rights In this book scholars from eight different Muslim and Catholic communities analyze the political strategies that women are employing in these contexts ranging from acceptance of traditional doctrines to various forms of resistance religious reinterpretation innovation and political action toward change and equal rights Religion, Gender and Citizenship Line Nyhagen, B. Halsaa, 2016-04-29 How do religious women talk about and practise citizenship How is religion linked to gender and nationality What are their views on gender equality women's movements and feminism Via interviews with Christian and Muslim women in Norway Spain and the UK this book explores intersections between religion citizenship gender and feminism The Routledge Handbook of Religion, Gender and Society Caroline Starkey, Emma Tomalin, 2021-12-30 In an era which many now recognise as post secular the role that religions play in shaping gender identities and relationships has been awarded a renewed status in the study of societies and social change In both the Global South and the Global North in the 21st century religiosity is of continuing significance not only in people's private lives and in the family but also in the public sphere and with respect to political and legal systems The Routledge Handbook of Religion Gender and Society is an outstanding reference source to these key topics problems and debates in this exciting subject area Comprising over 40 chapters by a team of international contributors the Handbook is divided into 3 parts Critical debates for religions gender and society theories concepts and methodologies Issues and themes in religions gender and society Contexts and locations Within these sections central issues debates and problems are examined including activism gender analysis intersectionality and feminism oppression and liberation equality bodies and embodiment space and place leadership and authority diaspora and migration marriage and the family generation and aging health and reproduction education violence and conflict ecology and climate change and the role of social media The Routledge Handbook of Religion Gender and Society is essential reading for students and researchers in religious studies and gender studies The Handbook will also be very useful for those in related fields such as cultural studies area studies politics sociology anthropology and history Religion and Gender in the Developing World Tamsin Bradley, 2010-12-07 Faith based development organizations have become a central part of the lives of the women of rural Rajasthan and have come to represent an important aspect of both individual and collective identities And yet religious teachings continue to be used to exclude women from public decision making forums and render them vulnerable to increasing levels of domestic violence In a unique multi disciplinary approach combining a range of subjects Tamsin Bradley provides a unique study of the role of development organizations and faith organizations in the lives of women in rural Rajasthan Faith and religion emerge as being able to afford a space within which women are able to interact with one another and create an identity for themselves However faith proves not just to be a positive sphere in which women are able to assert themselves Its ambiguity becomes clear as the author explains that religious women often find their visions of social justice and equality marginalised by the dominance of male leadership Nevertheless Bradley also look at how religious women challenge male dominance drawing on their beliefs and practices in creative and innovative ways Thus a complex picture emerges and including insights from gender studies and anthropology Bradley argues that religion can both empower and disempower local communities and the women who live within them By analysing development through the prism of gender studies Bradley highlights the complex nature of power relationships that are at the very heart of development agendas and organizations and offers an invaluable contribution to the understanding of the nexus of varied disciplines in the analysis of women and religion in Rajasthan This book will be of interest to students reseachers and policy makers involved in various fields including those of Development Studies Religion Gender Studies and Social Anthropology

Gendering Religion and Politics H. Herzog,A. Braude,2009-07-20 The aim of this book is to suggest an interdisciplinary perspective on the complex relations of gender religion and politics in light of paradigmatic shifts in theories of modernity and the growing body of studies on gender and religion Moroccan Women, Activists, and Gender Politics

Eve Sandberg,Kenza Aqertit,2014-09-26 Sandberg and Aqertit analyze how over the course of twenty five years dedicated smart and politically effective Moroccan women working simultaneously in multiple settings and aware of each other s work altered Morocco s entrenched gender institution of regularized practices and distinctive rights and obligations for men and women In telling the story of these Moroccan gender activists Sandberg and Aqertit s work is of interest to Middle East and North Africa MENA area specialists to feminist and gender researchers and to institutionalist scholars Their work operationalizes and offers a template for studying change in national gender institutions that can be adopted by practitioners and scholars in other country settings Handbook on Religion and International Relations Haynes, this volume explores feminist perspectives in relation to African Indigenous Religions AIR It evaluates what the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians research has achieved and proposed since its launch in 1989 their contribution to the world of knowledge and liberation and the potential application to nurturing a justice oriented world The book considers the methodologies used amongst the Circle to study African Indigenous Religions the AIR sources of knowledge that are drawn on and the way in which women are characterized It reflects on how ideas drawn from African Indigenous Religions might address issues of patriarchy colonialism capitalism racism tribalism and sexual and disability based discrimination The chapters examine theologies of specific figures The book will be of interest to scholars of religion gender studies Indigenous studies and African studies

Gender, Religion and Education in a Chaotic Postmodern World Zehavit Gross,Lynn Davies,Al-Khansaa Diab,2012-12-04 The immense changes that the world is undergoing in terms of globalization and migration of peoples have had a profound effect on cultures and identities The question is whether this means shifts in religious identities for women and men in different contexts whether such shifts are seen as beneficial negative or insufficient or whether social change actually means new conservatisms or even fundamentalisms Surrounding these questions is the role of education is in any change or new contradiction This unique book enhances an interdisciplinary discourse about the complex intersections between gender religion and education in the contemporary world Literature in the social sciences and humanities have expanded our understanding of women s involvement in almost every aspect of life yet the combined religious educational aspect is still an under studied and often under theorized field of research How people experience their religious identity in a new context or country is also a theme now needing more complex attention Questions of the body visibility and invisibility are receiving new treatments This book fills these gaps The book provides a strong comparative perspective with 15 countries or contexts represented The context of education and learning covers schools higher education non formal education religious institutions adult literacy curriculum and textbooks Overall the book reveals a great complexity and often contradiction in modern negotiations of religion and secularism by girls and boys women and men and a range of possibilities for change It provides a theoretical and practical resource for researchers religious and educational institutions policy makers and teachers

Decolonizing Religion and Peacebuilding Atalia Omer,2020-08-18 In this book Atalia Omer argues that the efforts of western religious organizations in peacebuilding campaigns often reinforce neocolonial practices and disempower local religious actors Focusing on Kenya and the Philippines she shows that religious peacebuilding practices are both empowering and depoliticizing Further she argues that these religious actors generate decolonial openings regardless of how closed or open their religious communities are The book not only uses decolonial and intersectional prisms to expose the entrenched and ongoing colonial dynamics operative in religion and the practices of peacebuilding and development in the global South but it also speaks to decolonial theory through stories of transformation and survival
