Resources in Education, 1999-10 Dictionary of Media Literacy Ellen Eliceiri, Art Silverblatt, 1997-06-30 The Dictionary of Media Literacy is a reference work that contains key concepts, terms, organizations, issues, and individuals of note related to the field of media literacy. Media literacy is an international movement with many countries developing media literacy programs. This work significantly contributes to the study and understanding of this new and evolving field. In that we all live in a world in which we are inundated by information conveyed through the channels of mass communication, this dictionary will be a resource for scholars, students, and individuals seeking to understand information delivered in this context.

Indiana Media Journal, 1995 Advances in Information Systems Research, Education and Practice David Avison, George M. Kasper, Barbara Pernici, Isabel Ramos, Dewald Roode, 2010-05-09 Introduction The International Federation for Information Processing (IFIP) is a non-profit umbrella organization for national societies working in the field of information processing. It was founded in 1960 under the auspices of UNESCO. It is organized into several technical committees. This book represents the proceedings of the 2008 conference of technical committee 8 (TC8) which covers the field of information systems. TC8 aims to promote and encourage the advancement of research and practice of concepts, methods, techniques, and issues related to information systems in organizations. TC8 has established eight working groups covering the following areas: design and evaluation of information systems, the interaction of information systems and the organization, decision support systems, e-business information systems, multi-disciplinary research and practice in information systems in public administration, smart cards technology, applications and methods, and enterprise information systems. Further details of the technical committee and its working groups can be found on our website: ifiptc8.dsi.uminho.pt. This conference was part of IFIP's World Computer Congress in Milan, Italy, which took place 7-10 September 2008. The occasion celebrated the 32nd anniversary of IFIP. TC8 The call for papers invited researchers, educators, and practitioners to submit papers and panel proposals that advance concepts, methods, techniques, tools, issues, education, and practice of information systems in organizations. Thirty-one submissions were received. Community and Public Health Education Methods Bensley, 2017-12-22 Updated and revised to keep pace with changes in the field, the fourth edition of Community Health Education Methods: A Practical Guide teaches students to effectively communicate health education messages and positively influence the norms and behaviors of both individuals and communities.
