Globalization and Some of Its Contents George Rosen,2005 Globalising Migration History ,2014-03-27

Globalizing Migration History is a major step forward in comparative global migration history Looking at the period 1500 2000 it presents a new universal method to quantify and qualify cross cultural migrations which makes it possible to detect regional trends and explain differences in migration patterns across the globe in the last half millennium The contributions in this volume written by specialists on Russia China Japan India Indonesia and South East Asia show that such a method offers a fruitful starting point for rigorous comparisons Furthermore the volume is an explicit invitation to other economic cultural social and political historians to include migration more explicitly and systematically in their analyses and thus reach a deeper understanding of the impact of cross cultural migrations on social change Contributors are Sunil Amrith Ulbe Bosma Gijs Kessler Jelle van Lottum Jan Lucassen Leo Lucassen Mireille Mazard Adam McKeown Atsushi Ota Vijaya Ramaswamy Osamu Saito Jianfa Shen Ryuto Shimada Willard Sunderland and Yuki Umeno

Ukrainian state in order to fulfil its First World aspirations of joining Europe and distancing itself from all things Soviet is pursuing a gendered reorganization of family and work structures to achieve a transition from socialism to capitalism This has created a labor force of migrant grandmothers who carry the new Ukraine on their shoulders Solari shows that this post Soviet economic transformation requires a change in the moral order as migrant women struggle to understand how to be good mothers and grandmothers and men join women in attempts to teach their children to be successful and honorable people now that the social rules have drastically changed Looking at individual migrant women and men and their families in Ukraine allows us to see the production of neoliberal capitalism and new nationalism from the ground up and the outside in for a region that promises to be a flashpoint in our century

Globalizations from Below Theodor Tudoroiu, 2022-09-09 Globalizations from Below uses a Constructivist International Relations approach that emphasizes the centrality of normative power to analyze and compare the four globalizations from below These are 1 the counter hegemonic globalization represented by the movement of movements of alter globalization transnational social activists who try to put an end to the Neoliberal nature of the Western centered globalization from above 2 the non hegemonic globalization enacted by ant traders that are part of the transnational informal economy 3 the partially similar Chinese centered globalization whose entrepreneurial migrants are strongly influenced and instrumentalized by the Chinese state and 4 the first wave globalization from below that paralleled and outlived the 1870 1914 globalization from above This book identifies their common features and uses them to define the concept of globalization from below as a set of socio economic or socio political processes that involve large transnational flows of people goods and or ideas characterized at least in part by informality They are enacted by entrepreneurial or activist individuals who either take advantage of the normative power of the hegemon at the origin of an international order and an associated globalization from above or explicitly or implicitly transgress contest and try to redefine dominant economic legal political and socio cultural norms thus challenging the existing international order and globalization from above By constructing a unified theoretical framework this book attempts to open a new field of interdisciplinary research that should take globalizations from below out of their
