Educating For Wisdom And Compassion Creating A Climate Fo:

Teaching from the Thinking Heart John P. Miller, Michele Irwin, Kelli Nigh, 2014-07-01 Forward by Nel Noddings This book includes papers written by teachers and how they engage holistic education in their classrooms The papers come from a course taught by Jack Miller at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education at the University of Toronto entitled The Holistic Curriculum This is a rich and diverse collection of papers showing how holistic education can be brought into public education despite the pressures of testing and other accountability measures Although most of the teachers teach in public schools there are also examples from teachers working in private and post secondary settings This book can inspire other teachers who are looking for ways to teach the whole person in a more connected manner There are very few texts in the field of holistic education that include the voices and practices of teachers particularly those working in public schools Many of the examples of holistic education in practice come from Waldorf Montessori Reggio Emilia and alternative schools A unique feature of this book is the many different voices of teachers describing their work in the classroom they talk about their successes the challenges and even a few failures

School Leadership and Education System Reform Toby Greany, Peter Earley, 2021-08-26 How can school leaders shape organisations that offer consistently high quality rounded and equitable education in the context of rapid change How can wider education systems support and encourage all schools to succeed in this way What are the challenges and opportunities involved What can we learn from existing evidence and research School Leadership and Education System Reform considers the ways in which school leadership and its practice has changed and developed in response to a rapidly changing educational context over the last decade This new edition is substantially revised and updated with ten completely new chapters It includes contributions from a range of leading thinkers and researchers in the field of educational leadership and management Theoretically and conceptually informed the contributors draw on recent empirical research studies into leadership learning and system reform in England and more widely to explore the key issues for contemporary school leadership and management in high autonomy high accountability systems New chapters look at System governance and lateral accountability in self improving school systems Leading curriculum development and accelerating progress for disadvantaged children in schools Effective deployment of teaching assistants leadership for inclusion School collaboration partnerships and system leadership Securing improvement at scale across multiple schools and across localities New conceptions of leadership including ethical and invitational leadership School Leadership and Education System Reform provides accessible but research and theory informed chapters each of which includes summaries and suggestions for further reading

Special Issue: Soka Approaches in Education Vol 9 No SI (2020) JIS

Contributors, Special Issue Soka Approaches in Education Vol 9 No SI 2020 Developing Pedagogies of Compassion in Higher Education Kathryn Waddington, Bryan Bonaparte, 2024-09-07 This collection addresses intersections and gaps between practice theory and research that both connect and divide compassion and pedagogies In foregrounding practice it makes an important contribution to the growing call for universities and educators to adopt inclusive student centred approaches that challenge us to fundamentally re think what universities do It celebrates the role of students as co creators of knowledge locating them at the heart of what pedagogies of compassion in higher education should feel like and look like It examines how compassion can become both critical and strategic in order to disrupt systems and orthodoxies that are no longer fit for purpose in a post pandemic world The ultimate goal the book aims to address is the need for humane universities driven by compassion rather than profit which can help to build fairer and more socially just societies The book extends the theoretical and practical discussions of compassion as a fundamental organizing principle in higher education It brings fresh interdisciplinary thinking theories and approaches including the neuroscience of compassion classical Eastern philosophies intersectional compassion sustainability and environmental stewardship It also includes critical reflection on experiences challenges barriers and enablers across multiple levels and perspectives These range from reflections on compassion in the classroom to compassion in the boardroom as well as in the many other spaces and places where learning occurs It offers a creative collection of essays on compassionate practices in higher education and appeals to anyone who is concerned about the moral standing of the university For some time now we have been told that universities must be viewed on the business model but this has only discouraged faculty students and staff As the contributors show however the very idea that teaching and educational practices could be more closely linked to compassion is definitely appealing and it gives us a more inspiring way of thinking about the university of the future Richard J White Creighton University Omaha NE USA
