Globalización, integración, Mercosur y desarrollo local Arturo Fernández, Silvia Gaveglia, 2000 Challenges for Human Rights Fernando Falcón y Tella, 2007-06-30 Nowadays we are fortunate enough to be experiencing a boom in human rights an enormous increase of their importance in the international sphere at all levels political economic social legal and moral For the first time the condition of the individual as citizen and not just as subject has gained importance Individuals and not only states have now become the subjects of international law as a result of the boom in humanitarian law and international criminal law However although there have been many battles won and goals met concerning human rights the war against injustice continues and the fight has not ended It is necessary to stay alert and to avoid a potentially paralyzing self complacency This collection focusses on topics that are particularly relevant for the present era It examines issues such as multiculturalism globalization international criminal justice specifically third and fourth generation rights and within this thematic framework the problems that have come about as a result of the expanding reach of the Internet and of new biomedical advances In addition it explores the increasingly urgent challenge of how to respond to international terrorism in view of worldwide events since September 11 2001 and its resulting aftermath Originally published in Spanish this thought provoking collection will be of interest to human rights scholars and practitioners alike Integración regional, fronteras

Comercio justo, globalización y medio ambiente Gonzalo Ramírez Cleves, Erli Margarita Marín, 2013-01-01

Desde que el proceso de liberalización de la economía se ha incrementado con la llamada globalización económica los índices de pobreza y de desigualdad en el mundo han aumentado también. El crecimiento de la economía y la generación de riqueza no han llevado como preveían los economistas a un mejor reparto. Según los informes del PNUD 2006 cada año mueren 18 millones de personas por causas relacionadas con la pobreza como las enfermedades endémicas, las malas condiciones de salubridad y el hambre es decir unas 5 000 personas diarias que incluyen a más de 34 000 niños menores de cinco años. Del mismo modo la desigualdad en la repartición de los recursos genera la llamada sociedad 20/80 es decir que el 20% de la humanidad dispone de la riqueza y de los recursos del planeta mientras que el 80% restante vive en condiciones de pobreza y miserias. Igualmente se ha cuestionado el modelo de globalización económica por problemas relacionados con el medio ambiente y el desarrollo sostenible ya que países industrializados con alta producción de gases de efecto invernadero como Estados Unidos, China y Rusia rechazan la firma de tratados medioambientales que limiten, restrinjan o encarezcan su producción. Concomitantemente se ha hablado de depredación ambiental en los países en vías de desarrollo con la explotación de los llamados commodities o bienes primarios recursos naturales y minerales así como bosques y plantas que no se encuentran suficientemente protegidos jurídicamente y donde muchas veces los intereses económicos llevan a que se flexibilice o adecue la legislación de los países más vulnerables económicamente para de este modo favorecer los intereses del mercado.

en un mundo globalizado y su influencia sobre los territorios Rethinking Free Trade, Economic Integration and Human Rights in the Americas María Belén Olmos Giupponi, 2017-01-26 This monograph offers the first systematic overview of the protection of human rights in trade agreements in the Americas Traditionally trade agreements in the Americas were concerned with economic questions and paid little attention to human rights However in the wake of the new regionalism which emerged at the end of the last century more clauses addressing social issues such as labour rights and environmental standards were inserted in trade agreements As economic integration increased a framework for the protection of human rights evolved This book argues that this framework allows for human rights protection on a transnational level while constructing regional identities Looking at the four key regional integration processes namely the Caribbean Community the Central American Integration System the Andean Community of Nations and the Southern Common Market and also at the North American Free Trade Agreement it shows how the integration process has reached a considerable degree of consolidation Writing on key sources in English for the first time this book will be essential reading for all free trade and human rights scholars Proyecto Global , Proyecto Global - Tendencias en la Organización Y El Financiamiento de la Investigación Agrícola en Los Países Desarrollados ,
