God And Man In Time A Christian Approach To Historiography:

God and Man in Time Earle Edwin Cairns,1979 Faith and Learning David S. Dockery,2012 Two dozen Christian higher education professionals thoroughly explore the question of the faith's place on the university campus whether in administrative matters the broader academic world or in student life Historiography: Ideas Robert M. Burns,2006 This collection aims to enable the reader to disentangle some of the ambiguities and confusions which have characterized the use of the term historiography A History of Christian Thought Volume I Dr. Justo L. Gonzalez,2010-09-01 A treatment of the evolution of Christian thought from the birth of Christ to the Apostles to the early church to the great flowering of Christianity across the world The first volume introduces the central figures and debates culminating in the Councils of Nicea and Chalcedon among which the theologies of the early church were hammered out Volume 2 9781426721915 Volume 3 9781426721939 A History of Orthodox, Islamic, and Western Christian Political Values Dennis J. Dunn,2016-09-13 The book reveals the nexus between religion and politics today and shows that we live in an interdependent world where one global civilization is emerging and where the world's peoples are continuing to coalesce around a series of values that contain potent Western overtones Both Putin's Orthodox Russia and regions under the control of such Islamist groups like ISIS and Al Qaeda resent and attempt in a largely languishing effort to frustrate this series of values The book explains the current tension between the West and Russia and parts of the Muslim world and sheds light on the causes of such crises as the Syrian Civil War Russia's aggression against Ukraine and acts of terrorism such as 9/11 and the ISIS inspired massacres in Paris It shows that religion continues to affect global order and that knowledge of its effect on political identity and global governance should guide both government policy and scholarly analysis of contemporary history Knowing Future Time In and Through Greek Historiography Alexandra Lianeri,2016-03-07 From the early modern period Greek historiography has been studied in the context of Cicero's notion historia magistra vitae and considered to exclude conceptions of the future as different from the present and past Comparisons with the Roman Judeo-Christian and modern historiography have sought to justify this perspective by drawing on a category of the future as a temporal mode that breaks with the present In this volume distinguished classicists and historians challenge this contention by raising the question of what the future was and meant in antiquity by offering fresh considerations of prognostic and anticipatory voices in Greek historiography from Herodotus to Appian and by tracing the roots of established views on historical time in the opposition between antiquity and modernity They look both at contemporary scholarly argument and the writings of Greek historians in order to explore the relation of time especially the future to an idea of the historical that is formulated in the plural and is always in motion By reflecting on the prognostic of historical time the volume will be of interest not only to classical scholars but to all who are interested in the history and theory of historical time Who's who in Christian History James Dixon Douglas,1992 Describes the men and women who made a lasting impact on Christian faith and experience With over 1 500 biographical entries this book is the most comprehensive resource available It spans the first through the twentieth centuries from Jesus and the apostles to Billy Graham and Mother Teresa A great reference book for pastors Bible students and teachers or anyone desiring a one volume biographical dictionary of who's who in Christian history The Patristic Witness of Georges Florovsky Georges Florovsky, 2019-09-19 Georges Florovsky 1893-1979 was one of the most prominent Orthodox theologians and ecumenists of the twentieth century His call for a return to patristic writings as a source of modern theological reflection had a powerful impact not only on Orthodox theology in the second half of the twentieth century but on Christian theology in general Florovsky was also a major Orthodox voice in the ecumenical movement for four decades and he is one of the founders of the World Council of Churches This book is a collection of major theological writings by George Florovsky It includes representative and widely influential but now largely inaccessible texts many newly translated for this book divided into four thematic sections Creation Incarnation and Redemption The Nature of Theology Ecclesiology and Ecumenism and Scripture Worship and Eschatology A foreword by Metropolitan Kallistos Ware presents the theological vision of Georges Florovsky and discusses the continuing relevance of his work both for Orthodox theology and for modern theology in general The introduction by the Editors provides a theological and historical overview of Florovsky theology in the context of his biography The book includes explanatory notes translation of patristic citations and an index Ethical Implications of One God Robert Petkovsek, Bojan Zalec, 2021-01-27 The issue of the ethical implications of monotheism is a very relevant topic from the point of view of contemporary humanities and social science and from the perspective of the cultural and political condition in Europe and at the global scale Therefore a scientific book devoted to this subject makes a lot of sense Throughout the history and in present times monotheism has been subjected to several sharp criticisms On the other hand we find also very different evaluations of it They stress its positive and even crucial contribution to peace forming of rational non violent tolerant culture and society to the scientific political and cultural development to democracy etc The book offers fresh interdisciplinary perspectives mainly from the point of view of humanities on the ethical aspects of monotheism broadens the scientific understanding of it and establishes a basis for resolving conflicts to which the understanding of monotheism is relevant or even decisive Intellectual History and Culture Wars in Central and Eastern Europe in the Light of Modern Theories of Religion LIT Verlag, 2024-07-01 The book addresses events in the Slovenian lands and the broader Central European context from the second half of the 19th century to the beginning of the Second World War It focuses on phenomena and personalities in the field of religion which cannot be fully understood without considering other aspects processes and events in the areas of culture art politics and more which the book's authors thoroughly explore This makes the book an interdisciplinary work that integrates approaches from theology religious studies philosophy historiography cultural studies and related fields into a coherent whole This comprehensive approach offers an understanding that transcends these individual disciplines shedding new light on the events discussed Elie Kedourie's Approaches to History and Political Theory Sylvia Kedourie, 2013-10-18 Elie Kedourie was one of the twentieth century's most important and controversial historians of the Middle East. He redefined the landscape of the field by challenging the notion that the West's imperial domination of the region spawned nationalism in Arab countries. In a long career lecturing in politics at the London School of Economics, Kedourie inspired a generation of political scientists and politicians. A dedicated scholar and meticulous teacher, he founded Middle Eastern Studies, a journal which forty years after its launch remains one of the leading publications in the field and a monument to his work. Bringing together some of the most distinguished figures in Middle Eastern studies, this collection evaluates Kedourie's contribution to Middle Eastern history and political thought and assesses the impact of his scholarly legacy. The volume contains a complete bibliography of his writing and was previously published as a special issue of Middle Eastern Studies.

