God And Utopia The Church In A Technological Civilization:

God and Utopia Gabriel Vahanian, 1977

The Ethical Challenge of Auschwitz and Hiroshima Darrell J.

Fasching, 1993-07-01 This book addresses the problem of religion ethics and public policy in a global technological civilization It attempts to do what narrative ethicists have said cannot be done to construct a cross cultural ethic of human dignity human rights and human liberation which respects the diversity of narrative traditions It seeks to do this without succumbing to either ethical relativism or ethical absolutism The author confronts directly the dominant narrative of our technological civilization the Janus faced myths of Apocalypse or Utopia Through this myth we view technology ambivalently as both the object of our dread and the source of our hope The myth thus renders us ethically impotent the very strength of our literal utopian euphoria sends us careening toward some literal apocalyptic final solution The demonic narrative that dominated Auschwitz killing in order to heal is part of this Janus faced technological mythos that emerged out of Hiroshima And it is this mythic narrative which underlies and structures much of public policy in our nuclear age This book proposes a coalition of members of holy communities and secular groups organized to prevent any future eruptions of the demonic Its goal is to construct a bridge not only over the abyss between religions East and West but also between religious and secular ethics

A Theology for a Mediated God Dennis Ford, 2015-10-08 A Theology for a Mediated God introduces a new way to examine the shaping effects of media on our notions of God and divinity In contrast to more conventional social scientific methodologies and conversations about the relationship between religion and media Dennis Ford argues that the characteristics we ascribe to a medium can be extended and applied metaphorically to the characteristics we ascribe to God just as earlier generations attempted to comprehend God through the metaphors of father shepherd or mother As a result his work both challenges and bridges the gap between students of religion and media and theology

Polyphonic Thinking and the Divine Jim Kanaris, 2013 Philosophy of religion is a highly diversified field An apt description of it is zoo It conjures imagery of a species wide cacophony of sights and sounds While some bemoan what this description implies Contributors to this volume appreciate it There is no reason why a zoo should intimate a den of confusion rather than an important condition of emergence and novelty Polyphonic is the catchall term to capture this sentiment It signals a way of thinking that resists the desire to siphon insight into manageable packets of information in the Name of historicity and finitude A polyphonic then is a variegated and discontinuous study that breaks with a tradition that desires continuity and unification without being erratic This volume is an exercise in polyphonic thinking Each contributing scholar develops ideas in connection with his or her research interests Despite the fluctuation of themes symmetry exists as each piece sounds off a core melody of religion and the divine The book contributes to the advancement of current research in contemporary Continental philosophy of religion By juxtaposing articles by cultural theorists and philosophers of religion religionists and theologians the book emphasizes the importance of interdisciplinary and polyphonic conversation to the development of matters of topical interest and issues related to method and ethics in religious studies and theology

Manifesto of the Critical Theory of Society and Religion (3 vols.) Rudolf Siebert, 2010-08-16 The Manifesto develops further the Critical Theory of Religion intrinsic to the Critical Theory of Society of the Frankfurt School into a new paradigm of the Psychology Sociology Philosophy and Theology of Religion Its central theme is the theodicy problem The Manifesto approaches this theme in the framework of comparative religion and critical political theology in a narrative and discursive fashion In search of a solution to the theodicy problem the Manifesto explores trends in civil society toward Alternative Future I the Totally Administered Society Alternative Future II the Militarized Society and Alternative Future III the Reconciled Society in the horizon of the longing for the Wholly Other as perfect justice and unconditional love Toward that goal it relies on both the critical theory of society as developed by Max Horkheimer Ernst Bloch Walter Benjamin Theodor W Adorno and others and on the new political theology of Johannes B Metz Helmut Peukert and Edmund Arens

Philosophy and Technology Carl Mitcham, Robert Mackey, 1983 From editors Carl Mitcham and Robert Mackey comes an unusually reflective and wide ranging colloquium on technology as a philosophical problem Organized into sections on conceptual issues ethical and political critiques religious critiques existentialist critiques and metaphysical studies Philosophy and Technology features an introductory overview that suggests the aims of truly comprehensive philosophy of technology Philosophy and Technology features essays by Jacques Ellul Lewis Mumford Ortega y Gasset and C S Lewis This revised and fully updated edition features a comprehensive bibliography

