Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1998 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-12 Church Diversity Scott Williams, 2011 Unifying insights for embracing racial diversity in God's House The power of intentional change demonstrated by a leader from one of the largest and most innovative churches in America $1 + 1 = 1$ Derek Chinn, 2012-11-12 The population of the United States is changing By 2042 U S census figures indicate that the majority racial population will no longer be white In addition churches are dying as congregants age and fail to add younger members to sustain their ministry These shifting demographics represent a significant challenge and opportunity for the church Derek Chinn proposes an overlooked solution join congregations together to create a multiracial church For this unique concept Chinn offers a biblically grounded and practical perspective on what it takes to make this ministry approach viable The heart of this ministry approach is redemption of tired or shrinking ministries of assets that God has given His people to advance the local church and of brokenness due to racial and ethnic differences This book is for church leaders church planters cross cultural ministry leaders and those involved with urban missions Much Ado About Keanu Sezin Devi Koehler, 2025-04-29 Thanks to his prolific movie career seventy eight movies and counting and endearing real life persona Keanu Reeves has become the universal screen saver of pop culture nobody can go a few days without some reference to Keanu or his movies popping up But Reeves is much more than box office receipts and internet memes and Much Ado About Keanu provides the in depth look at his art identity and ethnicity that this oft misunderstood cultural icon deserves Despite the sometimes mocking estimations of his acting skills and his seven Razzie nominations Keanu Reeves is one of the most thoughtful and talented performers of his generation and during his forty year career he has made huge strides for Asian and Indigenous representation in spite of his identity often being whitewashed Pop culture sociologist and Reeves devotee Sezin Devi Koehler explores all of this presenting insightful essays that critically examine Reeves's creative output from an interdisciplinary and intersectional perspective Those who code Reeves as white miss how his multiracial identity informs so many of his mainstream films often subverting their most straightforward themes Criticisms of his acting overlook the popularity and the reach of his work Koehler's essays challenge how audiences engage with Keanu's movies highlighting the importance of Keanu as a multitalented artist and trailblazer not only for racial representation but for intersectional queer and feminist readings of cinema as well Much Ado About Keanu connects existing media studies around various themes in Reeves's films particularly Asian and Indigenous representation gender studies philosophy technology and sexuality studies in a Critical Reeves Theory sure to engage not just fans but all of us who live in Keanu's world The Politics of Multiracialism Heather M. Dalmage, 2012-02-01 This is the first book to critically look at the political issues and interests surrounding the broadly defined Multiracial Movement and at what is being said about multiracialism Many of the multiracial family organizations that exist across the United States developed socially ideologically and politically during the conservative Reagan years While members of the Multiracial Movement differ widely in their political views the concept of multiracialism has been taken up by conservative politicians in ways that are often inimical to the interests of traditionally defined minorities Contributors look at the Multiracial Movement's voice and at the political controversies that attend the notion of multiracialism in academic and popular literature internet discourse census debates and discourse by and about pop culture celebrities The work discusses how multiracialism hybridity and racial mixing have occurred amidst existing academic discussions of authenticity community borders identity politics the social construction of race and postmodern fragmentation How the Multiracial Movement is shaping and transforming collective multiracial identities is also explored Empowering English Language Learners Jeanne C. DeFazio, William David Spencer, 2018-06-13 Empowering English Language Learners showcases strategies of those who teach English as a second language in pre schools graduate schools secular public schools and private Christian schools What makes this book unique is the way each teacher evaluates teaching strategy through personal experience This book explains what works and what doesn't With additional contributions from Dean Borgman Julia Davis Jean Dimock Cherry Gorton Seong Park Olga Soler Virginia D Ward Gemma Wenger Not Without God Zina Hermez, 2014-06-01 Zina Hermez was just sixteen years old when she suffered a spinal cord injury after being hit by a car while crossing the street on her way to school When health professionals predicted she would never walk again she looked to God and her faith Not Without God A Story of Survival is about how one woman survived a devastating injury learned to walk again despite all odds and finally became a professional teacher In a world where people with disabilities can start to feel invisible she overcame her challenges This book offers hope insight and ways to heal not just for people with disabilities but for anyone facing adversity in their life World of Martial Arts ! Robert HILL, 2010-09-08 The martial arts are various methods of armed and unarmed combat originally used in warfare in the Far East and shaped by Oriental philosophical concepts The history of martial arts is challenging to document precisely because of the lack of historical records secretive nature of the teacher student relationships and political circumstances during much of its history The martial arts are popular in many parts of the world today as forms of self defense law enforcement tactics competitive sports and exercises for physical fitness Among them are KARATE Kung fu jujitsu JUDO aikido Tai chi chuan Sumo wrestling and kendo This informative book takes its reader on a journey throughout time and across the globe for a close up look at the history of many martial arts styles The Anthropology of Morality in Melanesia and Beyond Mr John Barker, 2012-12-28 The Anthropology of Morality in Melanesia and Beyond examines how Melanesians experience and deal with moral dilemmas and challenges Taking Kenelm Burridge's seminal work as their starting point the contributors focus upon public situations and types of people that exemplify key ethical contradictions for members of moral communities While returning to some classical concerns such as the roles of big men and sorcerers the book opens new territory with richly textured ethnographic studies and theoretical reviews that explore the interface between the values associated with indigenous village life and the ethical orientations associated with Christianity the state