God, Race, and History Matt R. Jantzen, 2021-02-05 In crafting racial visions of the modern world, European thinkers appropriated the Christian doctrine of providence, constructing the idea of European humanity's rule over the globe on the model of God's rule over the universe. As a powerful ordering theory of the relationship between God and creation, time and space, self and other, the doctrine served as an intellectual framework for the theorization of whiteness as the male European subject replaced Jesus Christ as the human being at the center of world history. Through an analysis of the work of G. W. F. Hegel, Karl Barth, and James H. Cone, God, Race, and History examines this subversion of the Christian doctrine of providence as well as subsequent attempts within modern Protestant theology to liberate the doctrine from its captivity to whiteness. It then develops a constructive political theology of providence in conversation with Delores S. Williams and M. Shawn Copeland, discerning Jesus Christ at work through the Holy Spirit in the struggles of ordinary, overlooked, and oppressed human creatures to survive and to carve out a flourishing life for themselves, their communities, and their world.

Categories of Medieval Culture A. J. Gurevich, 2025-05-08 Originally published in English in 1985, this book concentrates on the people of the Middle Ages and how they saw the world they lived in. Medieval behaviour, social, economic, political, and religious, was regulated by the Medieval picture of the world. This book discusses the most important concepts of medieval culture: space and time, law, the attitude towards work, wealth, and poverty, as they are reflected in the vernacular literature of the age: sagas, epics, courtly romances, the love songs of the troubadours, and the works of Dante, as well as numerous Latin writings. This enables the reader to reconstruct the culture of the Middle Ages, revealing it as a culture which resulted from the meeting of several traditions: Christian, classical, and barbarian.

The History of the Christian Church (Complete) Philip Schaff, 1886-01-01 As I appear before the public with a new edition of my Church History I feel more than ever the difficulty and responsibility of a task which is well worthy to occupy the whole time and strength of a long life and which carries in it its own rich reward The true historian of Christianity is yet to come But short as I have fallen of my own ideal I have done my best and shall rejoice if my efforts stimulate others to better and more enduring work History should be written from the original sources of friend and foe in the spirit of truth and love sine ira et studio with malice towards none and charity for all in clear fresh vigorous style under the guidance of the twin parables of the mustard seed and leaven as a book of life for instruction correction encouragement as the best exposition and vindication of Christianity The great and good Neander the father of Church History first an Israelite without guile hoping for the Messiah then a Platonist longing for the realization of his ideal of righteousness last a Christian in head and heart made such a history his life work but before reaching the Reformation he was interrupted by sickness and said to his faithful sister Hannchen I am weary let us go home good night And thus he fell gently asleep like a child to awake in the land where all problems of history are solved When after a long interruption caused by a change of professional duties and literary labors I returned to the favorite studies of my youth I felt the necessity before continuing the History to more recent times of subjecting the first volume to a thorough revision in order to bring it up to the present state of investigation We live in a restless and stirring age of discovery criticism and reconstruction During the thirty years which have elapsed since the publication of my separate History of the Apostolic Church there has been an incessant activity in this field not only in Germany the great workshop of critical research but in all other Protestant countries Almost every inch of ground has been disputed and defended with a degree of learning acumen and skill such as were never spent before on the solution of historical problems