Theology and Technique Jacques Ellul, 2024-02-21 Theology and Technique is a posthumous incomplete volume drafted in the 1970s that nevertheless constitutes a significant addition to the Ellul corpus Working from Jacques Ellul s original outline a collaborative team including three of Ellul s children a grandson and Ellul scholars has assembled previous partial publications that Ellul himself approved for eventual incorporation along with relevant unpublished essays and notes into a book which throws the relationship between Ellul s radical theology and sociological critique into fresh perspective Fr d ric Rognon contributes an especially insightful general introduction The translation by Christian Roy is a model of rendering the complexities of the French original into English This latest Ellul publication will be essential to any serious attempt to appreciate the scope and depth of Ellul s Christian engagement with the challenges of the contemporary world

Technology and Values in American Civilization Stephen H. Cutcliffe, Judith Adams-Volpe, Christine Roysdon, 1980

Romans: Three Exegetical Interpretations and the History of Reception Daniel Patte, 2018-07-26 In the first of a three volume work Daniel Patte presents three very different critical exegeses of Romans 1 arguing that all are equally legitimate and hermeneutically plausible By expanding upon and respecting the exegeses of many erudite scholars of the last two centuries Patte concludes that three families of vastly different critical interpretations are fully justified traditional philological and epistolary studies rhetorical and sociocultural studies and figurative studies of the coherence of Paul s teaching Arising from a long standing interdisciplinary investigation of many receptions of Romans in light of recent diversification of exegetical methodologies Patte concludes that the interpretation of a scriptural text necessarily involves making a choice among equally legitimate and plausible alternatives and second that this choice is always contextual and ethical When these points are denied by failing to respect the interpretations of others and absolutizing one's interpretation instead of being a scriptural blessing Romans becomes a deadly weapon against others heretics Jews Shoah and many others The result is a threefold commentary of Romans 1 that is unique in its scope and thorough going exegesis Global Democracy and Human Self-Transcendence Glen T. Martin, 2019-01-15 This volume examines the dynamics of self transcendence for both individuals and humanity as a whole In doing so it illuminates the definitive relationship between self transcendence and global democracy Drawing upon a vast literature of philosophy psychology and religion ancient and modern East and West this book reveals the power of human futurity in actualizing our higher potential It represents a real breakthrough in understanding our emerging new era in the evolution of humanity It describes our transition from personal consciousness to global consciousness The book includes chapters on the fundamental ideas that animate our self understanding and define our common humanity Through careful scholarship it examines the dynamics of human dignity freedom love community intrinsic rights and global ethics It explores each of these concepts as a dimension of our human temporality as we envision and move into an ever transcending future a future that includes a World Parliament and planetary democracy In our time of apparent hopelessness and despair this volume reveals the grounds for a powerful hope that we can establish one world civilization of peace justice freedom and sustainability It makes a truly unique contribution not found elsewhere in today's literature revealing the astonishing dignity and potential of being human It is essential reading for all those concerned for the future of humanity and our precious planet Earth The Thought of Jacques Ellul Darrell J. Fasching, 1981 A study of the work of Jacques Ellul This work argues that he is one the most important Christian thinkers on the implications of a technological civilization with regard to religion The Johannine World David J. Hawkin, 1996-01-01 Argues that the Fourth Gospel has political dimensions which offer both meaning and challenge to contemporary Christians Ararat, 1985 A Guide to the Culture of Science, Technology, and Medicine Paul T. Durbin, 1980 Theology and Technology Carl Mitcham, Jim Grote, 1984 The New Scholasticism Edward Aloysius Pace, James Hugh Ryan, 1978 Includes section Book Reviews Choice, 1978 A Circle in the Square Edward Abramson, Edward E. Abramson, 2008 A Circle in the Square tells the story of a project that by all the rules of logic should have failed but instead succeeded wildly In the 1960s a time of deep religious and existential crisis when the question of God's existence was being debated among people of all faiths a young man fresh out of graduate school began teaching an ancient religion to its own members Jews who had little or no connection to Judaism In 1964 when twenty three year old Rabbi Steven Riskin became the rabbi of Lincoln Square Synagogue on New York's Upper West Side he had no set plan Nevertheless he revolutionized Orthodox Judaism by making it attractive and relevant to American Jews Within these pages readers will learn about Rabbi Riskin's unprecedented approach to adult Jewish education and his steadfast commitment to reaching out to each and every Jew within and beyond the four walls of Lincoln Square Synagogue. Rabbi Riskin also emphasized the importance of bringing heaven down to earth and inviting God into the synagogue as a regular guest. A Circle in the Square is a spellbinding account of one man's profound influence on Orthodox Judaism, an influence that is felt to this day. Cities and Churches: 1960-1979 Loyde H. Hartley, 1992 American Book Publishing Record, 1978
