

WAVES OF GLOBALIZATION

Latest wave of Globalization:

- This wave of globalization, which began in 1980s, is distinctive.
- First, a large number of developing countries, such as China, India, and Brazil, broke into the world markets for manufacturers.
- Second, other developing countries became increasingly marginalized in the world economy and realized decreasing incomes and increasing poverty.
- Third, international capital movements, which were modest during the second wave of globalization, again became significant.
