Global Perspectives in the Geography Curriculum Alex Standish, 2008-10-07 For geographers across the globe this book provides the arguments for a return to the teaching of geography and why they should reject the politicisation of the subject by education policy makers and politicians Standish's careful critique shows the necessity of a depoliticised geography curriculum the irony of which would be that it would ensure that every child could point to Iraq Iran and Afghanistan on a map Prof Dennis Hayes Oxford Brookes University UK A prescient and critical analysis of the changing face of geography teaching This book deserves to be widely read and debated Alex Standish's book puts current trends in geography teaching in historical and critical context It comprises a forthright and timely defence of geographical education for its own sake Dr Jim Butcher FRSA Department of Sport Science Tourism and Leisure Canterbury Christ Church

University Since the early 1990s educational policy makers and some subject leaders have been seeking to fundamentally change the teaching of geography in UK and US schools from a subject which encourages students to explore spatial concepts ideas and skills to a more ethics based subject concerned with the promotion of environmentalism cultural diversity and social justice In this book the new approach is critically examined within a historical and ideological context addressing a number of fundamental questions Should geography be used as a tool for the delivery of citizenship ideals How does this affect the intellectual and moral value of geographical education for young people If the state and teachers are taking more responsibility for the values attitudes and emotional responses of students how will they learn to develop these qualities for themselves If global perspectives shift the focus of education from learning about the outside world to learning about the self what is its vision of social progress and conception of social change This book advocates a return to liberal models of education arguing that the new approach to geography currently being promoted for schools fundamentally undermines the educational value of the subject and the freedom of young people to shape the world in which they live A vital resource for teachers and student teachers alike Global Perspectives in the Geography Curriculum makes a significant contribution to the growing debate about the future direction of the discipline itself Conceptual and Methodological Issues on the Adjustment to Aging Sofia von Humboldt, 2016-05-25 This book approaches the concept of adjustment to aging and endeavors to build reader understanding of this construct through a critical review and discussion Once the reader understands the origins and nature of adjustment to aging a second innovation encompasses the development of a proposed empirical model of adjustment to aging and the analysis of its components and correlates Measures to assess adjustment to aging policies programs and interventions comprising adjustment to aging and its components and correlates will also be addressed Another innovation includes the multidimensional experience of adjustment to aging from the cultural perspective Lastly it addresses areas of future development related to this construct Future policies and interventions in older populations need to integrate and debate the role of adjustment to aging and ultimately consider a variety of different strategies each with a different set of costs and benefits Health and social professionals will be at the vanguard of policy making and community and institutional interventions Hence resources and tools to adequately prepare these individuals for the future years will be vital It is the author's hope that this resource can be valuable for professionals and students working within the field of aging as they develop research and intervention policies encompassing adjustment to aging in the coming years Resources in Education ,1998-10 Intimate Partner Violence Connie Mitchell, Deirdre Anglin, 2009-06-30 Intimate partner violence is a challenging problem that health professionals encounter on a daily basis This volume thoroughly compiles the current knowledge and health science and provides a strong foundation for students educators clinicians and researchers on prevention assessment and intervention International Social Work and Forced Migration Ralf Roßkopf, Katharina Heilmann, 2021-02-15 The book focuses on Social Work with refugees in African Middle East and European countries

Published as a follow up to the International Social Work Week in W rzburg Germany with professionals and experts from all over the globe this book intends to share insights into country specific developments challenges and potentials of Social Work in forced migration contexts The objectives are to map Social Work in this field of action across several countries to bring into sharper focus an International Social Work in forced migration contexts as well as to contribute in connecting Social Work scholars and experts around the globe

Beyond Bystanders Nimrod Aloni,Lori Weintrob,2017-04-17 Beyond Bystanders calls for a shift in the professional self image of teachers from agents of socialization to active advocates of human flourishing social justice and world betterment The editors propose that it is irresponsible for teachers to posit themselves as bystanders and to conceive of globalization as something happening to them Their role as educators in all disciplines must be to establish educational leadership that would empower students to critically evaluate developing global realities mass migrations socioeconomic inequalities global warming and the dehumanizing effects of submission to social media and consumerism and achieve the overarching goals of humanization and facilitation of the fulfilling life A shared commitment to humanist ethics pedagogical activism and social engagement at Kibbutzim College of Education Tel Aviv and Wagner College New York sparked this collaboration The authors of the book include educational thinkers such as Nel Noddings Michael Apple David Hansen Pasi Sahlberg and Wiel Veugelers as well as scholars and practitioners from six different countries and diverse professional and cultural backgrounds An essential part of our educational enterprise must involve promoting intercultural opportunities confronting cultural ills and ensuring that civic engagement is more attuned to political realities Educators in all disciplines can reframe their teaching and schools to be more cooperative and civic minded and challenge views of marginalized immigrant undocumented and refugee communities as strangers Education is not only about teaching people to read and to write It is about teaching human rights and cultural diversity nourishing peace and fostering inclusive and sustainable development I wish to commend Kibbutzim College of Education and Wagner College for joining forces to compile this volume to inspire readers in crafting new models of intellectual and intercultural understanding

