Canadian Books in Print, 2001 Quill & Quire, 2003 Murder Rides A Gale Force Wind: An Island Mystery Yvonne Maximchuk, 2022-07-09 WAS IT REALLY MURDER Big crime comes to a town too small to merit even that title Residents of the loose knit coastal community of Echo Bay struggle with the same issues as the world at large drugs mental health racial friction sexism you name it But everyone signs on to the code whether you like them or not you always help someone in need When local prawn checker Tim Connolly doesn t show up for a dinner date with his girlfriend Kit Sampson no one is too concerned But when a body is found washed up on an islet by young boaters the discovery fragments the residents into a tumult of distrust and suspicion And then the RCMP come calling Far from the structures created to monitor and regulate larger populations these people are resourceful tough and sometimes merciless If something needs to be cleaned up they clean it up They gossip embellish draw conclusions and take action Sometimes disaster results and sometimes a fitting outcome The glorious beauty of the Broughton Archipelago with Echo Bay at the heart of its inlets and islands provides the backdrop for these colourful characters who rub along but can take justice into their own hands when one of their own breaks the social contract

Drawn to Sea Yvonne Maximchuk, 2013 In the early 1980s Yvonne Maximchuk a single mother of two was living in Whiterock BC and making a living as a working artist and art instructor Then she fell in love with Albert a crab fisherman who fished the waters of Boundary Bay Drawn to his seemingly idyllic life and her desire for connection with the natural world Yvonne and her children moved with Albert to Echo Bay a tiny settlement east of Vancouver Island Life in this remote community was a lot different from life in the city there was no running water and electricity had to be generated The closest grocery store was two hours away by boat and even a small emergency could be life threatening But in spite of the challenges they persevered building a homestead and thriving off the grid In this new life Yvonne learned to do things she had only dreamed of She cleared land helped build their home and got to know the community of hardy folks who were always there to help one another Soon after arriving in Echo Bay Yvonne met Billy Proctor a BC coastal icon and fisherman Intrigued by his life on the sea she asked to join him as he fished the coast looking for chinook and sockeye salmon ling cod and tuna Eight seasons of fishing with Billy took her on many adventures to the challenging waters and enchanting islands of BC Inspired she captured on canvas the mysteries and treasures of the wild Pacific coast In Drawn to Sea Yvonne creates stunning lyrical word pictures of her home in the Broughton Archipelago Making the most of the tools available from paintbrush to chainsaw she has flourished in this remote area carving out a home and a career in a place far from just about everyone
