Global Village Or Global Pillage Economic Reconstruction From The Bottom Up:

Global Village Or Global Pillage Jeremy Brecher, Tim Costello, 1998 In clear accessible language Brecher and Costello describe how people around the world have started challenging the New World Economy From the Zapatistas of Chiapas to students in France to the broad based anti NAFTA and anti GATT coalitions in the United States opposition to economic globalization Brecher and Costello argue is becoming a worldwide revolt Global Village Or Global Pillage Jeremy Brecher, Tim Costello, 2000-01-01 Video edition The Geopolitics Reader Simon Dalby, Paul Routledge, Gearóid Ó Tuathail, 2003-08-01 The Geopolitics Reader offers an interdisciplinary sourcebook of the most important political geographical historical and sociological readings of geopolitics in the late twentieth century The Reader is divided into five parts which draw on the most illuminating examples of imperial Cold War contemporary geopolitics new environmental themes and multiple resistances to the practices of geopolitics The editors provide comprehensive introductions and critical comment at the beginning of each part and visual geopolitical texts in the form of political cartoons are integrated throughout Encouraging exploration of divergent viewpoints of global conflict and change this invaluable compendium includes readings by Martin Luther King Vaclav Havel and George Bush Which Global Village? Valeria Lerda, 2002-01-30 The word village has the evocative power of ancient shared social values based on solidarity equality and common expectations for the betterment of life The book s title is borrowed from McLuhan s apt metaphor but questions its underlying assumptions The contributors recast some of the basic elements of the complex phenomenon of the so called globalization Trade laws industrial relations economic and political systems are analyzed in a critical perspective Moreover environment and sustainable development languages rights education mobility and migrations are discussed in view of contemporary changes that societies are undergoing throughout the world The vulnerability of societies caught up in new networks of interdependence due to reduced distances also are put to the fore in the context of the new accelerated circulation of information ideas goods and human beings Provocative reading for scholars interested in a multinational Euro Atlanticist perspective on globalization The international discourse is most recently focused on some negative outgrowths of world economy especially after the Seattle Round December 1999 and its unexpected uprising of protests The researches of the Center for Euro Atlantic Studies University of Genoa in cooperation with scholars from Europe Canada and the United States offer in this collection of essays a multinational contribution which is part of their work in progress on the multifaceted issue of the contemporary global village The book features some optimistic outcomes and some worries about what the new millennium will not achieve despite the common and transnational efforts that is to say a fair re distribution of resources to reach what R W Fogel defines a post modern equality based on values as well as on material wealth In sum the essayists wonder if some of the hidden promises of globalization will develop in a better new century Law in an Emerging Global Village Richard Falk, 2024-01-15 Already highly acclaimed as a seminal analysis of the New World Order

