Edwards III, 2010-03-11 2012 Global Warning The destination or the beginning of the apocalypse Ninth and Last Sign You will hear of a dwelling place in the heavens above the earth that shall fall with a great crash It will appear as a blue star And very soon after this the ceremonies of people will cease There are nine signs that great destruction has come and is coming Like many tribes the Hopis drew images that have come to pass and images of things to come Thirteen Baktuns is equal to just over 5 125 years and in our present age of the jaguar the fourth age the Great Cycle runs out on the winter solstice December 21 2012 the Mayan end date The meaning is the death of the sun the rebirth of a universe and the Mayan Prophecy of the return of the god Quetzalcoatl all this is the subject of active debate This time will also mark a United States change in era where we will elect a new President Is this the prophecy of the Antichrist Could it be the end of one time and the beginning of the final stages of centuries of prophecies Global Warning. An ethnography of the encounter between global and local de Wit, Sara, 2015-04-26 Moving beyond existing approaches that largely deal with the biophysical consequences of climate change realities in Africa this book explores an alternative perspective that traces climate change as a travelling idea It focuses on how globally constructed discourses on climate change find their way to the local level in the Bamenda Grassfields of Cameroon thereby seeking to understand how these discursive practices lead to social transformations and to new configurations of power In the translation process from the global to the local level a continuous modification and appropriation of the idea of climate change takes place that finally leads to a concrete implementation of climate change related projects and sensitization campaigns Hence it is argued that in this increasingly interconnected and mediated world people in Africa and elsewhere in the world do not solely adapt to a changing climate but also adapt to a changing discourse about the climate Travelling between traditional rulers and their palaces to the world of NGOs journalists and ordinary farmers this study brings the reader on a captivating journey that reveals how climate change engages in a variety of ways with different lifeworlds revitalizes local cosmologies gives birth to a new development paradigm and moreover how it evokes apocalyptic anxieties and trajectories of blame at the grassroots level GLOBAL WARNING: COVID-19 AND THE REAL BOOGIEMEN Dr Eve A. Global Warning ... Global Warming Melvin A. Benarde,1992-05-11 To understand and constructively participate in the current debate on global warming and its consequences it is essential to have a guide to the playing field Dr Melvin A Benarde s book is this guide and more It is in fact a Baedeker through the minefields of uncertainty which currently bedevil much of the discussion on global warming He contends that predictions of global warming and its consequences generated by mathematical models are too often taken as holy writ When in fact he states they can only be seen as tentative Anything else severely tortures the data Without this rendering the current discussions border on babble Bias prejudice and hidden agendas are everywhere and can be obstacles and pitfalls for the unprepared and unwary By no means does he shrug off the idea of a possible warming trend Dr Benarde takes this fully into account and discusses in generous detail the alternatives reasonable people would pursue in the face of prodigious uncertainty Consequently the book goes well beyond any of the others currently in print in describing the shortcomings of the warming thesis why the stable climate of the past 10 000 years may or may not change as well as the advantages and disadvantages of a warmer world Clearly this fully documented book is essential reading for anyone interested in understanding the panoply of issues inherent in the possibility of climate change and contributes to much needed meaningful dialog
