Economic Diversification And Development In Saudi Arabia:

Economic Diversification And Development In Saudi-Arabia Rashid Masood, Rashid, 1989 Economic Diversification and Development in Saudi Arabia Rashid Masood, 1989 Economic Diversification in the Gulf Region, Volume I Ashraf Mishrif, Yousuf Al Balushi, 2017-12-27 This volume focuses on the role of the private sector in diversifying the economics of Gulf countries in the post petrodollar era when fluctuating and declining oil prices are negatively impacting national expenditures It explores current policies of countries in the Gulf Cooperation Council and their efforts to shift their economies away from heavy dependence on hydrocarbons The structural changes will create favorable conditions for the private sector to flourish shift production dependence from public to private sector and allow for more efficient resource allocation Such changes will also allow local banks to provide financial support to small and medium enterprises boost entrepreneurship for job creation and strengthen organizational structure and efficiency This is the first volume in Economic Diversification in the Gulf Region Economic Development in the Gulf Cooperation Council Countries H  la Miniaoui, 2020-10-26 This book delves into the economic development of the six Gulf Cooperation Council GCC countries Since the 1960s the GCC states have harnessed their potential to exploit the wealth accrued from the oil boom to build their infrastructure and grow their economies However the high level of dependency on oil as the primary source feeding their output made their economies volatile and vulnerable to fluctuations in the global oil prices Moreover the plunge in oil prices and the threat of depletion of this natural resource pose serious challenges to the GCC countries Consequently the GCC governments have realized the importance of diversifying their economies following the need to move away from reliance on hydrocarbon This book contributes to the theoretical literature by enriching the debate on the transition of the GCC countries from rentier states to diversified economies It helps students and scholars understand this transformation with an expansive comprehension of the contemporary challenges facing the region as well as outlining prospects for the future

Ramady,2012-04-23 The Arab Spring of 2011 has affected the countries of the region to varying degrees including the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC members comprising Saudi Arabia Kuwait Qatar the United Arab Emirates Oman and Bahrain The GCC has become a significant regional bloc playing a vital economic and political role far beyond its shores given its geopolitical strategic location a preponderance of global energy reserves and a major international player through the use of accumulated financial reserves A new Gulf is rising one that is more self assertive looking to expand its membership to other Arab countries such as Jordan and Morocco while at the same time strengthening the bloc s relationship with current and emerging trading and strategic partners in Europe USA and Asia Regional and international realities especially the uncertainties unleashed by the Arab Spring are forcing Gulf leadership to initiate new policies involving closer cooperation amongst GCC countries to address emerging challenges This volume brings together thirty renowned academics and specialists to examine a range of multifaceted social political and economic issues facing the GCC in key areas such as Diversification from a high dependency on a narrow hydrocarbon base Social transformation youth employment and effective gender participation Outward and inward foreign direct investment flows Prospects for education reforms and e learning Sustainable security in oil renewable energy including nuclear and food Corporate governance transparency and enhancing the private sector s operating environment The role and governance of Gulf Sovereign Wealth Funds in investing their surpluses The volume also offers insights for challenges facing the GCC in monetary union expanding the regional debt market and Sukuk issuance GCC intellectual property rights application detailed assessments of individual GCC country risk analysis as well as the sustainability of long term government fiscal stimulus programs at the expense of private sector involvement Economic Diversification in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia A.M.M.

