countries Hollywood's Embassies Ross Melnick, 2022-04-26 Winner 2024 Culbert Family Book Prize International Association for Media and History Winner 2022 Richard Wall Memorial Award Theatre Library Association Beginning in the 1920s audiences around the globe were seduced not only by Hollywood films but also by lavish movie theaters that were owned and operated by the major American film companies These theaters aimed to provide a quintessentially American experience Outfitted with American technology and accoutrements they allowed local audiences to watch American films in an American owned cinema in a distinctly American way In a history that stretches from Buenos Aires and Tokyo to Johannesburg and Cairo Ross Melnick considers these movie houses as cultural embassies He examines how the exhibition of Hollywood films became a constant flow of political and consumerist messaging selling American ideas products and power especially during fractious eras Melnick demonstrates that while Hollywood's marketing of luxury and consumption often struck a chord with local audiences it was also frequently tone deaf to new social cultural racial and political movements He argues that the story of Hollywood's global cinemas is not a simple narrative of cultural and industrial indoctrination and colonization Instead it is one of negotiation booms and busts successes and failures adoptions and rejections and a precursor to later conflicts over the spread of American consumer culture A truly global account Hollywood's Embassies shows how the entanglement of worldwide movie theaters with American empire offers a new way of understanding film history and the The European Union as a Global Cultural Power Mafalda Dâmaso, 2025-05-19 Although history of U S soft power culture is increasingly recognised as a relevant focus of scholarly analysis the European Union EU has not yet been examined as a global cultural power Addressing this gap this book offers a comprehensive overview of the multiple arenas through which the EU has emerged as a major cultural actor beyond its borders Focusing on Culture in Foreign Policy and Development as well as Media and Trade the book gathers an international team of experts to provide a comprehensive analysis of the EU s multifaceted cultural action across various policy fields and regions The book draws together discussions in cultural studies cultural policy international relations media studies and law to ask the following questions What characterises EU cultural and media policies and programmes beyond its borders What are the assumptions and the goals that underlie such policies and programmes Suggesting that the EU is beginning to emerge as an enabling power that supports cultural diversity around the world the volume also reflects on the global role of the EU and contribute to debates regarding the liberal international order by taking a new angle India's New Independent Cinema Ashvin Immanuel Devasundaram, 2016-06-10 This is the first ever book on the rise of the new wave of independent Indian films that is revolutionising Indian cinema Contemporary scholarship on Indian cinema so far has focused asymmetrically on Bollywood India's dominant cultural export Reversing this trend this book provides an in depth examination of the burgeoning independent Indian film sector It locates the new Indies as a glocal hybrid film form global in aesthetic and local in content They critically engage with a diverse socio political spectrum of state of the nation stories from farmer suicides

disenfranchised urban youth and migrant workers to monks turned anti corporation animal rights agitators This book provides comprehensive analyses of definitive Indie new wave films including Peepli Live 2010 Dhobi Ghat 2010 The Lunchbox 2013 and Ship of Theseus 2013 It explores how subversive Indies such as polemical postmodern rap musical Gandu 2010 transgress conventional notions of traditional Indian values and collide with state censorship regulations This timely and pioneering analysis shows how the new Indies have emerged from a middle space between India's globalising present and traditional past This book draws on in depth interviews with directors actors academics and members of the Indian censor board and is essential reading for anyone seeking an insight into a current Indian film phenomenon that could chart the future of Indian cinema A History of Hollywood's Outsourcing Debate Camille Johnson-Yale, 2017-05-09 A History of Hollywood's Outsourcing Debate Runaway Production provides a critical history of runaway production from its origins in postwar Hollywood to its present uses in describing a global network of diverse television and film production communities Through extensive archival research Camille Johnson Yale chronicles Hollywood's postwar push for investment in European production markets as a means for supporting the economy of America's wartime allies while also opening industry access to lucrative trade relationships exotic locations and inexpensive skilled labor For Hollywood's studio production labor however the story of runaway production documents the gradual loss of power over the means of television and motion picture production Though the phrase has taken on several meanings over its expansive history it is argued that runaway production has ultimately served as a powerful metaphorical