Global Images Of Peace And Education Transforming The War System:

Global Images of Peace T. M. Thomas, David R. Conrad, Gertrude F. Langsam, 1987      Global Images of Peace T. M. Thomas, David R. Conrad, Gertrude F. Langsam, 1985      Educating Beyond Violent Futures Francis Hutchinson, 2005-06-27 As we enter the Twenty First Century it is easy to assume that worsening trends in violence will be a feature of our lives whether in our schools our societies or as a species Educating Beyond Violent Futures challenges assumptions that trends in violence are destiny and raises crucial questions about choice and engagement Drawing upon new research this book is essential reading for those who want to prepare our children for living constructively in the next century      Lies My Teacher Told Me James Loewen, 2008-04-08 Since its first publication in 1995 Lies My Teacher Told Me has gone on to win an American Book Award the Oliver Cromwell Cox Award for Distinguished Anti Racist Scholarship and to sell over half a million copies in its various editions What started out as a survey of the twelve leading American history textbooks has ended up being what the San Francisco Chronicle calls an extremely convincing plea for truth in education In Lies My Teacher Told Me James W Loewen brings history alive in all its complexity and ambiguity Beginning with pre Columbian history and ranging over characters and events as diverse as Reconstruction Helen Keller the first Thanksgiving and the Mai Lai massacre Loewen offers an eye opening critique of existing textbooks and a wonderful retelling of American history as it should and could be taught to American students This 10th anniversary edition features a handsome new cover and a new introduction by the author      Lies My Teacher Told Me James W. Loewen, 2008 Criticizes the way history is presented in current textbooks and suggests a more accurate approach to teaching American history      Global Education Kenneth A. Tye, 1990 Viewed as a social movement for change the global education movement calls for the infusion of a global perspective into all curriculum areas Two assumptions of global education include the view of the individual school as the optimal unit for change efforts and the importance of local teacher and school action for lasting school improvement This yearbook defines global education explains its importance describes its implementation and demonstrates its uses for school improvement The first part examines the context of schooling in which a global perspective can be developed and the second part is directed toward issues of practice In chapter 1 Lee F Anderson develops an argument for global studies in the schools Barbara Benham Tye delineates the problems inherent in changing school curriculum in chapter 2 The last chapter of this section by Steven L Lamy presents a framework for understanding extremist ultraconservative attacks on global education In the next chapter James Becker links global education to citizenship education Jane A Boston discusses educational leadership in global education in chapter 5 Ida Urso examines the role of teachers in chapter 6 and uses qualitative data to show how global education can promote cross cultural understanding and be a renewing force for teachers In chapter 7 Jan L Tucker explores the complex problem of creating educational collaborations between schools and universities Charlotte C Anderson documents many ways in which global education involves schools and students with their communities in chapter 8 In chapter 9 Toni Fuss Kirkwood uses personal experience to show how and why global education has become a successful vehicle for school improvement The conclusion by Kenneth A Tye explores themes gathered in a Center for Human Interdependence CIH field study of bringing a global perspective to school curricula Chapters include references LMI Teacher Education Quarterly ,1989 Third World Struggle for Peace with Justice Thomas P. Fenton,Mary J. Heffron,1990 International Peace Research Newsletter ,1986 Prospects ,1988 Bibliography of Nuclear Age Educational Resources Robin Riddle,1988 This annotated bibliography for educators serves as a descriptive guide to 275 curriculum materials textbooks and audio visual materials Teaching About International Conflict and Peace Merry M. Merryfield,Richard C. Remy,1995-01-01 This book is about international conflict resolution and management Exploring Betty A. Reardon's Perspective on Peace Education Dale T. Snauwaert,2019-05-15 This book presents commentaries by a leading international group of peace education scholars and practitioners concerning Reardon s peace education theory and intellectual legacy The guiding question throughout the book is How can her foundational work be used to advance the theory and practice of peace education In an attempt to find answers the contributing authors explore three general areas of inquiry 1 Theoretical Foundations of Peace and Human Rights Education 2 Feminism and the Gender Perspective as Pathways of Transformation Toward Peace and Justice and 3 Peace Education Pedagogy and Practices A contemplative commentary by Reardon herself rounds out the coverage Encyclopedia of Violence, Peace, and Conflict ,1999-08-16 The Encyclopedia of Violence Peace and Conflict a three volume set written by more than 200 eminent contributors from around the world takes advantage of increasing worldwide awareness in the public private commercial and academic sectors about manifestations of violence in all segments of society While the contributors do not use these volumes to make specific arguments they do describe and clarify the developments in thought that have led to current theories about and positions on violence and peace Our reviewers consistently note that while many in depth studies of war peace and aggression exist the attendant specialization keeps scholars from learning about related fields No publication competing with the Encyclopedia of Violence Peace and Conflict can satisfy their need for a vast introductory work to such a diverse and socially important field This major work includes more than 190 multidisciplinary articles with over 1 000 cross references and more than 2 000 bibliography entries for further reading which are arranged alphabetically for easy access More than 190 multidisciplinary articles with over 1 000 cross references Article outline and glossary of key terms begin each article Entries arranged alphabetically for easy access Three volume set with subject index of over 750 entries Articles written by more than 200 eminent contributors from around the world Yearbook Kenneth A. Tye,1990 Viewed as a social movement for change the global education movement calls for the infusion of a global perspective into all curriculum areas Two assumptions of global education include the view of the individual school as the optimal unit for change efforts and the importance of local teacher and school action for lasting school improvement This yearbook defines global education explains its importance describes it implementation and demonstrates its uses for school improvement The first part examines the context of schooling in which a global perspective can be developed and the second part is directed toward issues of practice In chapter 1 Lee F Anderson develops an argument for global studies in the schools Barbara Benham Tye delineates the problems inherent in changing school curriculum in chapter 2 The last chapter of this section by Steven L Lamy presents a framework for understanding extremist ultraconservative attacks on global education In the next chapter James Becker links global education to citizenship education Jane A Boston discusses educational leadership in global education in chapter 5 Ida Urso examines the role of teachers in chapter 6 and uses qualitative data to show how global education can promote cross cultural understanding and be a renewing force for teachers In chapter 7 Jan L Tucker explores the complex problem of creating educational collaborations between schools and universities Charlotte C Anderson documents many ways in which global education involves schools and students with their communities in chapter 8 In chapter 9 Toni Fuss Kirkwood uses personal experience to show how and why global education has become a successful vehicle for school improvement The conclusion by Kenneth A Tye explores themes gathered in a Center for Human Interdependence CIH field study of bringing a global perspective to school curricula Chapters include references LMI