Abdel-Rahman,2001 Development, Political, and Economic Difficulties in the Caribbean Ann Marie Bissessar,2019-01-23 This edited volume focuses on the attempts of various Caribbean countries to diversify their economies and societies It is done in the context of political and economic difficulties that these countries have faced since the 2007 2008 economic crash and how successful they have been in moving their economies in a different direction The contributors use very distinct levels of analysis in order to provide a nuanced view of diversification efforts in Trinidad and Tobago Jamaica Cuba the French Antilles and the Dutch Antilles The book will appeal to academic researchers practitioners policy makers and everyone who is interested in the politics and development of the Caribbean region Social Change in the Gulf Region Md Mizanur Rahman,Amr Al-Azm,2023-03-21 This open access book comprising thirty nine chapters divided into social cultural economic and political spheres offers a unique opportunity to dive into the complex dynamic and sometimes contradictory transformation of Gulf societies in the last few decades Whilst the Gulf region has at times been seen as impervious to this natural phenomenon of transformation timeless never changing deeply rooted in its ancient tribal customs and traditions and able to blend past and present seamlessly without suffering the wrenching trauma of change this is clearly not the case and the region is not immune to the inevitable forces of social change There is no doubt today that the social change sweeping the Gulf has been profound affecting almost every aspect of life in the Gulf societies This volume has an encyclopedic value as the chapters collectively offer multifaceted and multidisciplinary perspectives to understand social change in the Gulf region Through these chapters the role of economic and educational transformation and the impact of social media migration and urbanization have in driving social change in the Gulf societies is examined in detail with a focus on their directions magnitudes and relevant policy options It also considers how COVID 19 is affecting the lives of the people in the Gulf This book bridges gaps in the understanding of the rapid pace of social change in the Gulf offering practical solutions for policy interventions It is of interest to scholars and students in Middle Eastern studies specifically as well as sociology media studies migration studies and educational policy

Economic Diversification in the Gulf Region, Volume II Ashraf Mishrif, Yousuf Al Balushi, 2018-01-09 This volume explores the challenges to diversification in Gulf countries which can no longer rely on profits from hydrocarbons to fund national expenditures It elaborates on the problem of weak institutions lack of coordination between policy makers and executors limited investment in research and development and a workforce that is too poorly skilled to compete in the private sector In addition to analyzing issues in areas such as education labor business and trade the contributors underscore the importance of using global best practices to overcome fundamental weaknesses in the Gulf Cooperative Council's economic structure that limit opportunities for economic diversification This is the second volume in Economic Diversification in the Gulf Region

Leadership Development in Saudi Arabia Fahad F.H. Alanazi, Charles Harvey, Tom McGovern, Mairi Maclean, 2025-06-30 Leadership Development in Saudi Arabia offers a comprehensive examination of the role of leadership development in expanding capabilities for national economic development accelerating realization of the ambitious goals of Vision 2030 the country's blueprint for socioeconomic transformation Based on nine case studies of leading Saudi companies this book explores how and why firms invest in leadership development and assesses its current state in Saudi Arabia It provides insights into both organizational talent building and the country's journey toward economic diversification The book stands out as one of the first contextually rich in depth studies of leadership development in a non Western context particularly within the ambitious framework of Saudi Arabia's Vision 2030 Through interviews with senior executives and leadership professionals the book provides actionable recommendations for improving leadership development practices Readers will benefit from detailed case studies and empirical data that highlight how leadership programs can drive business growth and national economic progress It is essential reading for academics leadership development professionals policymakers and business leaders interested in understanding how leadership development supports economic growth in Saudi Arabia and how it might play an even bigger role in the future It proposes developing fresh approaches to widening the pool of leadership talent building on the distinctive strengths of Islamic Leadership practices Economic Diversification in the GCC Mr.Tim Callen,Reda Cherif,Fuad Hasanov,Mr.Amgad Hegazy,Padamja Khandelwal,2014-12-23 Abstract The economies of the six Gulf Cooperation Council GCC countries are heavily reliant on oil Greater economic diversification would reduce their exposure to volatility and uncertainty in the global oil market help create jobs in the private sector increase productivity and sustainable growth and help create the non oil economy that will be needed in the future when oil revenues start to dwindle The GCC countries have followed many of the standard policies that are usually thought to promote more diversified economies including reforms to improve the business climate the development of domestic infrastructure financial deepening and improvements in education Nevertheless success to date has been limited This paper argues that increased diversification will require realigning incentives for firms and workers in the economies fixing these incentives is the missing link in the GCC countries diversification strategies At present producing non tradables is less risky and more profitable for firms as they can benefit from the easy availability of low wage foreign labor and the rapid growth in government spending while the continued availability of high paying and secure public sector jobs discourages nationals from pursuing entrepreneurship and private sector employment Measures to begin to address these incentive issues could include limiting and reorienting government spending strengthening private sector competition providing guarantees and financial support for those firms engaged in export activity and implementing labor market reforms to make nationals more competitive for private sector employment
