to bring parents families and communities to action for our schools Improving Schools Through Community Engagement addresses these questions and more in this invaluable source of methods and strategies for educators to initiate action Involvement of family and community members has a significant impact on student achievement This handy resource provides a framework that education leaders can use in designing and implementing initiatives to more effectively engage the public by Framing a clear focus for community engagement Identifying and including representatives from each diverse constituency group Developing an understanding of the varied perspectives of these groups Presenting strategies to encourage constituent involvement and action A more engaged community results in improved teaching and learning The energy of parents teachers and communities working together starts small and spreads over time If everyone gets involved the possibilities for action are limitless Effective

School Management K.B. Everard,Geoff Morris,Ian Wilson,2004-05-05 This edition is more focussed on the leadership demands of managers both within the school and its community This book can be used as a source of reference for anyone on a school manager position written by people who practice management on educational organizations themselves it deals with the fundamentals of what management is the many roles of the manager Headteacher Update The book is clearly structured with an informative table to contents Each chapter ends with practical tasks which could be sued either by an individual at home or by groups in a training session The book is worth adding to any staffroom library for the section of time management techniques alone If only I has acquired the habit of starting each day by writing list of all the things that should be done that day and starring them to indicate importance in recognition that the critical distinction is between what is urgent and what is important

can transform practice develop innovation strengthen communities and transform lives through a college partnering in a variety of community projects The book s defined ethical composition institutes leadership in the public realm within the Public Affairs Triumvirate and its discussion of the science to service to philosophy will advance higher education strategy scholarship creating new ideas for how academia and communities can create sustained connections and partnerships for solving problems in any community The Power of Community Engagement for Educational Change Diana

Hiatt-Michael, Michael P. Evans, 2015-09-01 Effective schools engage a wide range of families and community members to support their award winning programs This monograph highlights exemplary examples of communities including foundations community organizers non profit organizations community agencies as well as school districts that lead successful group school district and state level initiatives to improve educational outcomes Practitioners and scholars join hands to share promising practices and research based examples of community initiatives that have had positive impacts on families schools and communities This monograph is vital to educational leadership preparation programs education policymakers at the local state and national levels school and district level administrators and a broad range of community leaders Place-Based Community Engagement in Higher Education Erica K. Yamamura, Kent Koth, 2023-07-03 While an increasing number of universities have or are committed to engaging their campuses in their surrounding communities many recognize they lack the strategic focus and resources to maximize and sustain their impact on those communities Place based community engagement provides a powerful way to creatively connect campus and community to foster positive social transformation In developing community engagement strategies most universities and community organizations face significant challenges in deciding who to partner with and why Frequently this leads universities and community organizations to say yes to too many opportunities which significantly limit their ability to pursue long term impact Focusing on an established geographic area can make it much easier to decide where to deploy resources and which partnerships to prioritize and thus increase their ability to form strong and sustainable partnerships that are of greater value to all stakeholders This book presents the emerging model of place based community engagement as a powerful process for attaining more positive and enduring results in their local communities as well as stimulating wider engagement by campus constituencies Drawing upon the concept of collective impact and using data driven decision making place based initiatives build long term partnerships based upon a shared vision Done thoughtfully these place based initiatives have attained impressive results Drawing upon the case studies of five institutions that have implemented place based community engagement initiatives the authors provide guidance on the opportunities challenges and considerations involved in putting a place based approach into effect By sharing the experiences of these five institutions they describe in detail the routes each took to turn their place based initiatives from concept to reality and the results they achieved