Professor Falk's Law in an Emerging Global Village clearly establishes a new arena of international law where three distinct historical forces meet and contend: the old Westphalian nation state model, the global civil society as represented by international human rights conventions and transnational market forces that pervade nearly every area of life as well as legal practice. Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint Virtualism James G. Carrier, Daniel Miller, 2020-08-25 We live in a time of economic virtualism whereby our lives are made to conform to the virtual reality of economic thought. Globalization, transnational capitalism, structural adjustment programmes and the decay of welfare are all signs of the growing power of economics, one of the most potent forces of recent decades. In the last thirty years economics has ceased to be just an academic discipline concerned with the study of economy and has come to be the only legitimate way to think about all aspects of society and how we order our lives. Economic models are no longer measured against the world they seek to describe but instead the world is measured against them, found wanting and made to conform. This profound and dangerous change in the power of abstract economics to shape the lives of people in rich and poor countries alike is the subject of this interdisciplinary study. Contributors show how economics has come to portray a virtual reality, a world that seems real but is merely a reflection of a neo-classical model and how governments, the World Bank and the IMF combine to stamp the world with a virtual image that condemns as irrational our local social and cultural arrangements. Further, it is argued that virtualism represents the worrying emergence of new forms of abstraction in the political economy of which economics is just one example. Second Thoughts on Capitalism and the State Leslie Sklair, 2022-05-02 This collection of essays highlights the need for sociological and political analysis of actual alternatives to capitalism and the existing system of so-called nation states. It challenges the conventional idea that capitalism can be successfully reformed to meet the needs of most people in the world, confronting it with the existential threats posed by the perfect storm of climate change and the Anthropocene, hyper-urbanization and the Coronavirus pandemic. Written over a period of 50 years, it charts the ways in which capitalism and socialism have evolved as global systems, their successes and failures to the point that it is easier to imagine the end of the world than the end of capitalism. It offers ways forward, community by community. Diasporic Feminist Theology Namsoon Kang, 2014 How do we navigate the question of identity in the fluid and pluralist conditions of postmodern society? Even more, how do we articulate identity as a defining particularity in the disappearance of borders, boundaries and spaces in an increasingly globalist world? What constitutes identity and the formation of narratives under such conditions? How do these issues affect not only discursive practices but theological and ethical construction and practice? This volume explores these issues in depth. Diasporic Feminist Theology attempts to construct feminist theology by adopting diaspora as a theopolitical and ethical metaphor. Namsoon Kang here revisits and reexamines today's significant issues such as identity, politics, dislocation, postmodernism, postcolonialism, neo-empire, Asian values and constructs diasporic, transethnic and glocal feminist theological discourses that create spaces of transformation, reconciliation, hospitality, worldliness.

solidarity and border traversing This work draws on diverse sources from contemporary critical discourses of diaspora studies cultural studies ethnic studies postmodernism postcolonialism and feminism and feminist theology from a transterritorial space This book is a landmark work providing a comprehensive discourse for feminist theology today

Revisiting Globalization Roopinder Oberoi, Jamie P. Halsall, 2018-06-25 This provocative volume takes an international multidisciplinary approach to understanding globalization and assessing its economic social and environmental effects Representing the Global North and South it addresses important debates stemming from recent political events in the U S and U K the continuing rise of information technology and the constant struggle between corporate interests and the health of the planet The human outcomes of world human rights challenges are considered in the ongoing global narratives of migrants refugees and disabled persons as well as possibilities for greater social equity and integration This expert synthesis takes critical steps to reshape the concept of globalization from an amorphous mass of objectives and initiatives to a forward looking model of clarity and balance Included in the coverage Globalization and migration is there a borderless world A comparative assessment of climate policies of top emitters Neo protectionism in the age of Brexit and Trump Working inclusively and redefining social valorization in the globalized world Understanding the strategy of M As in the globalized perspective Reappraisal of social enterprise in a globalized world Revisiting Globalism will be of particular interest to those in the academic field and the statutory and nonprofit sectors whose work deals with teaching social sciences in higher education settings

Capital Moves Jefferson Cowie, 2019-01-24 Find a pool of cheap pliable workers and give them jobs and soon they cease to be as cheap or as pliable What is an employer to do then Why find another poor community desperate for work This route one taken time and again by major American manufacturers is vividly chronicled in this fascinating account of RCA s half century long search for desirable sources of labor Capital Moves introduces us to the people most affected by the migration of industry and most importantly recounts how they came to fight against the idea that they were simply cheap labor Jefferson Cowie tells the dramatic story of four communities each irrevocably transformed by the opening of an industrial plant From the manufacturer s first factory in Camden New Jersey where it employed large numbers of southern and eastern European immigrants RCA moved to rural Indiana in 1940 hiring Americans of Scotch Irish descent for its plant in Bloomington Then in the volatile 1960s the company relocated to Memphis where African Americans made up the core of the labor pool Finally the company landed in northern Mexico in the 1970s a region rapidly becoming one of the most industrialized on the continent