rallying cry for a labor community coming to terms with a globalizing Hollywood industry that increasingly functions as an exportable process and less as a defined industrial The Evolution of Hollywood's Calculated Blockbuster Films Alexander Ross, 2023-04-24 In this book Alexander Ross place highlights how creative entrepreneurs saved the Hollywood studios in the 1970s by establishing the calculated blockbuster consisting of key replicable markers of success as Hollywood's preeminent business model Ross demonstrates how visionary individuals such as Coppola Spielberg Lucas and Zemeckis helped create the modern calculated blockbuster business model BBM However with the rise of streaming giants and the studios struggling to compete many consumers of entertainment now elect to partake from the comfort of their homes making the difference between cinema and television anachronistic Revisiting the history of those 1970s blockbusters and their ongoing impact on contemporary filmmaking Ross offers distinct analysis on whether the calculated blockbuster can continue to lead or if the streamers will continue to generate their own content and eventually fully control the dissemination process For scholars and students in film pop culture and business along with aspiring filmmakers screenwriters producers and executives the book will be a valued resource Movies and American Society Steven J. Ross, 2014-01-28 The second edition of Movies and American Society is a comprehensive collection of essays and primary documents that explore the ways in which movies have changed and been changed by American society from 1905 to the present Each chapter includes an introduction discussion questions an essay examining the issues of the period primary documents and a list of further reading and screenings Includes a new chapter on American Film in the Age of Terror and new essays for Chapter 9 Race Violence and Film and Chapter 13 Hollywood Goes Global as well as updated Reading and Screenings sections Discusses all the major periods in American film history from the first nickelodeons to the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan and the globalization of Hollywood Demonstrates the unique influence of movies on all aspects of American culture from ideology politics and gender to class war and race relations Engaging and accessible for students with jargon free essays and primary documents that show social practices and controversies as well as the fun and cultural influence of movies and movie going Globalization and Latin American Cinema Sophia A. McClennen, 2018-05-25 Studying the case of Latin American cinema this book analyzes one of the most public and most exportable forms of postcolonial national culture to argue that millennial era globalization demands entirely new frameworks for thinking about the relationship between politics culture and economic policies Concerns that globalization would bring the downfall of national culture were common in the 1990s as economies across the globe began implementing neoliberal free market policies and abolishing state protections for culture industries Simultaneously new technologies and the increased mobility of people and information caused others to see globalization as an era of heightened connectivity and progressive contact Twenty five years later we are now able to examine the actual impact of globalization on local and regional cultures especially those of postcolonial societies Tracing the full life cycle of films and studying blockbusters like City of God Motorcycle Diaries and Children of Men this book argues that neoliberal globalization has created a highly ambivalent space for cultural expression one willing to market against itself as long as the stories sell. The result is an innovative and ground breaking text suited to scholars interested in globalization studies Latin American studies and film studies The Economic Rise of China Zhihua Wang, Eleftherios Giovanis, Nikolaos Karagiannis, 2022-08-08 This book seeks to reinvigorate debates on the growing forces influencing China's social and economic evolution It draws attention to several neglected areas in the discussion of China's rapid economic expansion such as unbalanced growth mass internal migration international labour flows and disparities in access to education public health and housing China's rapid economic development has attracted the interest of many scholars following its emergence as the world's second largest economy and stimulated research into the underlying factors that have made this development unique In advancing research the chapters included in this edited book help with refining our understanding of the forces that have been driving China's social economic political institutional and technological developments addressing the related issues thus advancing the social economic literature within the China context This book serves the interests of scholars who seek to understand more fully the development of China as well as of other emerging economies One of the chapters in this volume was originally published in the Review of Evolutionary Political Economy Other chapters were originally published in the Forum for Social Economics

