Go East Oder Die Zweite Entdeckung Des Ostens:

Go east Karl Schlögel,1995      Historical Concepts Between Eastern and Western Europe Manfred Hildermeier,2007 More than a decade after the breakdown of the Soviet Empire and the reunification of Europe historiographies and historical concepts still stood very much apart This book talks about how there were no common efforts for joint interpretations and no attempts to reach a common understanding of central notions and concepts      Moscow, 1937 Karl Schlögel,2014-01-08 Moscow 1937 the soviet metropolis at the zenith of Stalin s dictatorship A society utterly wrecked by a hurricane of violence In this compelling book the renowned historian Karl Schl gel reconstructs with meticulous care the process through which month by month the terrorism of a state of emergency regime spiraled into the Great Terror during which 1 1 2 million human beings lost their lives within a single year He revisits the sites of show trials and executions and by also consulting numerous sources from the time he provides a masterful panorama of these key events in Russian history He shows how in the shadow of the reign of terror the regime around Stalin also aimed to construct a new society Based on countless documents Schl gel s historical masterpiece vividly presents an age in which the boundaries separating the dream and the terror dissolve and enables us to experience the fear that was felt by people subjected to totalitarian rule This rich and absorbing account of the Soviet purges will be essential reading for all students of Russia and for any readers interested in one of the most dramatic and disturbing events of modern history      The Berlin Reader Matthias Bernt,Britta Grell,Andrey Holm,2014-04-09 By drawing together widely dispersed yet central writings the Berlin Reader is an essential resource for everyone interested in urban development in one of the most interesting and important metropolises in Europe It provides scholars as well as students journalists and visitors with an overview of the most central discussions on the tremendous changes Berlin experienced since the fall of the wall It covers a wide range of issues including inner city renewal housing and the local economy gentrification and other urban conflicts The book breaks ground in two dimensions first by offering also non German speakers an insight into the very controversial debates after reunification and second by highlighting the ambivalent consequences of Berlin s urban transformation in the past decades      Chasing Warsaw Monika Grubbauer,Joanna Kusiak,2012-10 Warsaw is one of the most dynamically developing cities in Europe and its rich history has marked it as an epicenter of many modes of urbanism Tzarist modernist socialist and in the past two decades aggressively neoliberal Focusing on Warsaw after 1990 this volume explores the interplay between Warsaw s past urban identities and the intense urban change of the 90s and 00s Chasing Warsaw departs from the typical narratives of post socialist cities in Eastern Europe by contextualizing Warsaw s unique transformation in terms of both global change and the shifting geographies of centrality and marginality in contemporary Poland      Uprooted Gregor Thum,2011-08-08 How a German city became Polish after World War II With the stroke of a pen at the Potsdam Conference following the Allied victory in 1945 Breslau the largest German city east of Berlin became the Polish city of Wroclaw Its more than six hundred thousand inhabitants almost all of them ethnic Germans were expelled and replaced by Polish settlers from all parts of prewar Poland Uprooted examines the long term psychological and cultural consequences of forced migration in twentieth century Europe through the experiences of Wroclaw's Polish inhabitants In this pioneering work Gregor Thum tells the story of how the city's new Polish settlers found themselves in a place that was not only unfamiliar to them but outright repellent given Wroclaw's Prussian German appearance and the enormous scope of wartime destruction The immediate consequences were an unstable society an extremely high crime rate rapid dilapidation of the building stock and economic stagnation This changed only after the city's authorities and a new intellectual elite provided Wroclaw with a Polish founding myth and reshaped the city's appearance to fit the postwar legend that it was an age old Polish city Thum also shows how the end of the Cold War and Poland's democratization triggered a public debate about Wroclaw's amputated memory Rediscovering the German past Wroclaw's Poles reinvented their city for the second time since World War II Uprooted traces the complex historical process by which Wroclaw's new inhabitants revitalized their city and made it their own

Transgression as a Rule

Ulrich Best, 2007 Whereas currently German Polish relations are marked by irritations the previous phase of politics and discourse from 1990 leading up to the EU accession of Poland was marked by an increasing stress on Europe in both countries This was connected with changing practices of cross border cooperation as well as a change in academic border studies Transgression as a Rule argues that resulting from this cross border cooperation has become a rule The actors negotiate new contradictory spaces for their actions supported by the state but partly uncomfortable with it drawing on the powerful discourse of cooperation and trying to escape from it Their practices can also inform the practices of border studies

Water in Social Imagination, 2017-01-05 Water in Social Imagination considers how human communities have known imagined and shaped water and how water has shaped both material culture and the imagination Essays from diverse perspectives offer histories of water at different scales from community water wells and sacred springs to Siberian rivers and the regulated space of the Baltic Sea From early modernization through Soviet style technological optimism to contemporary environmentalism water's ideological uses are multiple With sustained attention not just to state policy and the technologies of high modernity but to creative resistance to utilitarian imaginations these essays insist on fluidities of meaning ambiguities that derive both from water's physical mutability and from its dual nature as life necessity and agent of destruction

Urban Machinery Mikael Hård, Thomas J. Misa, 2008 Urban Machinery investigates the technological dimension of modern European cities vividly describing the most dramatic changes in the urban environment over the last century and a half Written by leading scholars from the history of technology urban history sociology and science technology and society the book views the European city as a complex construct entangled with technology The chapters examine the increasing similarity of modern cities and their technical infrastructures including communication energy industrial and transportation systems and the resulting tension between homogenization and cultural differentiation The contributors emphasize the concept of circulation the process by which architectural ideas urban planning principles engineering concepts and societal models spread across Europe as well as from the United States to Europe They also examine the parallel process of appropriation how these systems and practices have been adapted to prevailing institutional structures and cultural preferences Urban Machinery with contributions by scholars from eight countries and more than thirty illustrations many of them rare photographs never published before includes studies from northern and southern and from eastern and western Europe and also discusses how European cities were viewed from the periphery modernizing Turkey and from the United States ContributorsHans Buiter Paolo Capuzzo Noyan Din kal Cornelis Disco P l Germuska Mikael H rd Martina He ler Dagmara Jajesniak Quast Andrew Jamison Per Lundin Thomas J Misa Dieter Schott Marcus StippakMikael H rd is Professor of History at Darmstadt University of Technology His books include The Intellectual Appropriation of Technology Discourses on Modernity 1900 1939 coedited with Andrew Jamison MIT Press 1998 Thomas J Misa is ERA Land Grant Professor of the History of Technology at the University of Minnesota where he directs the Charles Babbage Institute His books include Modernity and Technology coedited with Philip Brey and Andrew Feenberg MIT Press 2003     „Du musst sie lieben“
