roots and sources by probing the ways in which individuals and society as a whole gain a better understanding of and a more meaningful relationship with their pasts This book chronicles George Mackay Brown s personal and artistic journey from his early reporting days on an Orkney newspaper through spells in hospital recovering from tuberculosis to his friendship with Edwin Muir and growing confidence in his own vision A Life Composed André Schüller,2002 The modern literary critic T S Eliot wrote in 1929 must be an experimenter outside of what you might at first consider his own province there is no literary problem which does not lead us irresistibly to larger problems This book follows Eliot s principle and situates his literary and critical work in a wide context that reveals manifold links between aesthetics ethics politics and epistemology the historical context of early twentieth century idealism vitalism and pragmatism especially the intensely political Bergsonian controversy and the modern context of the philosophies of Charles Taylor Michel Foucault and Richard Rorty Knowledge it argues was verbalised in the modernist age individualised into the act of knowing an act with motives and goals and thus introduced into the realm of ethics a process central to twentieth century thought Eliot s poems especially constructed as a life composed a literary lifetime linking composition and composure ponder the virtue of precision the sins of pride and mental sloth the temptation of prejudice and the need for conviction Decidedly tentative Eliot s poems solve the problem of morally significant literature In a century of suspicion they ask the crucial question of where one should start to rely

Minority Language Writers in the Wake of World War One Jelle Krol,2020-08-20 This book presents a comparative literary study of the works of four writers working in European minority languages Frisian Welsh Scots and Breton The author examines the different strategies employed by the four writers to create distinctive literary fields for their languages in the interwar era when self determination had been promised to national minorities finding that each had to make some degree of a step backwards into the past to enable them to make a leap forward The book also discusses the problems resulting from this oscillation between traditionalism and modernism drawing on concepts such as Pascale Casanova s litt ratures combattives to make sense of these minority languages and communities within the wider European context This study will be of interest to students and scholars of minority languages particularly the four explored here as well as twentieth century and comparative literature multilingualism and language policy Who's who in Twentieth-century World Poetry Mark Willhardt,Alan Michael Parker,2002 Global in perspective this comprehensive volume provides biographical information on the greatest poets of the 20th century and critical accounts of their work It features 900 entries by 75 international contributors Criticism and Literary Theory 1890 to the Present Chris Baldick,2014-06-11 Presents a coherent and accessible historical account of the major phases of British and American Twentieth century criticism from decadent aestheticism to feminist deconstructionist and post colonial theories Special attention is given to new perspectives on Shakespearean criticism theories of the novel and models of the literary canon The book will help to define and account for the major developments in literary criticism during this century exploring the full diversity of critical work from major critics

Acrobatic Modernism from the Avant-Garde to Prehistory Jed Rasula, 2020-02-27 This is a book about artistic modernism contending with the historical transfigurations of modernity As a conscientious engagement with modernity s restructuring of the lifeworld the modernist avant garde raised the stakes of this engagement to programmatic explicitness But even beyond the vanguard the global phenomenon of jazz combined somatic assault with sensory tutelage Jazz like the new technologies of modernity re calibrated sensory ratios The criterion of the new as self making also extended to names pseudonyms and heteronyms The protocols of modernism solicited a pragmatic arousal of bodily sensation as artistic resource validating an acrobatic sensibility ranging from slapstick and laughter to the pathos of bereavement Expressivity trumped representation The artwork was a diagram of perception not a mimetic rendering For artists the historical pressures of altered perception provoked new models and Ezra Pound s slogan Make It New became the generic rallying cry of renovation The paradigmatic stance of the avant garde was established by Futurism but the discovery of prehistoric art added another provocation to artists Paleolithic caves validated the spirit of all over composition unframed and dynamic Geometric abstraction Constructivism and Purism and Surrealism were all in quest of a new mythology Making it new yielded a new pathos in the sensation of radical discrepancy between futurist striving and remotest antiquity The Paleolithic cave and the USSR emitted comparable siren calls on behalf of the remote past and the desired future As such the present was suffused with the pathos of being neither but subject to both Poetic Revelations Mark S. Burrows, Jean Ward, Małgorzata Grzegorzewska, 2016-08-12 This book explores the much debated relation of language and bodily experience i e the flesh considering in particular how poetry functions as revelatory discourse and thus relates to the formal horizon of theological inquiry The central thematic focus is around a phenomenology of the flesh as that which connects us with the world being the site of perception and feeling joy and suffering and of life itself in all its vulnerability The voices represented in this collection reflect interdisciplinary methods of interpretation and broadly ecumenical sensibilities focusing attention on such matters as the revelatory nature of language in general and poetic language in particular the function of poetry in society the question of Incarnation and its relation to language and the poetic arts the kenosis of the Word and human embodiment in relation to the word enfleshed in poetry