Irina Bokova Director General of UNESCO from the Foreword ICICKM2014-Proceedings of the 11th International Conference on Intellectual Capital, Knowledge Management and Organisational Learning Jim Rooney, 2014-10-17 These proceedings represent the work of researchers participating in the 11th International Conference on Intellectual Capital Knowledge Management Organisational Learning ICICKM 2014 which this year is being held at The University of Sydney Business School The University of Sydney Australia The Conference Co Chairs are Dr John Dumay from Macquarie University Sydney Australia and Dr Gary Oliver from the University of Sydney Australia The conference will be opened with a keynote by Goran Roos Advanced Manufacturing Council Adelaide Australia who will address the topic of Intellectual capital in Australia Economic development in a high cost economy The second day will be opened with a from James Guthrie University of Sydney Australia on the topic of Intellectual Capital and the Public Sector Research Past Present and Future Mapping the Transnational World Emanuel Deutschmann, 2022-01-25 A study of the structure growth and future of transnational human travel and communication Increasingly people travel and communicate across borders Yet we still know little about the overall structure of this transnational world Is it really a fully globalized world in which everything is linked as popular catchphrases like global village suggest Through a sweeping comparative analysis of eight types of mobility and communication among countries worldwide from migration and tourism to Facebook friendships and phone calls Mapping the Transnational World demonstrates that our behavior is actually regionalized not globalized Emanuel Deutschmann shows that transnational activity within world regions is not so much the outcome of political cultural or economic factors but is driven primarily by geographic distance He explains that the spatial structure of transnational human activity follows a simple mathematical function the power law a pattern that also fits the movements of many other animal species on the planet Moreover this pattern remained extremely stable during the five decades studied 1960 to 2010 Unveiling proximity induced regionalism as a major feature of planet scale networks of transnational human activity Deutschmann provides a crucial corrective to several fields of research Revealing why a truly global society is unlikely to emerge Mapping the Transnational World highlights the essential role of interaction beyond borders on a planet that remains spatially fragmented

Global Perspectives: the Human Dimension, Part 1 Margaret Stimmann Branson,1977 Social Research for our Times Claire Cameron ,Alison Koslowski,Alison Lamont ,Peter Moss,2023-11-14 For 50 years researchers at UCL s Thomas Coram Research Unit have been undertaking ground breaking policy relevant social research Their main focus has been social issues affecting children young people and families and the services provided for them Social Research for our Times brings together different generations of researchers from the Unit to share some of the most important results of their studies Two sections focus on the main findings and conclusions from research into children and children services and on family life minoritised groups and gender A third is then devoted to the innovative methods that have been developed and used to undertake research in these complex areas Running through the book is a key strategic question what should be the relationship between research and policy Or put another way what does policy relevant research mean This perennial question has gained new importance in the post Covid post Brexit world that we have entered making this text a timely intervention for sharing decades of experience Taking a unique opportunity to reflect on research context as well as research findings this book will be of interest to researchers teachers students and those involved in policy making both in and beyond dedicated research units and can be read as a whole or sampled for individual standalone chapters Assessing Spirituality in a Diverse World Amy L. Ai,Paul Wink,Raymond F. Paloutzian,Kevin A. Harris,2020-12-07 This volume addresses an important problem in social scientific research on global religions and spirituality How to evaluate the role of diverse religious and spiritual R S beliefs and practices within the rapid evolution of spiritual globalization and diversification trends The book examines this question by bringing together a panel of international scholars including psychologists sociologists and researchers in religious studies public health medicine and social work The content includes chapters describing innovative concepts of post Christian spirituality Eastern forms of meditation afterlife beliefs associated with the three dominant cultural legacies various non religious worldviews spiritual Jihad and secular and religious reverence The book also covers such important themes as spiritual well being faith struggle meaning making modeling and support as well as mysticism and using prayer to cope with existential crises This book advances the understanding of the role of R S across different faiths and cultural systems including both Western and non Western ones and enriches the mainstream of psychological sciences and practices It appeals to students educators researchers and clinicians in multiple related fields and disciplines Internally Displaced Persons and International Refugee Law Bríd Ní Ghráinne,2022-03-15 Internally Displaced Persons IDPs are persons who have been forced to leave their places of residence as a result of armed conflict violence human rights violations or natural or human made disasters but who have not crossed an international border There are about 55 million IDPs in the world today outnumbering refugees by roughly 2 1 Although IDPs and refugees have similar wants needs and fears IDPs have traditionally been seen as a domestic issue and the international legal and institutional framework of IDP protection is still in its relative infancy This book explores to what extent the protection of IDPs complements or conflicts with international refugee law Three questions form the core of the book s analysis What is the legal and normative relationship between IDPs and refugees To what extent is an individual s real risk of internal displacement in their country of origin relevant to the qualification and cessation of refugee status And to what extent is the availability of IDP protection measures an alternative to asylum It argues that the IDP protection framework does not as a matter of law undermine refugee protection The availability of protection within a country of origin cannot be a substitute for granting refugee status unless it constitutes effective protection from persecution and there is no real risk of refoulement The book concludes by identifying current and future challenges in the relationship between IDPs and refugees illustrating the overall impact and importance of the findings of the research and setting out questions for future research
