Egypt : Burdens of the Past, Options for the Future John Waterbury,1976 Sadat And Begin Melvin A Friedlander,2019-06-21 The architects of the Camp David process expected their efforts to become a broad and inclusive framework for peace in the Middle East Dr Friedlander s book demonstrates how domestic factors affecting policy decisions made in both Cairo and Jerusalem prevented Sadat and Begin from embracing a structure that would yield a more comprehensive arrangement Sadat for example confronted an antipeace movement in Egypt strengthened by then Vice President Mubarak s ties to the military security establishment and his alliance with members of the Arab nation s diplomatic corps Begin was opposed by Israeli conservatives who saw the Camp David formulas as leading to a peace that would jeopardize Israel s security Both leaders Dr Friedlander concludes were able ultimately to guide their nations toward approval of the peace initiative primarily because of their mastery of techniques of domestic intra elite bargaining

Avenues of Participation Diane Singerman, 2020-09-01 Intentionally excluded from formal politics in authoritarian states by reigning elites do the common people have concrete ways of achieving community objectives Contrary to conventional wisdom this book demonstrates that they do Focusing on the political life of the shab or popular classes in Cairo Diane Singerman shows how men and women develop creative and effective strategies to accomplish shared goals despite the dominant forces ranged against them Starting at the household level in one densely populated neighborhood of Cairo Singerman examines communal patterns of allocation distribution and decision making Combining the institutional focus of political science with the sensitivities of anthropology she uncovers a system of informal networks supported by an informal economy that constitutes another layer of collective institutions within Egypt and allows excluded groups to pursue their interests Avenues of Participation traces this informal system from its grounding in the family to its influence on the larger polity Discussing the role of these networks in meeting fundamental needs in the community such as earning a living reproducing the family saving and investing money and coping with the bureaucracy Singerman demonstrates the surprising power these excluded people wield While the government has reduced politics to the realm of distribution to protect itself from challenges she argues that the popular classes in Cairo as consumers of goods and services have turned exploiting the government into a fine art
