Risk Assessment in Setting National Priorities James J. Bonin,Donald E. Stevenson,2013-03-08 The growing perception of the public and politicians that life is extremely risky has led to a dramatic and increasing interest in risk analysis The risks may be very diverse as demonstrated by the range of subjects covered at the annual meetings of the Society for Risk Analysis There is a need to pause and see how well the present approaches are serving the nation The theme Setting National Priorities which was chosen for the 1987 SRA Annual Meeting reflects the concern that in dealing with individual kinds of risks society may be more concerned with the trees than the forest It is surprising how little attention is being given to the holistic aspects of risk Who for instance is responsible for a national strategy to manage the reduction of health or other risks Individual agencies have the responsibility for specific patterns of exposure but these are not integrated and balanced to determine how the nation as a whole can obtain the greatest benefit for the very large investment which is made in risk related research and analysis

Political Risk Analysis around the North Atlantic Frederick Stapenhurst,1992-06-18 Examines the emergence of the corporate political risk assessment function highlighting its evolution as an integral component of strategic decision making Numerous country specific and company specific examples of political risk analysis are included

Reporting on Organised Crime

Tom Vander Beken, B. Frans, 2001 This book is the outcome of a six month research contract undertaken by Ghent University's Research Group Drug Policy Criminal Policy and International Crime for the Belgian Minister of Justice Since 1996 the Belgian Government has produced Annual Reports on Organised Crime and while currently this takes the form of a typically descriptive situation report there has always been the intention to further develop the methodology underwriting the report It has been envisaged that such methodological development will rely upon the use of supplementary non police data both qualitative and quantitative supporting the utilisation of more sophisticated analytical tools Proceeding from earlier work undertaken by this research group for the Belgian Federal Police's Organised Crime Unit this book is an elaboration of the ideas found in Measuring Organised Crime in Belgium A Risk Based Methodology in which a method for determining the impact of organised crime in Belgium is proposed for application in the context of the Annual Reports Thus the substance of this book is a discursive analysis of the issues surrounding a risk based Annual Report on Organised Crime As the result of applied research Reporting on Organised Crime offers concrete recommendations and solutions for the analysis of organised crime and its reporting at the strategic level

Impact of China's Antitrust Law and Other Competition Policies on U.S.

Companies United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Courts and Competition Policy, 2010 Topics , 1976 Measuring Organised Crime in Belgium Chr. Black, Tom Vander Beken, Brice De Ruyver, 2000 The analysis of organised crime is of interest to academics policymakers and regulators The approach taken is necessarily determined by the requirement for analysis and the available resources This book is the outcome of a six month research undertaken for the Belgian Gendarmerie at Ghent University It presents a methodology to measure the impact of organised crime in Belgium and its research design has been shaped primarily by the demands of applied research In doing so the research draws extensively from a breadth of research into organised crime while being shaped by the intelligence and policy requirements of the Gendarmerie s Organised Crime unit This is reflected in the use of a risk management process that provides the iterative framework for the methodology Central to this is a three fold focus that incorporates organised crime groups illicit markets and economic sectors Each element relies upon a different method of analysis however their complementarity is ensured through the organising principle of the spectrum of enterprise The result is a methodology that is capable of being incorporated into existing systems and provides a richer form of strategic assessments regarding the impact of organised crime in Belgium
