Contesting and Constructing International Perspectives in Global Education R. Reynolds, D. Bradbery, J. Brown, K. Carroll, D. Donnelly, K.

Ferguson-Patrick, S. Macqueen, 2015-02-27 This volume addresses the need for an international perspective on global education and provides alternate voices to the theme of global education The editors asked international educators in different contexts to indicate how their own experience of global education addresses the broad and contested concepts associated with this notion Following the lead of the internationally acknowledged authors from North America Europe Africa Australia and Asia perspectives were provided on a wide variety of contexts including tertiary education and teacher education various pedagogies for global education including digital pedagogies and curriculum development at school tertiary and community levels Contesting and Constructing International Perspectives in Global Education explores the tensions inherent in discussions of global education from a number of facets including spatial pedagogical temporal social and cultural and provides critical descriptive and values laden interpretations The book is divided into five sections Temporal and Spatial Views of Global Education Telling National Stories of Global Education Empowering Citizens for Global Education Deconstructing Global Education and Transforming Curricula for Global Education It is envisaged as a starting point for a stronger international conception of global education and a way to build a conversation for the future of global education in a neo liberal and less internationally confident time

The State of the Global Education Crisis UNESCO, United Nations Children's Fund, World Bank (the), 2021-12-09 The global disruption to education caused by the COVID 19 pandemic is without parallel and the effects on learning are severe The crisis brought education systems across the world to a halt with school closures affecting more than 1.6 billion learners While nearly every country in the world offered remote learning opportunities for students the quality and reach of such initiatives varied greatly and were at best partial substitutes for in person learning Now 21 months later schools remain closed for millions of children and youth and millions more are at risk of never returning to education Evidence of the detrimental impacts of school closures on children's learning offer a harrowing reality learning losses are substantial with the most marginalized children and youth often disproportionately affected Countries have an opportunity to accelerate learning recovery and make schools more efficient equitable and resilient by building on investments made and lessons learned during the crisis Now is the time to shift from crisis to recovery and beyond recovery to resilient and transformative education systems that truly deliver learning and well being for all children and youth The World Bank website

Teacher Education Intersecting Comparative and International Education Florin D. Salajan, Tavis D. Jules, Charl Wolhuter, 2023-04-06 This book draws critical connections between teacher education or preparation and the field of comparative and international education CIE showing ways in which the two fields can inform and advance one another The chapters consider how teacher education shapes and is shaped by CIE particularly in an era of socio cultural upheavals politico economic transformations and climate or health crises affecting the human and natural world The question at the core of the book is in what ways can comparative and international education support a rethinking of teacher education in the wake of the social movements for equity justice and civil liberties with ramifications for educators around the world It includes contributions from leading academics based in Argentina Canada China Columbia Finland Grenada Hong Kong Myanmar Spain South Africa Turkey and the USA The chapters cover topics ranging from equity social justice and the sustainable development goals to country case studies including teacher education in Myanmar and a comparative study of teacher preparation in South Korea and the USA The Wiley Handbook of Global Educational Reform Kenneth J. Saltman, Alexander J. Means, 2018-11-13 The Wiley Handbook of Global Educational Reform examines educational reform from a global perspective Comprised of approximately 25 original and specially commissioned essays which together interrogate educational reform from a critical global and transnational perspective this volume explores a range of topics and themes that fully investigate global convergences in educational reform policies ideologies and practices The Handbook probes the history ideology organization and institutional foundations of global educational reform movements actors institutions and agendas and local national and global education reform trends It further examines the new managerialism in global educational reform including the standardization of national systems of educational governance curriculum teaching and learning through the rise of new systems of privatization accountability audit big data learning analytics biometrics and new technology driven adaptive learning models Finally it takes on the subjective and intersubjective experiential dimensions of the new educational reforms and alternative paths for educational reform tied to the ethical imperative to reimagine education for human flourishing justice and equality An authoritative definitive volume and the first global take on a subject that is grabbing headlines as well as preoccupying policy makers scholars and teachers around the world Edited by distinguished leaders in the field Features contributions from an illustrious list of experts and scholars The Wiley Handbook of Global Educational Reform will be of great interest to scholars and graduate students of education throughout the world as well as the policy makers who can institute change Community Participation with Schools in Developing Countries Mikiko Nishimura, 2020-08-04 The Sustainable Development Goals SDGs 2016 2030 set by the United Nations in 2015 restated the importance of universal primary education for all and specifically discuss quality equity and inclusion in basic education To achieve this the role of community has been emphasized and participation has become a buzzword in international development over the past several decades Despite the growing attention to community participation in school management previous literature has shown mixed results in terms of its actual practice and its impacts on quality equity and inclusion in education This book deepens the contextual understanding of community in developing countries and its involvement in schools in general and its impact on quality equity and inclusion of school education in particular By presenting various case studies in Asia Africa Latin America and a post conflict state in Europe the book analyses commonalities and differences in the ways communities are involved and cast their impacts and challenges The book contributes knowledge on the ways in which community involvement could work in developing countries the detailed processes and factors that make community participation work in different dimensions and remaining challenges that scholars and practitioners still need to be concerned and mindful in the field This book will appeal to both researchers and practitioners who are concerned about the community participation approach for the SDGs
