International Marketing Management Mario Glowik, Slawomir Smyczek, 2012-09-18 In recent decades against the background of integrated global trade patterns the complexity of international marketing and management has increased enormously Accordingly the momentum of business opportunities and challenges has accelerated and a firm has to continuously evaluate its market environment in order to make adjustments that reflect the firm's individual strengths and weaknesses This book takes as its perspective that the customer undoubtedly is positioned in the center of the firm's overall management activities True understanding of the customer requires efficient marketing research about the firm's international business environment As discussed in the first chapters of the book the firm's business success depends in part on its ethical standards thus awareness of its environmental and social responsibility is required The following chapters concentrate on various aspects of culturally biased customer behavior and how the firm ensures sensitivity when planning and selecting its marketing strategies The most efficient techniques of international market segmentation targeting and strategic competitive positioning are introduced Furthermore concepts of consumer loyalty programs and their implementation in diversified international markets are presented An important part is dedicated to describing suitable mixes of marketing policies for firms operating in culturally heterogeneous international markets Finally forecasting changes in consumer behavior as a tool of planning international marketing activities is taken into consideration Marketing control mechanisms that seek to increase efficiency of selected marketing activities further contribute to the valuable insights of this publication Overall the authors intention is to combine the newest theoretical concepts with pragmatic decisions made by firms The book is particularly suitable for undergraduate and graduate students taking courses in international marketing strategic and cultural management Executives and practitioners involved in business can take fundamental and updated knowledge from this publication which hopefully will improve their competitive positions against their rivals in the global arena

International Marketing Daniel W. Baack, Eric G. Harris, Donald Baack, 2012-02-09 International Marketing presents an innovative integrated approach to the course in which marketing concepts are explored in depth within the international context. Daniel W Baack, Eric Harris and Donald Baack identify five key factors that impact any international marketing venture: culture, language, political/legal systems, economic systems and technological/operational differences and discuss them in relation to the core marketing concepts of markets, products, pricing, distribution, place and promotion. Uniquely, the book provides discussions of sustainability and bottom of the pyramid concepts within each chapter and is richly illustrated with examples from both multinational companies as well as smaller local concerns. Setting the path for the future direction of this course, the authors provide instructors and students with the first truly international marketing textbook.

International Business Marios I. Katsioloudes, Spyros Hadjidakis, 2007 International Business covers international business issues from a multinational perspective. Each chapter features the reverse perspective case that provides material for discussion and/or case analysis from a global perspective, not necessarily that of the US.

International Business Marios Katsioloudes, Spyros Hadjidakis, 2007-03-15 Traditionally, international business (IB) texts survey the field from a USA perspective, going on to compare the USA to the rest of the business world. This text addresses IB from a purely multinational perspective. International Business is examined from the USA angle, going on to address IB issues from other countries' perspectives, what we call the Reverse Perspective. The authors interview business executives and politicians from a number of countries including the USA Canada Mexico Brazil Colombia Argentina India Hong Kong Taiwan China Japan South Korea Germany Italy and Russia These interviews are incorporated at appropriate points in the text providing first hand information and practical insight Cases include Air Arabia Gap Diebold Inc Matsushita AMSUPP NIKE China Eastern Airlines Luton Dunstable Hospital Harley Davidson Cassis de Dijon Green investments in Belize Chicago Food and Beverage Company Advanced Software Analytics