audience of films cross national boundaries film scholars have begun to think in terms of transnational rather than national cinema This book is positioned within the emerging field of transnational cinema and offers a groundbreaking study of the relationship between transnational cinema and ideology The book focuses in particular on the complex ways in which religion identity and cultural myths interact in specific cinematic representations of ideology Author Milja Radovic approaches the selected films as national regional products and then moves on to comparative analysis and discussion of their transnational aspects This book also addresses the question of whether transnationalism reinforces the nation or not one of the possible answers to this question may be given through the exploration of the cinema of national states and its transnational aspects Radovic illustrates the ways in which these issues represented and framed by films are transmitted beyond their nation state borders and local ideologies in which they originated and questions whether therefore one can have an understanding of transnational cinema as a platform for political dialogue Hollywood's Drama Diaries: Beyond the Silver Screen Pasquale De Marco, 2025-03-18 In the realm of cinema where dreams are conjured and stories take flight Hollywood s Drama Diaries Beyond the Silver Screen unveils the secrets behind the silver screen and explores the profound impact of cinema on our lives This captivating book embarks on a journey through the art and craft of filmmaking celebrating the visionaries who bring stories to life and examining the cultural and societal significance of cinema From the iconic studios of Hollywood to the independent filmmakers pushing boundaries we trace the evolution of cinema witnessing the birth of genres the rise of stars and the technological advancements that have revolutionized the way we experience movies Beyond the glitz and glamour of the red carpets Hollywood's Drama Diaries delves into the intricate relationship between filmmakers and their audiences exploring the creative process the challenges of adaptation and the power of collaboration We uncover the unsung heroes of filmmaking the cinematographers editors composers and countless others who work tirelessly behind the scenes to create cinematic masterpieces With insightful analysis and engaging storytelling this book sheds light on the economic and cultural impact of cinema examining its role in shaping values trends and global perspectives It is an invitation to cinephiles aspiring filmmakers and anyone captivated by the magic of movies to embark on a journey of discovery appreciation and reflection Hollywood's Drama Diaries is a celebration of the transformative power of cinema a medium that continues to captivate inspire and entertain audiences worldwide Join us as we uncover the secrets of Hollywood's drama diaries and explore the diverse chapters that lie ahead delving into the art of storytelling the power of performance the role of genre and the enduring legacy of cinema If you like this book write a review German Cinema in the Age of Neoliberalism Hester Baer, 2025-10-01 This book presents a new history of German film from 1980 2010 a period that witnessed rapid transformations including intensified globalization a restructured world economy geopolitical realignment and technological change all of which have affected cinema in fundamental ways Rethinking the conventional periodization of German film history Baer posits 1980 rather than 1989 as a crucial turning point for German cinema s embrace of a new market orientation and move away from the state sponsored film culture that characterized both DEFA and the New German Cinema Reading films from East West and post unification Germany together Baer argues that contemporary German cinema is characterized most strongly by its origins in and responses to advanced capitalism Informed by a feminist approach and in dialogue with prominent theories of contemporary film the book places a special focus on how German films make visible the neoliberal recasting of gender and national identities around the new millennium Mediated Geographies and Geographies of Media Susan P. Mains, Julie Cupples, Chris Lukinbeal, 2015-10-12 This is the first comprehensive volume to explore and engage with current trends in Geographies of Media research It reviews how conceptualizations of mediated geographies have evolved Followed by an examination of diverse media contexts and locales the book illustrates key issues through the integration of theoretical and empirical case studies and reflects on the future challenges and opportunities faced by scholars in this field The contributions by an international team of experts in the field address theoretical perspectives on mediated geographies methodological challenges and opportunities posed by geographies of media the role and significance of different media forms and organizations in relation to socio spatial relations the dynamism of media in local global relations and in depth case studies of mediated locales Given the theoretical and methodological diversity of this book it will provide an important reference for geographers and other interdisciplinary scholars working in cultural and media studies researchers in environmental studies sociology visual anthropology new technologies and political science who seek to understand and explore the interconnections of media space and place through the examples of specific practices and settings
