Grant Development for Large and Small Libraries Lynette Korenic, Clayton Kirking, 1990 This fully revised new edition re establishes Paul Griffiths s survey as the definitive study of music since the Second World War The disruptions of the war and the struggles of the ensuing peace were reflected in the music of the time in Pierre Boulez s radical reforming of compositional technique and in John Cage s move into zen music in Milton Babbitt s settling of the serial system and in Dmitry Shostakovich s unsettling symphonies in Karlheinz Stockhausen s development of electronic music and in Luigi Nono s pursuit of the universally human in Iannis Xenakis s view of music as sounding mathematics and in Luciano Berio s consideration of it as language The initiatives of these composers and their contemporaries opened prospects that have continued to unfold This constant expansion of musical thinking since 1945 has left us with no single history of music Paul Griffiths s study accordingly follows several different paths showing how and why they converge and diverge In addition to the composers mentioned above others whose music is discussed include Steve Reich Jean Barraque Elliott Carter Olivier Messiaen Gyorgy Kurtag Harrison Birtwistle and Gyorgy Ligeti Publication and recording details are given for the works of all these composers and many others Social Change Philanthropy in America Alan Rabinowitz, 1990-06-22 Alan Rabinowitz provides the first comprehensive analysis of the nontraditional or social change philanthropists who help finance national campaigns and grassroots organizations that focus on improving American society and the environment particularly for minority and low income people Written both for funders and grantees already in the field and those just beginning to fund nontraditional activities Social Change Philanthropy in America examines the experience operational practices and future prospects of philanthropists who have been involved in such activities over the past thirty years Rabinowitz offers new insights into who the funders are and how they think how funders actually make decisions what types of grants are made and the tax political and historical aspects of social change funding and its role in America s philanthropic system Beginning with an introduction to the network of progressive social change funders and grantees and the philanthropic universe within which they operate Rabinowitz goes on to analyze the flow of dollars through the nonprofit system The next two sections present detailed portraits of social change funders and grantees In part four the author discusses whether grants for progressive social change are effective and worthwhile whether grantees are sufficiently accountable and whether funders and grantees are meeting each other s needs He then explores progressive funding as an arena of controversy conflicting ideologies and ultimately electoral politics The final chapter looks at challenges and prospects for the progressive social change community as strategies for organizing campaigning and fundraising are developed for the future The appendix illustrates in more detail the range and substance of the field for
